

erniteis and faculty were charmingly entertained by a musicale at the home of Miss Mabel Richards. The flags were used here in decoration and also palms and American beauties. The guests were seated in the court and in the rooms and balcony adjoining. The programs were decorated in water color in dainty designs. The guests were seated and served by the young women of the home chapter. The program rendered was as follows:

a. "Morning Zephyrs—Jensen Nieman; b—"Hexentanz,"—Mac Dowell; Miss Maude Risser

a.—"The First Meeting," Grieg; b.—Nocturne (May in Tuscany), Nevin; c.—Valse (Mi Tensita) Carreno—Mrs. Mrs. W. Owen Jones.

Solo, Selected—Miss Eleanor Raymond.

"Ballade el Polonaise Vieuxtemps—Miss Silence Dales.

"Nymphs and Shepherds," Purcell—Mrs. Mark Woods.

a.—Liebslied; b.—Pan Pastoral; c.—Etude, G flat; g.—Merkel; b.—Godard; Chopin—Miss May Colson.

There was hearty applause for each performer, but no encores except for Miss Silence Dales, whose soulful rendition and skilful handling of the violin was not to be resisted. The selection played was the one which she rendered so successfully at the exposition with Thomas' orchestra. After prolonged applause Miss Dales returned and played exquisitely the much-loved "Suawnee River."

On Friday morning there was a secret business session. On Friday afternoon the convention was received by the members of the Kappa Alpha Theta fraternity at the home of Miss Emily Weeks. The parlors and hall were gracefully decorated with scarlet and cream and palms. The dining room was prettily decorated with black and yellow, the Theta colors. Here punch was served, and on the lawn, where a pretty booth of flags and screens had been made, ices were served. Some of the alumnae and members from out of town came to assist and make a most pleasant afternoon for the visitors. On Friday evening a garden party was given at the home of Miss Lottie Whedon. The lawn was covered with cushions, rugs, and settees. It was lighted with Japanese lanterns. Hagenow's orchestra was stationed on one of the verandas and played during the evening. Ices were served on the lawn. On Saturday morning from 6 until 10 o'clock, the grand council will be given a trolley ride by Mr. Harry Shedd and Mr. George Shedd, members of the Phi Psi fraternity. Others of the Phi Psi men will be on the coach. On Saturday afternoon Mrs. Jane Macfarland will give a reception for Miss Dorothy Canfield. On Saturday evening there will be a general reception at Miss Clara Hammond's. Sunday morning there will be special services at the Episcopal church.

Besides the entertainment on the regular program there have been rides, luncheons and dinners given for some of the delegates and visitors. The festivities will continue until next Wednesday, when the day will be spent in Omaha.

This day has been named "Greek Letter Day," in honor of the Greek letter people. Both men and women are invited to go to Omaha on that day. A special train has been offered and the Kappas invite all of the other fraternity members to go on that day and make it as great a success as is possible.

Charles B. Gregory and his cousin, "Dutch" Gregory, late of Princeton, are exploring Denver, Pike's Peak and other Colorado points. They will be gone until the middle of September. They did not make up their minds to go until a little while before train time and they made a swift packup of their grips. "Dutch" has an old college chum from Princeton at Denver, with whom the boys will spend a good part of the time while they are away.

Miss Blanche Hargreaves gave a luncheon on Thursday at 12 o'clock in honor of Miss Dorothy Canfield of Columbus, O. The table was exquisitely appointed. The guests were Misses Dorothy Canfield, Edith Striker of New York city, Hattie Maine of Des Moines, Helen Warriner, Madison, Wis., Cora Cropsey, Stella Elliott, Ellen Gere, Frances Gere, Lottie Whedon, Margaret Whedon, Jane Marfarland, Emma Outcalt.

She will remain a few days and then go east to join her husband, Captain Walsh, of the Thirty-third Michigan volunteers, who is to return from Santiago de Cuba the 1st of September. Mrs. Walsh's many warm friends have given her the warmest welcome.

Mrs. James H. Canfield accompanied her daughter to the Kappa Kappa Gamma convention and is the guest of Prof. and Mrs. C. E. Bessey. Mrs. Canfield's circle of friends here is unusually large. She stimulated club women and artists as well as the women with no specialties to more eager endeavor and her welcome has been as hearty as her loss was real.

Miss Shirley Smith, former secretary of the Young Woman's Christian Association, is spending the week in Lincoln. She has come to attend the Kappa Kappa Gamma meeting and will be the guest of Miss Dora Auman. Her friends may find her awhile each day in the association rooms.

Mrs. Morris Friend and Mrs. Weil gave a most pleasant dancing party at Lincoln park for a large number of their friends. It was given in honor of Miss Greenbaum of Burlington, Ia., and Mrs. Friend's father and mother of Philadelphia. Light refreshments were served by the hostesses during the evening.

Miss Cora Hardy has been spending the summer in Chicago studying political economy at "The Commons," Dr. Graham Taylor's famous school. The work has proved most interesting and beneficial and Miss Hardy will return in a few weeks with new strength ready to take up her school work here.

Prof. George W. Botsford of Harvard university, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Barrett. Mr. Botsford is an alumnus of the state university, who has many friends in the city. There will be an informal gathering of Mr. Botsford's friends at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Snell on Monday evening.

Cards are out announcing the forthcoming marriage of Frank L. Mary of Lincoln, to Miss Catherine Neville of Plattsmouth. The wedding will take place at St. John's church. Mr. Mary is chief clerk in Governor Holcomb's office. Miss Neville is the daughter of ex-State Senator Neville of Plattsmouth.

Miss Fay Marshall gave a delightful heart party on Friday morning at 10 o'clock.

Died, in Chicago, on Sunday, August 21, 1898, Mr. John Doolittle, formerly mayor of Lincoln. He lived from 1876 to 1892 in Lincoln. Since the latter date he has been living in Chicago. The later years of his life have been full of weariness and illness. He was an honest, good man, whose body was finally conquered by sickness, but his serene spirit gave no sign of defeat. He was buried in Wyuka cemetery on Wednesday beside the grave of his daughter Cora. Mrs. Doolittle and her son Fred accompanied the body to this city. The latter has returned to his work in the Chicago postoffice. Mrs. Doolittle will remain for a few days, the guest of Mrs. Elisha Doolittle and of other old friends in the city.

Died, at Hudson, Colo., on August 22, Miss Libbie Hodge, of this city.

Died, in Lincoln, Sunday, August 21, Mrs. Jane Fitzgerald, wife of C. J. Fitzgerald, at her home, 1745 F street.

Died, Saturday, August 20, at her home, 841 South Twenty-ninth street, Mrs. Elizabeth Hadley.

Died, on Wednesday, August 24, at his residence, 1528 -- street, Judge Charles H. Hall. Necrosis of the bone in the right knee made amputation of the leg necessary and he never rallied from the operation but died on the morning of the next day. Judge Hall was a good neighbor and a learned and just judge. He was a friendly and withal a frank man who made and kept his friends because his fellow men liked him and respected him, and not for that he flattered or sought for popularity. It is not merely post-mortem courtesy to say that the men who have played whist with him and walked and talked with him for the years he has lived his cheerful blameless life will sorely miss Charley Hall and keep ever a tender memory of him.
