Chancellor MacLear entertained the alumnae of the State University very delightfully on last Saturday evening. The earlier part of the evening was spent in the drawing room in conversation and examining the many relics and curiosities the Chancellor has picked up in his travels. The guests were then invited into the dining room where ices and cakes were served. In the latter part of the evening the guests were invited up to the lecture room where so many enjoyable meetings have been held. The occasion was to rejoice over the good fortune of the university and to thank the recent legislature for their appropriation. Other minor matters were attended to, among which was the consideration of forming alumnae associations in other cities in the U. S., especially in Washington where there are now several alumnae. While a great deal of business was attended to there was withal such a flow of wit and jollity as one seldom hears from such an august body as was there assembled.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Herzog gave a large reception at their home on 18th and N streets Thursday evening for Mrs. Polack and Mrs. Cahn of Omaha. Many took this opportunity to congratulate Mrs. Cahn on her brilliant success at the concert on Tuesday evening.
