Social and Personal

Mrs. Alfred C. Cass gave a card party Tuesday at her home in Denver. The party was given in honor of Mrs. Dorgan and Mrs. Muir of Lincoln. Mrs. Dorgan, however, was not present, as she did not go to Denver.

Mrs. Charles Mayer entertained very pleasantly at her home on Friday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Levi and Mrs. Meinrath. The ladies passed the afternoon playing high five. Dainty and cooling refreshments were served.

Miss Nelle Dean of Ashland gave a charming six o'clock dinner for a few of her friends on Saturday evening. Those who shared the pleasures of the dinner were Mrs. Mohrenstecher, Misses Dena Loomis, Anna Tibbets, Stella Kirker, May Whiting, Louise Pound, Olivia Pound and Florence Wingar.

The Elizabeth Zane Chapter of the Children of the American Revolution gave a picnic at Lincoln Park Friday morning. The children enjoyed themselves playing in the park and were then served a delicious lunch prepared for them by the Misses Garten and Webster.

Cards have been received in the city from Mr. and Mrs. Becker, formerly of Lincoln, announcing the marriage of their daughter, Bernice Grace, to Mr. Frank Arthur May. The ceremony took place at the home of the bride's parents, 597 Cass Avenue, Detroit, Mich., Wednesday, June 15, 1898.

In dearth of society events at home this week, it is good to read of the gayeties at Denver which so many Lincoln women are enjoying. Mrs. W. J. Bryan was an assistant hostess at a luncheon given on Friday for Mrs. Herotin to meet the national officers, state presidents and other distinguished guests.

The lecture next Tuesday evening at the Oliver by Edward A. Kimball, C. S. D., of the First Church of Christ, scientist, of Chicago, promises to attract more than usual interest, for it will elucidate and explain the true meaning of Christian science. The lecture is free to all, the expenses being defrayed by the Christian scientists of this city, under whose auspices it is given.

A jolly crowd of Delta Gammas went to Omaha Wednesday to attend the exposition. They found it too warm to go through the buildings, so they spent the time in the Midway. Those who comprised the party were:

Katherine Woods of Schuyler, Clara Parks of Cedar Rapids, Gertrude Walton of Blair, Mae Macuremeny of Biair.

Miss Grace Guy Thompson and Mr. J. S. Hyatt were quietly married at the home of the bride's mother on Wednesday. Promptly at four o'clock the party entered the parlor. Rev. Charles Finch performed the ceremony. The bride wore her traveling suit of gray blue. The house was decorated with palms and roses. After the ceremony they all sat down to an elegant luncheon. They left on the six o'clock train for Denver and Manitou. After August 1 they will be at home to their friends at 1808 Cherry street.

A number of Pleasant Hour people enjoyed a picnic at Meadow Brook Lodge last Saturday evening. They went out in the trolley. The evening was spent in dancing, games and a general good time. Those who went out were Mr. and Mrs. Dorgan, Mr. and Mrs. Woods, Mr. and Mrs. Houtz, Mr. and Mrs. Rector, Mr. and Mrs. Howe, Mr. and Mrs. Mallalieu, Misses Hollowbush, Rector, Harrison, Woods, Bees Harrison, Cole, Hooper, Burnham, Burr and Putman. Messrs Baldwin, Hurlburt, C. Y. Smith, Mudge, Chapman, R. Sawyer and Cowdry.

Mesdames Gere, L. C. Richards, McLean, Bryan, Ricketts, H. H. Wilson, A. W. Field, Welch, Castor, Bushnell, Muir and Richardson, Misses Elliot, Walker and Harris of Lincoln; Mrs. Nicolls of Beatrice, Mrs. Jenkins, Mrs. Steele and Mrs. Lettan of Fairbury; Mesdames Harford, Lindsey, Smith and Towne of Omaha; President Stoutenborough of Plattsmouth and several others left on the Burlington on Monday evening for the Biennial in Denver. Most of these ladies will return on the thirtieth to their homes in light green Nebraska, as Stephen Crane, the color crank, would say.

Mr. and Mrs. Herpolsheimer's silver wedding anniversary was celebrated Monday night. It was in the form of a surprise party arranged by some of Mr. Herpolsheimer's employees. They all met at the store and then proceeded to the Herpolsheimer home. The evening was spent in music and conversation. The most enjoyable feature of the whole evening was the presentation of a beautiful silver set to Mr. and Mrs. Herpolsheimer. The set was presented by Rev. E. S. Branch, of the Free Baptist church, who five years ago made the presentation speech at Mr. and Mrs. Herpolsheimer's china anniversary.

The porch and lawn were decorated with Japanese lanterns. Dainty refreshments were served.

The First band of the Second Presbyterian church gave a reception Wednesday afternoon to the ladies of the congregation and a few invited friends, at the home of Mrs. W. C. Phillips, 2939 Q street. The many guests were received by Mrs. Phillips, Mrs. H. E. Wood and Mrs. I. E. Johnson. The house was enlarged for the occasion by enclosing a large veranda with canvas, and the rooms were profusely decorated with cut flowers and the national colors, Charlotte Clark, assisted by Mrs. Chaburn, Mrs. George Wait, Mrs. Waugh and Mrs. Trester, served cake and Presbyterian punch in the dining room. Mrs. W. M. Hindman and Mrs. W. P. Phillips were welcome guests from the First Presbyterian church, and Mrs. Eli Plummer, being on the sick list, sent her regrets.

Miss Nellie Brown, sister of Mrs. E. Hallett, who came here several weeks ago suffering from a severe attack of asthma, has returned to her home at Ottumwa, Iowa. She got no relief while here and returned quite discouraged. She came here about three years ago, suffering from the same cause and
