

Friday afternoon from 3 till 6 o'clock in honor of Mrs. Walter L. Saxon of New Orleans, who is her guest. The afternoon was an ideal one for a reception and but few of the invited guests failed to take advantage of the invitation. The cards contained water color and pen and ink sketches, which were the work of Mrs. Saxon, who ranks high in New Orleans as an artist. Mrs. Johnson's home was beautifully decorated with cut flowers and apple blossoms. A bank of blossoms adorned the mantel in the rear of the parlor, while the dining room was a perfect bower of beauty, long garlands of the apple blossoms being draped from the chandeliers to the table, and a triangular garland lying on the table. The house was darkened and the lights used. Messrs. Benson and Blair furnished music upstairs. Mrs. R. Holben and Mrs. J. W. Hitchcock assisted Mrs. Johnson in receiving and introducing the guests to Mrs. Saxon. Misses Helen Hoover, Emma Dalby and Lillian Trester served the ices and cakes in the dining room. Master Earl Barnaby received the cards at the door. The guests were:

- | | |
|------------------|-------------------|
| Meedames— | Meedames— |
| Hitchcock, | Holben, |
| Cultra, | Dalby, |
| Dunning, | Marsland, |
| Peters, | Glade, |
| Du Teil, | Hale, |
| Copeland, | Hall, |
| Waite, | Schwind, |
| Hermann, | Stevens, |
| Wilson, | Fishburn, |
| Burk, | Harmer, |
| Kelly, | McGahan, |
| Pinkerton, | Sherwin, |
| Joerger, | Wood, |
| Cotton, | Hoge, |
| Kyle, | Betzer of Seward. |

Misses Custer, Jennie Erb, Etta Erb, Hitchcock, Barnaby, Hoover, Dalby, Trester and Polley of Seward.

Miss Laura Houtz gave an unusually pleasant and pretty high five party on Thursday evening. It was a pink and white party. The souvenirs, flowers, and the decorations and refreshments were pink and white. The silver and cut glass prizes were won by Miss Margaret Whedon and Mr. Ostenberg. The guests were:

- | | |
|---------------------|------------------|
| Misses— | Misses— |
| Mabel Richards, | Nellie Holdbrook |
| Blanche Hargreaves, | Ethel Collins, |
| May Honeywell, | Emma Outcalt, |
| Eleanor Raymond | Helen Welch, |
| Clara Watkins, | Dora Barley, |
| Blanche Garten, | Edna Wetzel, |
| Margaret Whedon, | Helen Nance, |
| Florence Winger, | Stella Kirker, |
| Clara Hammond, | Daisy Houck, |
| Margaret Winger, | Maude Risser, |
| Henrietta Hawley, | Lucy Green, |
| Maude Hammond, | Mabel Lindley, |
| Ethelyn Hooper, | Frances Maule, |
| Florence Holmes, | Helen Hoover, |
| Florence Maule, | Mary McGahey. |

- | | |
|-------------------|----------------|
| Messrs— | Messrs— |
| Leroy Sawyer, | Edgar Morrill, |
| Lowe Ricketts, | Burt Whedon, |
| Geo. Shedd, | Chas. Abbott, |
| Earl McCreery, | Geo. Bartlett, |
| Everett Sawyer, | Will Halstead, |
| Arthur Harman, | Chas. Hendy, |
| Willard Clapp, | Peter Lau, |
| Nelson Davidson, | John Kenny, |
| John Stohfer, | Fred Mielenz, |
| H. Ostenberg, | Jas. Selden, |
| Bert Watkins, | Jack Kind, |
| Arthur Walsh, | Fred Cooley, |
| Earl Williams, | Geo. Risser, |
| Louis Westermann, | Edwin Chapin, |
| Hugh Edmiston, | Risser. |
- Mr. and Mrs. Fred Houtz; Will Haney of Omaha; Clyde Hayes of Beatrice; Rob Manley of Fremont.

One of the prettiest and most impressive wedding ceremonies was that which united the lives of Miss Frances Georgiana Case and Mr. Willitts Sawyer on Wednesday evening at the First Congregational church. Both are university graduates and members of the Delta Gamma and the Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternities, so it was fitting that the solemn words should be pronounced by Chancellor MacLean. At half past seven to the strains of the wedding march the bridal procession entered the church. Miss Stella Rice presided at the organ. The bride wore an elegant white satin princess gown trimmed with real lace which had been worn by her grandmother and mother at their wedding. She carried a large bunch of bride's roses—the flower of the Delta Gamma fraternity. Miss Nelie Cochran, in a gown of yellow taffetas trimmed with Venetian lace, carrying a bunch of yellow and white marguerites, was a distinguished maid of honor. The bride's maids wore gowns of dainty white trimmed with pink or blue tulle collars and sashes. Miss Helen Harwood came first and wore white and blue; Miss Blanche Garten followed, in pink; Miss Edna Polk in blue, and Miss Clara Watkins in pink. The bridesmaids carried sweet peas. The best man was Mr. Everett Sawyer, a brother of the groom. The ushers were Messrs. Edgar Morrill, Frank Hadley, Paul Case and Roy Sawyer. Immediately after the ceremony a reception was given at the home of the bride's parents. The house was profusely decorated with flowers. The parlor was in green and white, the dining room, where the bride's maids served, was done in pink, and the punch room, where Miss Mabel Case of Hiawatha, Kas., presided, was done in scarlet and cream. The bridal couple received the most hearty congratulations of their friends. Many handsome presents were received. The gift of the groom to the bride was a fraternity pin set in diamonds. At 10:35 the bridal couple left for the east, where they will make an extended trip before going to Schenectady, N. Y., their future home. The members of the two fraternities were at the train to see that Mr. and Mrs. Sawyer were given the proper attention and to speak the last farewells.

"Don't talk shop" in society. This rule applies to other people's business as well as yours. In fact you are more excusable for introducing your own business than that which occupies the attention of the lady or gentleman you are conversing with. The function of society is diversion. It is partly because this law of exclusion of the serious and utilitarian from the meeting of friends is so frequently broken by those who wish to grind an axe at society's expense, that those who wish to forget the serious business of life prefer to amuse themselves with a book or at the theatre. Newspaper people are especially bored when those whom they meet under a friend's roof forget one of the first rules of society, "Don't talk shop."

Mrs. W. O. Thomas gave an afternoon card party last Friday for her friend Mrs. Stoney of London. Last Friday being the day when the flag was presented to the soldiers Mrs. Thomas' home was decorated with red, white and blue, in broad stripes at the windows in the colors of the chandelier, in the little flag favors which were given each guest, and in the ice cream. Tiny flags of the countries of the world were displayed in the library and a large Union Jack in recognition of Mr. Thomas and Mr. Stoney's country hung in the dining room. Red and white carnations and red roses with a dark blue flower and palms were the floral decorations. The presence of Mrs. Newman was an especial charm of the afternoon. The guests played euchre selecting their partners by the color which was tied on the staff of the little flags. The first prize, an ornamental cup and saucer, was won by Mrs. Buckstaff, the lone hand prize, a venetian nail file by Mrs. Rudy and the consolation prize, a cut glass smelling salts bottle, by Mrs. Sterns. Miss Pattern Hats at 1-3 Off.

Hat Designed by Mme. Pouyasse.
[Copyrighted 1898. The Baldwin Syndicate.]

Although the season is at its height we offer the entire line of those exquisite French creations at a discount of 33 1/3 per cent. Our regular prices on these works of art were far below anything ever named on such values and now we offer you an extra discount. Your choice of any 1-3 OFF of them at.....

In addition to this we offer every trimmed hat in stock that sold upward from $5.00 to $15.00 at.....1-3 OFF

Herpolsheimer & Co.

Hardy graciously assisted Mrs. Thomas in keeping the score and settling knotty points in the law of euchre. Those present were:

- | | |
|------------------|------------------|
| Meedames— | Meedames— |
| F. J. W. Stoney, | George Fawell, |
| Hawe, | L. C. Burr, |
| Pitcher, | J. W. Winger, |
| Jansen, | Buckstaff, |
| Townley, | D. D. Muir, |
| Barbour, | Coffroth, |
| Leonard, | J. B. Wright, |
| Rudy, | Gasman, |
| W. C. Wilson, | Griffith, |
| C. F. Ladd, | Myron Wheeler, |
| N. C. Abbott, | Stearns, |
| Holyoke, | Darr, |
| John Dorgan, | D. A. Campbell, |
| | Mark Tilton. |

Misses Mae Burr, Latta, Latham, Stoddard, Sarah Harris, Alice Cowdery.

A private letter from Honolulu reports: President Dole of Hawaii, is far and away the most unpopular man in the Kingdom republic today. This is the outcome of his recent trip to Washington. When the Hawaiians decided that the weal of their country demanded the tour they told the president to "do the elegant" and charge it to their account. They anticipated the outlay of perhaps $2,000. Imagine their surprise when the president unblushingly presented an expense account of $7,000, a very large portion of which came under the vague head: "Incidentals." They might have born this had the president not added to it the $500 given by him to the Maine relief fund. His people praised un-stintedly his generosity when he made the contribution and all these eulogiums he permitted to go unchallenged. His attempt to make the Hawaiians stand this item of his self-advertising has awakened a bitterness not known among them since the overthrow of the monarchy. The men who heretofore were the staunchest supporters of the Dole administration are withdrawing in disgust, while the anti-administrationists not only insist that he pay for his glory out of his own pocket, but are asking that his "incidentals" be itemized, that they may know where their $7,000 went. Mr. Dole is wishing that he had stayed at home.—Town Topics.

Mr. and Mrs. Aylett Hubbard left on Sunday for Missouri Valley.

Mrs. R. E. Moore gave a delightful kensington Thursday afternoon.

Hanna's for soda. Cor. 14th and O. Mrs. Melchert H. Garten will give a reception Friday afternoon May 20th.

Mrs. Lewis of Pasadena, Cal., is visiting with her daughter, Mrs. Dorr.

Mrs. Robinson of Chicago is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. J. B. Wright.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Scott of Salt Lake City are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Scott.

Mrs. B. F. and Miss Bailey have issued invitations for a kensington on Thursday afternoon.

Dentist Hill moved over Miller & Paine