LOTTRIDGE—SLAUGHTER.

Miss Alice Slaughter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Brad Slaughter, was married to Mr. John Lottridge Wednesday evening at St. Paul's Methodist church by the Rev. Halstead, in the presence of a large congregation of relatives and friends. The church began to fill early as it was known the wedding would be a particularly beautiful one. Mrs. Raymond presided at the organ and played for a time before the ceremony. The church had been decorated by the maids with large love knots of swiss and enormous bowls full of red peonies. The lights were shaded with red. The three front rows were separated from the rest by streamers and knots of white fastened with jasmine. The effect was strikingly beautiful. Just at eight, a pause, then the beautiful strains from Lohengrin announced the approach of the bride. The maids entered from the north door and the groomsmen from the south and stood on each side of the altar. The maids were gowned in white and carried bunches of red and white flowers. Miss Josephine Lottridge, sister of the groom, was maid of honor. Following her and leaning on the arm of her father came the bride gowned in heavy white brocaded satin, on train, with a beautiful soft veil, gracefully draped, and carrying a large bunch of white roses. The groom, accompanied by Mr. Homer Honeywell and little Grace Gilmore ring bearer, a niece of the bride, came from the study and met the bride before the altar. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Halstead in a pleasing way. The maids and groomsmen were Misses Blanche Garten, Nelie Cochran, Helen Welch, Clara Watkins, Nellie Post, Jo McCune, Ruth Weller, Helen Nance; Messrs Guy Hurlbut, Roy Sawyer, Arthur Hammond, Mattson Baldwin, Howard Clarke, Alfred Kind, Robert Joyce and Will Green. The procession from the church was led by the bridal pair followed by their attendants, then by the relatives. They went immediately to the home of the bride's parents where a reception was held for the bridal party and relatives only. Hearty congratulations were showered upon the newly married couple. Light refreshments were served in the library and dining room, and from tables exquisitely draped with smilax and jasmine. The presents received were arranged in a large alcove in the upper hall, and a beautiful showing they made. Cut glass and china and pictures were especially numerous. The bride's gift to the organist and maids were filmy hand-wrought handkerchiefs. The groom gave the ring bearer a small duplicate of the wedding ring. At 10:45 the entire party went to the train to see that Mr. and Mrs. Lottridge were given the proper send-off. They went to Lake Okoboji where they will occupy Mr. Slaughter's cottage for a month. Among the relatives from out of town were Mrs. A. B. Slaughter who will be remembered by older Lincolnites as the wife of a former pastor of the St. Paul's church. The sisters of the bride were Mesdames Henrietta L. Hawver of Los Angeles; Grace Gamble, Victor, Col.; F. M. Gilmore, Elk Point, S. D.; W. B. Wheeler, Lincoln. Others were Mr. and Mrs. McCune, Misses Jessie and Jo McCune, Mrs. Miller of Helena, Mont., Mr.

and Mrs. Geo. Dorsey, Miss Amanda and Mr. Guy Dorsey, Dr. and Mrs. Kern, Mr. and Mrs. Will Lottridge, Mrs. Hermance, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Clarkson and Mr. Chester Clarkson. Just before leaving, the bride tossed her bouquet and it was caught by Miss Nelie Cochran. The ring in the bride's cake was found by Miss Weller of Omaha, and the thimble by Miss Mae Burr. The entire affair was especially pretty and happy. Mr. and Mrs. Lottridge received the most hearty congratulations of their friends. They will be at home at 1218 T street after their return.

PARKER-WORK.

The marriage of Miss Minnie Hardenburgh Parker to Mr. John Oswald Work occurred on Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Parker. Just at four Miss Myrtle Anderson of Seward struck the first chord from the Lohengrin wedding march. The bridal couple entered the parlor together and crossed the room to stand before the Rev. Dr. Hindman, who pronounced the solemn words. The couple were surrounded by palms and stood beneath a drapery of smilax and jasmine. After the guests had congratulated the newly wedded couple dainty refreshments were served by Mrs. Parker, who was assisted by Misses Mullen, Edna Polk, Helen Harwood and Florence Winger. Miss Beanie Turner sang several beautiful wedding songs. It was Miss Turner, too, who caught the bride's bouquet. A large number of friends escorted Mr. and Mrs. Work to the train at six o'clock, when they left for Omaha. They will go soon to Seward, where their new home is ready for them. The sincerest congratulations and best wishes of a large circle of friends follow Mr. and Mrs. Work.

WINGER-TRUE.

Miss Josephine Winger and Mr. Sidney M. True of Tecumseh were married at high noon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Winger by the Rev. Dr. Hindman, and in the presence of relatives and intimate friends. Miss Charlotte Clark played the march from Lohengrin. The couple stood beneath an arch of palms. The parlors were decorated with palms and bride's roses. After the ceremony a luncheon was served. The bride's bouquet was caught by Miss Ena Ricketta. Mr. and Mrs. True left on the east bound train and will return after a short time to Tecumseh, where their home is in readiness for them.

The second annual Pan-Hellenic party was given at Burlington Beach on Saturday night. The evening was delightfully cool and just the kind to make one enjoy dancing. The cars were not running so different kinds of conveyances were used. The Sigma Alpha Epsilon boys engaged the tally-ho and it was beautiful with its load of fair freight in dainty summer gowns. The Phi Kappa Psi and Phi Delta Theta fraternities had a large band wagon. Others used private carriages. Miss Willoughby's orchestra furnished its always inspiring music. The committee who had the party in charge consisted of Mr. Edgar Morrill, master of ceremonies, Messrs. A. L. Haecker, H. A. Tukey, J. P. Rowe, H. Meuller, Ed Morrison, Wil-
