Social and Personal

Miss Grace Reynolds is in York.

Mr. H. S. Lippincott of New York, was in the city last week.

Mrs. Edmiston of Omaha is the guest of Miss Stella Kirker.

Mrs. T. H. Mareland and Mrs. Milton Scott are in Beatrice.

Miss Allaby of Council Bluffs is the guest of Miss Maude Rissler.

Mrs. and the Misses Kirker will give a Kensington Saturday afternoon.

Miss Sarah Collins of Russellville, Ark., is the guest of Mrs. C. T. Cahill.

Miss Kate Stoddard has been visiting in Omaha and Council Bluffs for a few days.

Rev. Dr. Hindman returned Thursday from Chicago where he has been visiting for several weeks.

Mr. W. S. Bently and his bride have returned from Chicago. They are at home at 319 North 11 street.

On Thursday Misses Emma Outcalt, Margaret Whedon and Blanche Hargreaves went to Fairbury to spend the Easter holidays with Miss Cora Cropprey.

William Reed Dunroy, who has been ill for some time, is again on the street. This will be good news to his many friends, who have been anxiously awaiting his recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Rewick gave a whist party on Friday evening for their guest Mrs. Ashman of Atchison. There were seven tables. Mrs. Ashman and Mr. R. T. Van Brunt proved themselves the most efficient players.

Mrs. Carl Funke gave a dinner Thursday evening for Mrs. and Miss Harris of Peoria, Ill. Mrs. Harris is a distant relative to Mrs. Funke and is also a relative to Mrs. Talbot by marriage. The guests of Mr. and Mrs. Funke beside Mrs. and Miss Harris were Messrs and Mesdames Talbot and Ogden. The party was all the more enjoyable on account of the relationship existing between the guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Snell gave a farewell reception last Friday evening for Prof. and Mrs. Geo. Howard. About one hundred guests called during the evening. The guests were received in the drawing room by Mr. and Mrs. Snell, Prof. and Mrs. Howard and Mrs. Frost. Mrs. Snell was assisted in the dining room by Misses Ena Ricketts, Minnie and Hattie McClay. This room was daintily decorated in pink and green and violets. All of the other rooms were lavishly decorated with jonquils.

It is a pleasure for THE COURIER to say that the Ladies' society of the First Congregational church have arranged with Mrs. Fisk to give a song recital at the Oliver, April 20. Mrs. Fisk will be assisted by Miss Rita Lorton, daughter of Mr. Robert Lorton of Nebraska City. She has been in Europe five years and will be remembered as one of the famous Columbian Lady's quartette whose singing attracted marked attention through-out Great Britain last year.

The Senior class of the State University gave a reception in the armory last Saturday evening. The hall was very prettily decorated with palms and the class colors, yellow and blue. Miss Lansing and a double male quartet, added to the pleasure of the evening. Light refreshments were also served. The many guests were received by Miss Ellen Smith, Prof. and Mrs. Barbour, Prof. and Mrs. Richards, Mr. O. H. Martin class president and Miss Mabel Cushman class secretary.

Miss Ruth Munger celebrated her eighth birthday on Thursday afternoon, from 2 until 6. She was the recipient of many little tokens of remembrance. The afternoon was passed pleasantly with games, and later a delicious luncheon. Her guests were Katharine and Marjorie Kimball, Mary and Alice Mockett, Hazel Clark, Helen Blish, Elsie Granger, Grace Bryan, Lila Le Gore, Mariel Jones, Katherine Holyoke, Laurence Richards, Blossom Wilson, Pauline Johnson, Eleanor Barbour, Marie Barr, Hazel Smith and Dorothy Raymond.

The University Place Woman's club entertained at the home of Mrs. Dey Friday evening. American Beauties and carnations decorated the parlors, while in the dining room there were palms and hyacinths. After a short time spent in games the guests were served with a dainty luncheon. The husbands of the members were allowed to participate and a jolly time and a jolly time was enjoyed by all. Mrs. Crook, Professors Fordyce and Bowler responded wittily to toasts, Miss Blood acting as toast mistress. The club will meet in two weeks with Mrs. Lowe when the Book Review department will have charge of the program.

The Melba concert in Omaha attracted a great many Lincoln people to that place on Wednesday. Among those who heard the great singer were Messrs and Mesdames W. O.
