Social and Personal

Mrs. F. W. Brown gave a pleasant porch party on Saturday evening for a few friends. Dainty refreshments were served.

Cards have been received announcing the marriage July 4 at Milwaukee, of Alfred E. Gruetter, formerly of this city, and Emma M. Reichert. They are at home at 1426 Newport avenue, Chicago.

Miss Gertrude Marsland gave a dinner at six o'clock on Saturday evening in honor of her friend, Miss May Lewis of Boston. The decorations were tasteful and dainty and the dinner delicious. The guests were Misses Lewis, McLaughlin, Loomis, Getner, Dewese, Clarke, Ricketts.

Miss Blossom Williamson gave an enjoyable party on Friday evening for her cousin, Mr. Head of Ohio. Her guests were Misses Dora and Edna Harley, Clara Hammond, Adeloyd Whiting, Mabel Richards, Ada Heaton, Messrs. Edmisten, Edgar and Arthur Morrill, Bartlett, Holben, Gregory, Ewart, Holben, Fitzgerald, Sawyer.

Mrs. J. H. Gere gave a party on Friday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Withers of Hebron, and Miss Serfass of Freeport, Ill. They rode out in a hay rack to the Beach, then enjoyed a few hours of sailing by moonlight. The party consisted of Misses Owen, Baumgardner, Serfass, Beckman, Tuttle, Seybolt, Messrs. Dunlap, Chambers, Beckman, Elliott, Bennett, Buckstaff, Albin, Hunger.

Married, July 27, at Denver, Cyrus W. Fisherdyck, formerly of this city, and Cora Belle King, also of Lincoln. Mr. Fisherdyck was formerly engaged in the law practice here with the firm of Webster, Rose and Fisherdyck, and has located in Colorado. His bride is well known in Lincoln, having been employed in the land commissioner's office here.

Mrs. Guenzell gave a porch party on Friday evening for her sisters, the Misses Usher of Brooklyn, N. Y. The porch and lawn were prettily decorated. Cards and dancing helped to pass the time agreeably. The guests were Misses Dalby, Parks, Leese, Howland, Trigg, Erford, Messrs. Starbe, Wilson, Harney, Painter, Smith, Woodward, Mudge, Patterson.

Cards have been received in this city announcing the marriage of William M. Johnston of Billings, Mont., to Miss Mabel G. Sleeper of Billings. Mr. Johnston is well known in this city, having attended the state university, graduating 1894, later graduating from the law school. He left Lincoln for Billings immediately after, starting in the law practice and since that time has served as county attorney at that place. Mr. Johnston's home in Nebraska was at Humboldt. His marriage occurred July 27.

Mrs. and Mesdames Hardy, Clark and Jones and Misses Ellen and Frances Gere returned on Tuesday from an outing of three weeks spent in a cottage on the shores of Green lake, Wis. Mr. F. M. Blish, who was a member of the party, reached home Saturday.

Miss Harriett Cooke entertained informally last Tuesday evening for Miss Mabel Cook of Council Bluffs. Interesting subjects for conversation were found by matching the sketches on cut cards and later much merriment was roused by the naming by each person of some prominent man of the day whose name was pinned on the victim's back. After music, light refreshments were served. The evening passed quickly and the following gathered up their furs and overcoats at a late hour. Misses Whiting, Adeloyd Whiting, Beach, Du-Teil, Cook of Council Bluffs, Olive Stratton, Laura Stratton, Cooke, Messrs Barber, Hedge, Haecker, Stratton, Stein, Campbell, Perrin and Cooke.

On Friday afternoon Mrs. Charles M. Keefe gave a military party for Misses Mabel Lange and Mattie Anderson of St. Louis. Each guest had pinned on her back the name of some hero of the present war, and had to guess from the conversation and the remarks addressed to them whom they represented. Mrs. Keefe was assisted by her sister, Miss Grace Ashton and Mrs. H. T. Folsom. Miss Grace Bennett presided at the punch bowl. The guests were

A right merry company met on Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mayer. A carry-all and tally-ho were waiting there, and soon the huge baskets which had been brought had been packed in and the party started on the beautiful drive to Ensign's farm. Here the bounteous supper was served and later there was dancing. Then last, but not least, of all came the drive home by moonlight. Those who enjoyed the pleasant evening were Messrs and Mesdames
