Social and Personal

The Misses Lansing were guests over noon. Thanksgiving of Miss Brand of Omaha. Mrs. A. G. Billmeyer has returned from an extended visit in Dayton and other points in Ohio. She was accompanied by her sister, Miss Mable Enlaes, who will spend the winter in Lincoln.

Miss Cora Parker and Mrs. R. E. Giffen left Sunday for Chicago, where Mrs. Giffen will remain for a time as an art student under Mr. Chase.

Mrs. Walker Browning, who has been visiting Mrs. W. R. B. Alexander, returned to her home at Billings, Mont., last Sunday. Her son, who accompanied her, will remain in Lincoln to attend college.

The father of Dr. Thurber of the State University is a Congregational minister in Paris. In the accounts of American functions in Paris Dr. and Mrs. Thurber have a prominent place. In a recent notice of the newly appointed American minister's "at home" there were present the ambassador's pastor, Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Thurber, and Mr. John Wannemaker, who has been instituting prizes for our art students in Paris (no nudes need apply!). It is curious that art, like the ambassador, should be decidedly Low Church in Paris; perhaps it is because Dr. Morgan's congregation is too High, but the fact remains. Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt, who agreeably surprised everyone by their presence, also strengthen the religious element with which the ambassador is surrounding himself.

The young ladies of the High school are planning a drama to be given sometime this month.

The English club of the university is planning to issue a midwinter number of the Nebraska Literary Magazine. Prof. Ansley is editor-in chief and is surrounded by an able crop of young but excellent writers and literary critics.

Mrs. Paul Holm entertained a few friends at dinner Tuesday evening.

Miss Marie Marshall went to Omaha Tuesday to visit Mrs. Wheeler.

Mrs. Deemer of Omaha, has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hunt-singer, a past week.

Prof. Brainard and Secretary Kidd of the Beatrice Board of Education were guests of the Phi Kapp Psi fraternity, Monday and Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Meissner now of Webster City, Iowa, but formerly of Lincoln, are visiting friends in the city.

Prof. and Mrs. Waterhouse spent Thanksgiving vacation in Weeping Water.

Misses Steele and Shute were guests of Miss Cole of Ashland, last week.

Prof. and Mrs. Barton have been the guests of Prof. and Mrs. Barbour. Prof. Barton is a member of the U.S. geological survey.

Mrs. Ross Curtice has returned from a visit with her sister, Mrs. Beeman of Dawes of Marietta, Ohio.

A most enjoyable kensington was given on Wednesday afternoon at three o'clock by the ladies of the first Presbyterian church. Mrs. McConiga of York, read a brilliant paper on "Missions." She is a most pleasing speaker, bright and interesting and was very well received. Miss Galley sang in her charming way after the reading of the paper. Refreshments were served on small tables which were decorated with chrysanthemums. A very large number of ladies were present and all spent an exceedingly pleasant and profitable after noon. Mrs. A. G. Billmeyer has returned from an extended visit in Dayton and other points in Ohio. She was accompanied by her sister, Miss Mable Enlaes, who will spend the winter in Lincoln.

Quite a party of Lincoln people spent the Thanksgiving recess in Ashland. Misses Jessie Lansing and Helen Woods were the guests of Miss Selma Wiggernhorn and Messrs. Vergil, Barbee, Fritz Kormeyer and Clinton Norton visited George and Harry Shedd and Ernest Wiggernhorn. Friday night a dancing party was given in their honor by the Ashland Minuet Club, and Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Shedd entertained the young people at dinner.

Roy Sawyer, Sid Corby, Will Green, Earl McCree, Erwin Davenport, Austin Collett and George Shedd attended a party given by Miss Ruth Weller in Omaha Friday evening.

Rev. S. Fritchie left on Friday for Stockton, California.

Mr. John Farwell left on Monday for Tampico, Mexico.

Miss Alice Slaughter spent Friday in Omaha.

Miss Edith Shepard who has been the guest of Miss Crowe has returned to Chancellorsville, Iowa. He spent his vacation attending Teacher's Institute in Northern Nebraska.

Dr. C. F. Ladd returned from a trip to his old home in Illinois, on Saturday. His father came with him for a short visit.

Coach Robinson will leave for his home in Rhode Island next month. He is uncertain whether he will coach the university team next year or attend one of the eastern law colleges.

Mrs. Packard and Miss Bonnell who have been the guests of Miss Dena Loomis, returned to Chicago Sunday.

Mr. Jesse Rowe visited St. Paul and Columbus, Neb., last week in the interests of geological department of the University.

Congregationalists of this city will be interested in the announcement of Rev. Wilson Delney's resignation from the Ashland Congregational church to accept a call to Charles City, Iowa.

One of the most enjoyable of the recent concerts was that given at the Funke Opera House on Wednesday evening by Mr. George Dethlefs of Chicago, with the able assistance of Lincoln musicians.

The career of Mr. Dethlefs has been watched with much interest by his Lincoln friends, and though the audience was not large, the program won hearty appreciation from all present.

Mr. Dethlefs has a fine baritone voice of considerable range, under control and of a quality well suited for oratorio. It was something of a disappointment to find that he was only to appear twice on the program, and as both of his selections were rather heavy music, Dudley Buck's "Fear not Ye, O! Israel" and Handel's "Hear Me, Ye Winds and Waves," the audience had no opportunity to judge of his possibilities in lighter roles. Wagner's "Evening Star" from Tannhauser was given as an encore, and left a desire that Mr. Dethlefs might be
