

RUDGE & MORRIS CO

Lincoln's Sales Factory Store to Buy Xmas Presents

Our best arm reed rocker, large and strong - $10 50

Fancy reed divan, 3 feet wide $9 00

Nickel plated chafing dishes, 15 different styles from $3 00 to $13.00; style of the above cut $5 00

Footstool, oak, rattan covered, 11x14 inches high, each 69c

Fancy quartered oak or mahogany finish wood seat rocker - $4 15

Corner parlor piece, mahogany finish, upholstered seat - $4 50

Fancy parlor chair, mahogany back, wood seat - $6 25

Fancy oak or mahogany jardiner stands - $1 35

Ten different styles of 5 o'clock teas, from $3 to $7 each; above style - $6 50

SKATES

40c buys a solid steel pair of skates worth 50c
60c buys a pair of Klipper Klub skates blued top.
$1.00 buys a pair of nickel plated Club skates.
$1.50 buys a pair of hardened steel nickel plated skates.

CARVERS

$1.00 buys a good pair of Stag handle carvers.
$2.00 buys a set of warranted Stag handle carvers.
$3.00 buys a set of our best Stag handle carvers.
$4.00 buys a set of Antique Ivory candle carvers warranted.

RUGS

$1.25 buys a fine Brussels rug, with fringe 27x54.
$1.90 buys a good Keystone rug, size 30x60.
$3.00 buys a good Keystone rug, size 36x72.
$2.75 buys a genuine wool Smyrna rug size 30x60.

MUSICAL.

On Monday evening the Matinee Musicale gave one of the most successful of its open meetings. The room had been prettily decorated with chrysanthemums and shaded lamps, and the dainty costumes of the ladies of the reception committee and of the younger members acting as ushers, added much to the gaiety of the scene. The room was filled to overflowing with the guests who responded to the invitations of the club. The program passed off most smoothly and was of just the right length, and as no encores are allowed by the club, no one was worried by too much harmonious sound. The program was opened by the Ladies' Chorus of the Matinee Musicale in Hawley's "Spring Song." This was the first appearance of the chorus, and much of its success in smoothness and finish is due to the competent direction of Mrs. P. V. M. Raymond. Miss Silence Dales gave a violin number, Prume's "La Melancholie," charmingly, and afterwards played an obligato to Mrs. Lippincott's solo. Three vocal numbers besides the chorus were on the program. Mrs. E. Lewis Baker had been requested to sing Verdi's Romanze from "Il Corsaro," which is especially suited to her fine contralto voice, and she was also heard to advantage in the trio—Barcarolle, by Campana—with Mrs. Jansen and Mrs. Watkins. This number, though last, awakened most enthusiastic applause, and many thought it the gem of the evening, as the three fine voices were so well balanced in power, and the song was rendered with a vivacity and style betokening trained musicians. The soprano soloist was Mrs. C. S. Lippincott, who appeared for the last time before the club of which she was a charter member. Mascagni's "Ave Marie" she sang exquisitely, and later most kindly gave Barlet's "Dreams" in place of Miss Treat, who was unable to be present. The warm places in the hearts of the people of Lincoln which Mrs. Lippincott for so long has held, will not soon be filled by another, for her power over her hearers lies not so much in her sweet voice, but in the intense individuality and spirit of the singer imparted to her songs, which brings her into that close touch with an audience to which a colder musician cannot attain. Three well known pianists gave charming numbers: Mrs. Herzog a beautiful etude by Meyer, and the "Morris Dance," by German; Miss Schofield two beautiful selections, "Romance from Tannhauser," Wagner, and Schubert's "Auf dem Wasser zu Singen," both arranged by Liszt; while Mrs. Will Owen Jones played three of the daintiest, sweetest numbers, "Hark, Hark the Lark," Schubert-Liszt, "Lullabye," Nevin, and a "Valse" by Carreno, all pre-eminently suited to her exquisite touch and style, and reaching the hearts of her hearers in a way impossible to the more brilliant intellectual treats with which she has favored the public of late. A sprightly Moszkowski Valse by a quartet composed of Mrs. Barbour, Miss A. L. Miller, Mrs. Mitchell and Mrs. Winger, which has become a prominent feature of the club, closed the list of numbers on an extremely attractive program.

What is the difference between a bachelor and a benedict Pa? About fifty dollars a week, my son.

Great Editor—That fellow Pennibis will never make a newspaper man.
Assistant—What has he done now?
Great Editor—He brought me an article in which he tried to prove that newspaper advertising does not pay.

Abe Linkum Johnsing—Did you heah how Gawg Washon Jackson done die affah he eat two big possums an a peck of sweet taters?
Henry Clay Jones—Nuh, I did n't heah about dat, what he die uv?

CHRISTMAS

Comes every year, but an opportunity to buy presents at the prices we are offering them at this year comes only once in a life-time. Our . . .

PRESENTS

are music cabinets, parlor cabinets, ladies' desks, taberrettes, fancy rockers, Oriental rugs, carpet sweepers, lace and derby curtains.

We will be glad to show you through our new store. Remember . . .

—THE—

A. M. Davis Co