

Dr. and Mrs. Giffen went to Omaha on Wednesday to hear Richard Mansfield in "A Parisian Romance." They returned on the midnight train.

The criticism of the D. A. R. in this week's COURIER is founded on the reports of their meetings and their subsequent and preliminary wire pulling in New York and some of the eastern cities. The local society here is doing excellent work in stimulating the study of history and in the collection of relics by those who have forefathers.

Chancellor and Mrs. MacLean entertained the faculty and students of the school of agriculture on Saturday evening. The early part of the evening was social, and delicious refreshments were served. Afterward the company listened to addresses by Dean Bessey, Prof. Lyon, Col. Daniels of Omaha, Miss Sargeant, dean of Ferry Hall, Lake Forrest University, Ill., Mr. Lorton of New York and Mr. A. E. Sheldon.

Everybody will be glad to know that the gentle poet, William Reed Dunroy, is getting better of his illness which has kept him a prisoner for a long time. Mr. Dunroy has the real poet's gift of making friends for all time. No one in Lincoln Newspaperdom is more missed than the author of "Corn Tassels." His is an all pervading friendliness and sweetness that makes Newspaperdom bleak indeed, when it is clouded and withdrawn by illness.

Mrs. F. E. Campbell and Mrs. S. D. Hyde will give the fourth of their Kensingtons Saturday afternoon. The invited guests are Mesdames Plank, Baker, Lambertson, A. R. Hill, Hastings, Smith, Townsend, W. F. Kelley, Horton, Teeters, Tibbets, Dinsmore, J. H. Miller, Holyoke, Fling, Spencer, Richards, Munger, R. I. Van Brunt, Sherwood, Chipperfield, E. E. Bennet, Huntington, Chas. Keefer, Walker, Jackson, E. Rogers; Misses A. and L. Miller, Stoddard, Zehrung.

Company F, of the University regiment, gave a most successful ball in Courier hall on Friday evening. The hall was decorated in the company colors, red and light blue, and was further brightened by the uniforms of the men and evening gowns of the women. Miss Willoughby's orchestra furnished the music for sixteen dances. The grand march was led by Lieut. and Mrs. Stotzenburg. The success of the party is due largely to Mr. Orlo Brown, the master of ceremonies. The officers of company F who lent their aid to the chairman of the committee are Captain Noyes Lieutenants Davies and Wilkinson, Sergeants Brown, Cleland, E. H. Clark Strock and Miles.

Company F, 2nd regiment, N. N. G., better known as the Lincoln Light Infantry, gave their regular inspection and open drill at their armory Monday night. The inspection and drill was witnessed by a number of the friends of the company. After the drill the individual competition for the company medal was participated in by all members of the company desiring to do so, and after a spirited contest Corporal F. I. Ringer carried off the prize, which, as a tribute to his proficiency in drill, he will be permitted to wear for a month, when he will be expected to defend it against all the company. The rest of the evening was devoted to an informal dance.

One of the most brilliant social events of the season in University Place, occurred Saturday evening at the home of Mrs. O'Neil, and was given by Sorosis. Mrs. Hursey, Mrs. Green, Miss Smith and Miss Fowler assisted the hostess in receiving the guests. The house was beautifully decorated with palms, pink carnations and pink shaded lamps. The prevailing color in the dining room and sumptuous supper which was served was also pink. A brilliant and most interesting musical and literary program was rendered. Among those present were noticed Messrs and Mesdames Reasman, Don Carlos, Fuller, Hursey, Underwood, Rose, Green; Misses Jay, Fowler, Smith, Campbell, Flo Smith, Reede, Wineland, Horn, Walch; Messrs Paul and Roy McPherrin and Mrs. McPherrin.

Mrs. Riesser will entertain on Saturday afternoon for Mrs. Riesser of Council Bluffs. Each guest is asked to wear some emblem representing a geographical feature. Those invited are:

Phi Delta Theta was at home Saturday evening to the members of Delta Delta and Kappa Kappa Gamma. It was the second of their series of "at homes" at which they will entertain the young ladies fraternities in turn. A number of novel and amusing musical and sleight-of-hand performances were given. The evening was full of originality and was altogether enjoyable. A chafing-dish supper was served by the young men. The delicacies were prepared by Messrs Sumner, Mueller and Tukey, assisted by Mrs. Wolcott, Misses Frances Gere and Cropsey. The party was chaperoned by Messrs and Mesdames Wolcott, Taylor, Hardy and Haggard. The guests were Misses Raymond, Weil, Marguerite Winger, Outcalt, Houtz, Holbrook, Mansfelde, Bonnell, Wilson, Larach, Hammond, Broady, Ricketts, Hoffman, Richards, Whitney, F. Winger, Ellen and Frances Gere; Messrs Sherman, McCreery, Raymond, Isaac Raymond, Oury, Whedon, Abbott, Sumner, Arthur Raymond, Tukey, Welshens, Lyman, Stebbins, Mansfelde, Hastie, Roddy, Haggard, Weber, Randall, Mueller, Stone.

MEMORIAL TO NEAL DOW AND MISS WILLARD.

The last official act of Miss Frances E. Willard was to issue a call inviting the cooperation of Christian churches, the Christian Endeavor society, the Epworth league, the Baptist Young People's union, the National Temperance society, the Good Templars, the Prohibition party and all other temperance, religious and philanthropic societies in celebrating March 20, the birthday of General Neal Dow, as Prohibition day. In addition to this the national officers at Chicago have requested that the name of Miss Willard be added to the exercises, and it is hoped this request will be carried out by some special service in all the churches on that day. This occasion will be generally observed throughout the whole world.

The memorial for Miss Willard under the auspices of the state W. C. T. U. will be held Sunday at 3 p. m., March 13, in St. Paul's M. E. church.
