

Miss Grace Ashton gave a pretty heart party on Friday evening. It was strictly a heart party. The men found their partners by means of dainty red hearts. The score cards and refreshments as far as possible were hearts. The prizes were also in the shape of hearts. The evening was spent most enjoyably, as it always is at the home of this charming hostess. The guests who were invited were Messrs. and Mesdames

Suggested Text for an Open Postal Card to Emperor William, the Czar, et al.

What shall we do with the Philippines?
Well, Europe, peep behind the scenes,
And what you see tell your marines.

Our plans, of course, are not complete;
Won't be till Merritt takes his seat,
Backed up by Army and by Fleet.

That done, we'll choose the fairest spots,
Divide 'em up in city plots,
And sell 'em off as corner lots.

And where the Spanish foe now loots
Mayhap you'll find some substitutes,
Like vaudeville and chuting chutes.

And possibly we'll take those Isles,
Whereon sweet peace so rarely smiles,
And give them to our men of wiles.

To Croker one, and one to Platt,
And one to Bryan—men like that—
So that we'll know just where they're at.

But one thing's fixed as any star:
We will not move those islands far,
But let them stay just where they are.

We hope, dear Concert, grand and square,
This answer strikes you as most fair.
If not, why—well, old Dewey's there.

EDUCATIONAL EXHIBIT.

LINCOLN, Neb., July 20, 1898.—To Nebraska School People: Many have experienced difficulty in locating the Nebraska educational exhibit at the Trans-Mississippi exposition; hence this circular.

This exhibit is to be found in the gallery of the manufacturers building. Some visit our educational headquarters in the Nebraska building and fail to find the exhibit, not knowing that it is put up in another building.

The exhibit occupies some fifteen thousand square feet of floor space, and comprises all grades of school work from the kindergarten up through the state university, and is pronounced by leading educators of other states as one of the finest educational exhibits they have ever seen. The New England Journal of Education, published at Boston and Chicago, in its issue of July 14, makes the following comment. "The educational exhibit of Nebraska at the Trans-Mississippi exposition, Omaha, is one of the best, if not literally the best, ever made in the United States." Great credit is due to the thousands of educators and pupils of the Nebraska schools who so faithfully co-operated with us in making the exhibit a success.

While we are proud that Nebraska has the lowest per cent of illiteracy, we feel that this exhibit is right in keeping with the high standing our state has attained.

The work is neatly arranged and decorated. Visitors can find seats where they can rest and examine the work. You can "Stand up for Nebraska" perhaps in no better way than by taking your friends with you to see this exhibit, which no doubt is as fine an educational exhibit as was ever put up by any state.

"It's all right. She has the worst memory in the world."

Maud—Don't you think that there are just as good fish in the sea as ever were caught?

Marie—I don't know. But they're smarter, anyway.

"Well," remarked the listener, "you furnish your thoughts with excellent ambush facilities."
