

A duplicate whist club was organized last week with a membership of twelve. The first meeting was held on Tuesday with Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Leese. The club will meet regularly once a week. Refreshments were served after the games. The members are Messrs and Mesdames Baker, Usher, Guenzel, Leese, Mrs. Howland, Misses Anna and Margaret Howland and Mr. Will Howland.

Dr. Schurman, of Ithaca, N. Y., president of Cornell university, arrived in Lincoln on Thursday. On Friday he visited the state university and delivered an address in the chapel at eleven o'clock. He left Friday evening for Omaha. The Cornell alumni in Nebraska will tender President Schurman a banquet there on Saturday.

Miss Clara Walsh, at the head of the art department of Wesleyan, and Miss Anne Barr, of the physical training department of the state university, will leave on Monday for New York. They will sail on April 2 for Europe. Miss Walsh will study art in Paris, and expects to go to Holland on a sketching tour. Miss Barr will study in Norway and Sweden and in Berlin.

The masquerade given by the attaches of the state house on Tuesday evening was a decided success. It was a private affair, no strangers being allowed even in the galleries. The masques were interesting and attractive; some were pretty, others were grotesque. Eddie Walt's orchestra furnished good music and the floor was in a fine condition for dancing. Refreshments added to the pleasure of the evening.

In spite of the disagreeable weather of Monday evening, Company D gave a ball in their armory, which was well attended by the members. Every one seemed to enjoy themselves, but when the time came to depart, two of the members, Mr. Otto Erwin and Mr. E. Gilmore bid their many friends and brothers farewell. They left on Wednesday for Omaha, where they will remain for some time much regretted by their friends here.

Mr and Mrs. Hutchins gave a whist party Friday evening. Refreshments were served after the games. Their guests were:

Misses Bessie Turner, Turney, Furst, and Mrs. and Miss Harris of Peoria, Ill.

The State Federation of Women's clubs gave a banquet Wednesday at the Millard in Omaha in honor of Mrs. Herotin of Chicago, president of the National Federation of Woman's clubs. Mrs. A. J. Sawyer and Mrs. M. D. Welch of Lincoln, represented the Lincoln clubs. The guests of honor, the officers of the National and State federations, and of the Omaha women's clubs, were seated at the west end of the tables, which were beautifully decorated with roses, carnations and palms, and the bright effect was further heightened by the bright bonnets and gowns of the ladies. The banquet was served in eight courses, and much of the success of the affair is due to Mrs. Squire, chairman of the committee on entertainment. Mrs. Herotin was her usual gracious self and won many new admirers. Mrs. A. J. Sawyer responded to a toast and was bright and witty as ever. The toasts were sparkling and were very much enjoyed by all. Covers were laid for 250 guests, each one of whom enjoyed every minute of the affair. The invocation was given by Rev. Mary Girard Andrews and Mrs. Z. T. Lindsey presided as toastmistress, with the responses given as follows:

- "The General Federation," Mrs. Herotin.
- "Union the Bond of Strength," Mrs. Stoutenborough of Plattsmouth, president of the state federation.
- "Woman, Old and New," Mrs. Hartford, president of Omaha club.
- "Women and the Exposition," Mrs. A. J. Sawyer of Lincoln.
- "The Pioneer Woman," Mrs. A. N. Ferguson.
- "Clara Barton and the Red Cross Movement," Mrs. C. W. Damon.
- "Mothers and Daughters," Mrs. H. D. Neeley.
- "The Old Fashioned Girl," Miss Lyda P. Wilson.
- "Clubs and Diamonds," Mrs. J. J. Dickey.
- "The Genus Homo," Mrs. C. C. Belden.
