CLUBS.

ANNIE L. MILLER, EDITOR.

The annual of the Plattsmouth club is with pink and white ribbon, the colors put in its dainty dress of olive green tied of the club. Between the covers of the brochure one finds the constitution and by laws, the names of the officers, the committees, a calendar and the programs for each meeting.

The departments of the club are, art, child study, current topics and current literature, domestic economy and a travel course. The latter is proving to be one of the very best cards of the year. The ladies take imaginary trips over the United States and the descriptive papers and talks have been of more than passing interest.

The art department will begin the study of Italian and Flemish painters under the leadership of Mrs. Snyder, who has made a study of art and art topics for some years. The household economics department will study practical questions and the child study department will take the courses mapped out for the clubs of the state.

The club meets in the evening, it having been found that the afternoon was not the time when the largest number could attend. Much interest is being
