

Professional Directory.

DOCTORS.

Table listing doctors with columns for Telephone, Name, Office Hours, and Address. Includes Dr. O. C. Reynolds, W. L. Dayton, M. D., Dr. J. H. Tyndale, Dr. S. E. Cook, Dr. Benj. F. Bailey, Dr. R. E. Giffen, Ruth M. Wood, M. D., Dr. J. S. Eaton, H. S. Aley, M. D., Dr. J. B. Trickey, and DR. E. J. ANGLE.

DENTISTS.

Table listing dentists with columns for Telephone, Name, Office Hours, and Address. Includes Louis N. Wente, D.D.S., Dr. J. S. McNay, and Dr. F. D. Sherwin.

BUSINESS DIRECTORY.

Table listing business directory with columns for Phone, Name, and Address. Includes J. M. GUILÉ, Real Estate and Ins. Gen. Exchange Business.

Social and Personal

Mrs. Holden of Denver is the guest of Mrs. Pitcher. Mrs. Oliver Rodgers left on Thursday for New York. Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Brown left Wednesday for Angola, Ind. Miss Marion Treat has returned from a visit to her mother in Chicago. Miss Jessie Lansing returned Wednesday to her school at Davenport, Ia. Mrs. C. O. Robinson of Chicago is the guest of her sister, Mrs. John B. Wright. The Pleasant Hour will give their next party on Thursday evening, January 30. Miss Nellie Haworth of Council Bluffs is visiting Clara Wilson, 1900 Euclid avenue. Mr. Willard Yates left on Sunday to return to his school work in Lawrenceville, N. J. Mrs. Slaughter entertained the members of her circle of the Methodist church on Wednesday. Miss Florence Putnam left for Utica, N. Y., on Friday to resume her studies in Mrs. Piatt's school. Dr. and Mrs. Wolcott attended a house party last week given by Mrs. C. S. Montgomery of Omaha. Mrs. L. J. Teeters gave one of her delicious dinners on Wednesday evening. Her guests were Messrs. and Mesdames Holm, Bailey, Smith and Reed. Mrs. Chas. Lippincott and Mrs. Oliver Rodgers left on Thursday for New York city. The former will visit her mother in Cincinnati before joining her husband in New York. The La Vita whist club was entertained by Mrs. J. J. Gillilan on Tuesday evening. There were five tables, and duplicate whist was the game. Dainty refreshments were served. At Friend, Nebr., a very quiet wedding took place Wednesday, January 5, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. P. King, when their daughter, S. Maude, was united in marriage with Mr. Herbert L. McIntyre at the hour of 9. Only members of the family were present. Mrs. J. H. McMurtry gave an informal musicale on Thursday evening for a few friends in honor of Mrs. Lippincott and Miss Florence Putnam. Mrs. Lippincott very generously gave several selections. Mrs. D. A. Campbell and Mr. Haydn Meyer also sang very pleasingly. Mrs. Laur gave a card party on New Year's eve for Mrs. C. W. Schill of Lafayette, Indiana. There were six tables and several hours were spent in playing. After the games refreshments were served, and the time was spent in conversation till the old year had passed. The death of Mr. Frank Smith on Thursday morning was a great shock to his family and to his many friends. Mr. Smith was a friendly, gentle, quiet man whom all intimate with him genuinely loved. His wife and mother and brothers have the sympathy of everybody who knew him. Mrs. S. H. Burnham gave a musicale on Monday evening to a small number of friends, to give them the opportunity of hearing Mrs. Lippincott once more before she should leave for New York. Mrs. Watkins and Mrs. Campbell sang several times, also Mr. B. Curtis and Mrs. Burnham. Not the least enjoyable was the playing of Mrs. Wurzburg, whom all love to hear. News has been received in the city of the marriage at Wellsville, N. Y., of De Alton Saunders, formerly of this city, but now professor of agriculture in the state agricultural college at Brookings S. D. Mr. Saunders married Miss Eva Merritt about a week ago. Mr. Saunders was formerly instructor in biology in the high school in Lincoln. Mr. and Mrs. John B. Wright gave an elegant seven o'clock tea on Friday evening for Mrs. Robinson of Chicago. The guests were: Messrs. and Mesdames— Ogdan, Campbell, Ladd, F. Brown, Buckstaff, Leonard. Mesdames and Mesdames— Yates, Beeson, W. C. Wilson, Mr. Rodgers, Mr. Coffroth, Tilton. Mrs. Billmeyer entertained the L. A. G. F. Kensington club very delightfully on Thursday afternoon. Delicious refreshments were served to the guests. Besides the members of the club there were invited: Mesdames— George Clark, R. M. Turner, Fannie Latham, Miss Wilkinson of Chicago. Mesdames— Tilton, Chas. Griffith, Mrs. Holden of Denver. The club members were: Mesdames— F. Campbell, Walter Davis, Armstrong, W. Turner, N. Humphrey, Gearhardt, Chapin. Mesdames— M. Scott, Wilkinson, Pitcher, J. Farrell, Preston, C. I. Jones. A number of workers on the local newspapers met at the Lincoln hotel Thursday afternoon to see that all arrangements were made for the meeting of the state press association January 25 and 26. A reception committee was appointed to consist of W. F. Schwind, L. L. H. Austin, H. T. Dobbins, W. O. Jones, D. M. Butler, I. N. Baker, J. G. P. Hildebrand, Miss Sarah Harris and W. W. Wilson. Prof. August Hagenow appeared with a cordial invitation for the entire press association to attend the Philharmonic Symphony concert to be given the first evening during the meeting. It was accepted with thanks. Minor arrangements were completed to make the annual visit of the press boys a thing of beauty and a joy such as you read about. Mrs. Newmark entertained the B. B. auxiliary whist club on New Year's eve. The entertainment of the evening was changed to high five as being more appropriate for the high spirits of the guests. After several games and refreshments, dancing was indulged in until it was time to greet the New Year. Mr. and Mrs. Solomon and Miss Mary Levi of New Orleans were the guests of the club. Those present were: Messrs. and Misses— Mrs. James— Cora Schlesinger, Chas Mayer, Sarah Friend, M. Ackerman, Anna Mayer, Henry Mayer, Ida Friend, Schlesinger, Pauline Friend, Speier, Sallie Berkson, Keensky, Bertha Seligson, Morris Friend, Mathilde Friend, Aileen Friend. Messrs.— Trebaum, J. Oppenheimer, Sam Speier.

Saturday the Last Day

OUR sixteenth semi-annual discount clearing sale which commenced Monday of this week, will close this Saturday evening, January 8th, at 10 o'clock.

MILLER & PAINE

C. M. SEITZ GOOD LUCK GROCERY DEALER IN

STAPLE AND FANCY GROCERIES, FRUITS, VEGETABLES, ETC. TELEPHONE 626, 1107 O STREET.