AN OPTICAL DELUSION

is often caused by defective eye-sight. If there is one thing above another that should be prized it is good eye-sight; but if you are not blessed with it, the next best thing is a pair of our fine French crystal or Brazilian pebble eyeglasses or spectacles properly fitted to your eyes. We will test your sight free, and fit it properly.

Social and Personal

During the last month almost every sort of amusement imaginable has been offered as a means of entertainment. Guessing games, which have been forgotten for so long a time, have again come into prominence. Receptions have been more in vogue than for many seasons. Card parties, of all kinds, have been given by both the older and younger sets. Kensingtons and little "afternoons" have not been sighted. Luncheons, teas and coffee klatches have delighted many a guest by their unusual frequency. And dinners—that most elegant and complimentary of all forms of entertainment—have been given in such numbers as to cause even "old timers" to smile. Dancing parties alone seemed to have fallen from favor. But it is only for a time. They will take their old place at the head of the list next week. On Monday evening the Patriarchs will give an unusually pretty german with a dinner. On the same evening, at the Lincoln, the Delta Gamma fraternity will give a large dancing party. And on Friday evening will come off that long-looked-forward-to event—the Junior Promenade.

Mr. Sam Low was in Omaha last week.

Mrs. Powell of Omaha is the guest of Mrs. Irvine.

Mrs. C. E. Yates entertained at dinner on Friday evening.

Mr. Hudson Imhoff left on Thursday evening for Chicago.

Mrs. A. S. Raymond will give a dinner on Saturday evening.

Mrs. Henry E. Lewis entertained delightfully on Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Hall have returned from an extended trip through the east.

Mr. and Mrs. Purdy of Minneapolis are the guests of Dr. and Mrs. C. F. I add.

Mrs. M. I. Aitkin has issued invitations for a whist party on Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Yates entertained some of their friends socially on Wednesday evening.

The new management of the Lincoln hotel has issued invitations for a ball on February twenty-fifth.

Miss Julia Niel of Columbus, Ohio, will arrive in Lincoln on Monday to be the guest of Miss Eleanor Raymond.

Mr. Maitland, now of Denver but remembered as a former Lincolnite, was in the city the early part of the week.

Mrs. W. Q. Bell entertained a large number of her friends very charmingly at a kensington on Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Wm. Conaughy and Mrs. Woods of York were in the city on Monday and attended the meeting of the Matinee Musical.

Mrs. Mills, better known among Lincoln friends as Mrs. Katherine Kleutsch-Mills, with her husband and sister, is visiting friends in Lincoln.

Mr. H. H. Peirce left Sunday for Peoria, Ill., his childhood home, where he will reside for some time. Mrs. Peirce expects to start for Peoria today.

After the Glee Club concert the Sigma

Chi boys initiated Mr. Wehn and Mr. Wells into their fraternity. An elaborate luncheon was served after the ceremony.

The Lincoln chapter of P. E. O. held its regular meeting on Monday evening with Miss Van Boskirk. "On the Face of the Waters" was reviewed by Miss McCorkle.

The friends of Mrs. A. E. Scott will be relieved to know that favorable reports of her condition have been received from Chicago and all will hope for her speedy recovery to health.

Last Saturday the B & M ran an excursion from Friend to Lincoln, for the school children and their teachers. About sixty came down to visit the State University and returned at 6:05 on No. 3 which stopped for them at Friend.

Mr. and Mrs. George Clark gave a card party on Tuesday evening for about forty friends. The favors fell to Miss F. W. Brown and Mr. Granger. Delicious refreshments added to the pleasures of the evening.

Mrs. Irvine gave an elaborate luncheon at one o'clock last Saturday for her guest, Mrs. Powell of Omaha. The twelve ladies present were: Mrs. F. W. Brown, Wade of Omaha, Wright, Robinson, Bailey, Buckstaff, Leonard, Wilson, and Mrs. and Miss Turner of Muscic, Ind.

Mrs. Tilton's party given on last Saturday afternoon was an entirely enjoyable affair. The earlier part of the afternoon was spent with hearts, at which Miss Helen Welch proved herself the most successful player. Miss Evans won the prize in the guessing game which followed.

Miss Harriett Imhoff, who moved to Evanston, Ill., last September with her parents, is lying quite ill at her home with typhoid fever. The most dangerous part of her illness is passed and there are now no doubts of her recovery. Miss Ono Imhoff who has been studying in Albany, N. Y., has returned to Evanston for a time. The many friends of Miss Harriett Imhoff hope for her speedy recovery.

On Wednesday evening Mr. Lehmer of Omaha was initiated into the Phi Kappa Psi fraternity. He has been pledged for some time, but has been kept from school on account of illness. The members have looked forward to this event with interest for some time. After the rites and ceremonies of the initiatory service were concluded an elegant dinner was served. Mr. D. M. Purdy of Minnesota, Beta of the class of '91, was a guest of the evening.

Mrs. C. C. Burr has undertaken the agency of the skirt and cape mackintosh. The combination makes a perfect rainy day suit. No extra skirt is worn and saves the cost several times over in one season. Every woman knows the effects of mud and rain on cloth not made to defend itself against such assaults. The shrinking and cockling of an expensive tailor suit just home from the dress-makers, make this neat skirt a most welcome economy.

The party given by the Cotillon club on Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Buckstaff was an unusually pretty one. It was led as usual by
