Mrs. W. A. Lindley will give a card party next Wednesday afternoon and another with her daughter, Miss Mable Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Myron E. Wheeler and Mrs. Loyal D. Stearns will give a brilliant reception at the home of the latter next Tuesday afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry E. Lewis have invited friends in Lincoln to meet their friends from Kearney, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Robertson and Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Nevins on Monday evening to play whist.

Mr. and Mrs. MacMillan entertained the Pickwick club on Friday. All the members of the club were present and in addition, Dr. and Mrs. Hindman, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Turner, Mrs. Taylor, and Mr. Thomas of Seward.

A number of little theatre parties were given at all three of the May festival concerts. Mr. and Mrs. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Buckstaff and Mrs. Griffith occupied a box Wednesday evening. Mesdames Leonard, Jansen and Wright also entertained friends in a similar way.

The Salmos card club held its last meeting for this season Friday with Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Whitaker. Prizes were won by J. A. Abbott and Mrs. E. W. Nelson. Those present were Messrs and Mesdames Abbott, Weesner, Meserve, West, Nelson, Schrader, Cornell.

Miss Emma Outcalt will give a kensington for some of her friends Saturday afternoon. Her guests will be Misses Frances and Florence Maule, Ellen and Frances Gere, Rieser, Colson, McMillan, Houck, Collins, Whiting, Broady, Law, Randall, Katherine Fooks, Honeywell, Schwartz, Macfarland, Williamson, Reta Junge, Garten, Helen Woods, Lewis, Wiggernhorn, Marshall; Mrs. Harley and Mrs. Ladd.

Mrs. F. W. Brown gave two kensingtons on Friday and Saturday of last week for her guest, Mrs. Goltra of St. Louis, and Mrs. J. B. Wright's guests, Mrs. Rudy of Sioux City and Mrs. Gasman of Chicago. On the first afternoon Mrs. Wright and Mrs. D. A. Campbell sang, and on the second afternoon Mrs. Wright and Mrs. Elias Baker. Dainty refreshments were served both afternoons. About seventy guests enjoyed the cordial hospitality which Mrs. Brown always shows, and especially on such charming occasions as these.

Mrs. J. E. Snyder entertained the Aloha club very pleasantly on Wednesday afternoon. Light refreshments were served. That the meetings of this club are always delightful is indicated by the fact that instead of decreasing in numbers as the summer months approach, more names are being added to the list. The guests on Wednesday were:

Mesdames—	Mesdames—
Frank Van Horn,	Frank Perkins,
M. H. Van Horn,	Emma Perkins,
F. T. Kutherford,	C. H. Rockwell,
E. W. Baldwin,	E. A. Barnes,
L. W. Garoutte,	C. C. Fletcher,
F. A. Wilson,	A. E. Moore,
S. I. Meyers,	O. V. P. Stout,
A. Longstreet,	Watkins,
Cooper,	Loflin,
Grant.	Miss Barner.

Miss Emma Outcalt gave a heart party Friday evening and it was certainly a most pleasant affair. Miss Outcalt has a charming and happy way of making her guests welcome, which always ensures an enjoyable time at her home. Dainty refreshments were served. Her guests were Misses Weeks, Vancil, Clara Hammond, Watkins, Houtz, Margaret and Florence Winger, Cropsy, Richards, Ena Ricketts, Wetzel, Hargreaves, Harley, Narce, Whedon, Burt, Holbrook; Messrs Weeks, Abbott, Hammond, True, H. Shedd, F. Korsmeyer, Watkins, Low, Ricketts, O. Brown, Whedon, Risser, E. Sawyer, Bartlett, Morrill, Hatfield, McCreery, Weber.

Mrs. D. A. Campbell gave an informal musical Thursday morning for the visiting and Lincoln musicians. Mrs. Hadden-Alexander, Mrs. Cameron, Miss Rees and Master Harry Briggs provided the important program, which was interspersed with conversation and refreshments. Mrs. Alexander obligingly played a number of selections especially requested by those present. Her "Wintry Wind" by Chopin, was a most realistic bit of impressionist tone, painting. It portrayed the concentrated fury of all Nebraska's winds. Miss Olive Latta presided at the coffee urn in the dining room, assisted by Miss Hollowbush and Miss Farwell.

Mrs. F. J. W. Stoney (born Marquette) arrived in Lincoln on Wednesday to visit her sisters, Mrs. Tefft and Mrs. Fawell and her brother John Marquette. She sailed on the City of Paris and as the fate of this ship was for some time in doubt the anxiety of Mrs. Stoney's brother and sisters can be imagined. Mrs. William Owen Thomas gives a euchre party for Mrs. Stoney this afternoon. It will be remembered that these two young ladies were married in London, England, after a tour of the continent, to compagnons de voyage. As this is the occasion of her first return to her birth place since her marriage Mrs. Stoney's greeting from her many friends will be very warm.

Miss Kittie Ager and Mr. Frank Spangler were married on the evening of May 7 at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Ager, by Rev. H. J. Kirschstein of the Christian church. The ring service was used. Little Miss Burrill acted as flower girl. The bridal party stood under a bower of American flags instead of the conventional flowers. The bride wore a dainty gown of soft, white organdie. Only relatives and intimate friends witnessed the ceremony and a reception for other friends followed from 9 till 11. Mrs. Livingstone of Fremont, Mrs. Burrill, Mrs. Huesong and Miss Lates assisted at the reception. The bride received an unusual number of handsome presents.

One of the most pleasant of the P. E. O. meetings of the year was held at the home of Dr. and Mrs. B. F. West, Monday evening. It was an open meeting and the husbands and friends were cordially welcomed. The house was beautifully decorated with ferns and marguerites, the fraternity flower. Their emblem the star with the letters P. E. O. in black was in evidence in the dining room, where light refreshments were served. Miss Barnaby sang and Miss Kate Scythorn Miller gave two readings. Both were well received. Those enjoying the evening's entertainment were Rev. and
