

leave Lincoln soon. Miss Marshall's guests were Misses Anna Hammond, Margaret Honeywell, Neil Nelson; Messrs. George Holmes, Fred Rehlander, John Marquette and Ray Elliott.

Last Wednesday evening was the occasion of a delightful dinner and party given by Mrs. F. M. Hall in honor of Miss Alice Maitland of Denver. American beauty roses and drawn work made beautiful and dainty decorations. The souvenirs were worthy of note, being unique as well as beautiful. These were pictures taken by the hostess while touring abroad. The guests were Misses Eleanor Raymond, Blanche Garten, Florence Putnam, Florence Winger, Helen Welch and Alice Maitland.

Chapter K, P. E. O., enjoyed the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. O'Neal of University Place last Monday evening. The occasion was a most enjoyable one, nothing being omitted which could add to the pleasure of the guests. The gentlemen so often conspicuously absent from P. E. O. conclaves, but upon this occasion graciously permitted to accompany their better halves, were entertained by the host on the lawn, while deep and serious concerns were discussed within. Later, refreshments were served and the guests were reminded that this P. E. O. meeting was the first since the defection of one of the members from the rank of Bachelor Maids, by the group about a certain table, composed of Mr. and Mrs. Arba D. Smith and the erstwhile bride's-maids who accompanied Mrs. Smith, nee Miss Nellie Eddy, to the altar.

Mr. J. D. Macfarland and Jack Macfarland, with Wilson Muir and Ralph Quick, returned on Sunday from a hunting and fishing trip in Wyoming. With a guide, a wagon full of the camping outfit and supplies Mr. Macfarland chaperoned his party to a spot one hundred miles out of Sheridan on a mountain very near its snowy top. They caught trout, shot grouse and killed a deer and returned brown but jubilant, the boys to take up their school work and Mr. Macfarland to seek a needed repose.

Miss Anne Spurek wishes to announce that she will conduct classes in physical training again this winter at the Union Commercial club gymnasium. The term will open October 14th, and will close March 14, 1899. The fee for women will be $10 per term; for boys and girls $5. Miss Spurek intends to do more personal work than last year. Physical examinations will be made when necessary, and special exercises prescribed.

All members of the faculty of the University School of Music have returned after a summer's rest. Mr. Randolph spent the time in Denver and the Black Hills; Mrs. Treat Taylor in Chicago and Denver; Mr. Hagenow remained in Lincoln, occupied in preparing for the series of orchestral concerts to be given this winter. Miss Perkins visited in Moline and Chicago.

Miss Scofield, of the University School of Music, has leave of absence this year for study in Europe, this being her third trip.

Upon the arrival of the Second regiment Mrs. I. S. P. Weeks made a trip to Omaha last week, returning Saturday night, accompanied by Sergeant Charles Weeks of the Second regiment, company F, who spent part of Sunday with the Weeks family. Sergeant Weeks was obliged to return to his regiment Sunday afternoon. His stay was all too short to give his many friends an opportunity to greet him.

The Royal Neighbors in numbers sufficient to fill ten or twelve cars, enjoyed a trolley ride Monday evening. After a ride which included the trip to University Place and return, they gathered in the Knights of Pythias hall, where dainty refreshments were served, and more hours pleasantly whiled away.

Julius Sedgwick went to Chicago yesterday, where he will complete his work in the Rush medical school. A number of university boys have been studying medicine in Chicago, among them Charles Elliott, who completed his work at the Chicago medical this year, and Howard Ricketts, who finished last year and has been spending the year at the Cook county hospital.

Annie and Sadie Taylor return to their work in the South Omaha school today. The former has work in the high school. William James Taylor, formerly principal of the South Omaha high school, will soon start for Yale, where he will continue the special studies in philosophy which he began under the direction of Dr. H. K. Wolfe, at the state university of Nebraska.

Miss Francis Outcalt returned Saturday last after a twelve weeks tour in Europe. A good part of the time was spent in Germany, though London and Paris were enticing and Switzerland came in for its share of attention. Miss Outcalt expresses herself as have many other tourists, "Paris is the sum of all things."

Five young ladies owe to the courtesy and gallantry of Mr. Si Post the enjoyable trap ride which fell to their lot last Monday evening. The young ladies who enjoyed the drive were Misses Lulu Constancer, Kate Searls, Nell Trigg, Mary Deahn and Ethel Erford.

Dr. and Mrs. F. W. Hill and son accompanied by Miss Anna Tibbetts, returned Saturday last from Lake Okoboji, where they found their cottage on the lake shore an ideal summer retreat. Miss Tibbetts assumed the cares of the principal at the Clinton school on Monday.

Miss Lulu Roth, who has been attending school in Grand Rapids, Mich. arrived in Lincoln Sunday evening. Miss Roth stopped some time in Iowa on her way homeward visiting friends in Trenton, Mt. Pleasant, and other places pleasant.

Mr. Earle Wehn will have charge of the Cadet band of the University School of Music and also act as instructor of the cornet. It is predicted that under his leadership the band will be made an attractive organization.

Mrs. Danielson came in from Omaha the first of the week. Mrs. Danielson, who has been engaged as instructor in an institute in Blair, Ia., and also earlier in the summer at St. Paul, reports a pleasant and gratifying summer.

A surprise party was given on Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. Henry Kirk at Union College as a farewell to Miss Lotten Lindquist, who is about to return to Sweden. The company was entertained with games and music.

Charles T. Fairfield of North Adams, Mass., was with the editors on Sunday. He was formerly a resident of this city and spent the few hours' stop in this city with his sister, Mrs. A. W. Field, and with his brothers.

Miss Todd of Atlanta, who has been the guest of Mrs. Ross Curtice, left the city Monday en route for the south.

Herpol'sheimer Co.

Grocery Economy

Strictly high class pure food for less money than is usually paid for inferior goods. That's why this new department sprang at once into popular favor. These prices for the coming week.

FLOUR—Snow Flake, 1st patent flour, per sack, 89c.

Nemaha patent flour, per sack, 85c.

Satin patent flour, per sack $1.00.

Defiance flour, per sack, 65c.

SOAP—Our "Velvet," best on earth, 9 bars for 25c.

Santa Claus, 10 bars for 25c.

White Russian soap, 11 bars for 25c.

Cudahy's Diamond C, 10 bars for 25c.

Satin soap, 14 bars for 25c.

STARCH—6 pound box Kingsford's Silver Gloss 45c.

6 pound box Argo Silver Gloss, 35c.

1 pound boxes Kingsford's starch, 4 for 25c.

1 pound boxes Argo Gloss or corn starch, 6 for 25c.

Elastic starch, per box 7c.

Celluloid or Laundro starch, 4 for 25c.

LARD—Guaranteed kettle rendered leaf lard, 3 pound pail, 21c; 5 pound pail, 35c; 10 pound pail, 65c; 50 pound can, $2.90.

SMOKED HAM AND BACON—Best light breakfast bacon, per pound, 9c.

California ham per pound, 6½c.

Best sugar cured ham, per pound, 9c.

LYE—Lewis lye, can 7c.

Champion lye, per can, 6½c.

Eagle lye, per can, 6c.

Schrub lye, per can, 3c.

Sapolio, 4 for 25c.

MATCHES—Parlor matches, 200 in a box, 12 boxes in package, per package, 10c.

Compare these prices with what you usually pay and you will realize what a saving this list represents.

We extend a cordial invitation to everyone interested in dainty, rich and durable dress fabrics to call and examine our exquisite assortment of new fall and winter dress goods. Samples cheerfully sent to out of town customers.

We are sole Lincoln agents for Butterick patterns and publications.

Out of town customers send for our new catalogue, it will be ready soon.

Herpol'sheimer Co.

Mrs. J. H. Miller, accompanied by her son, Dwight, and Miss Martha Rose, have returned to Lincoln after a pleasant summer spent in Pine, Col., whither they went early in June. They report a delightful outing.

Mrs. Joseph F. Walsh has returned to her home in Port Huron, Mich., after a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Oakley. Her husband, Captain Walsh, has returned from Santiago.

Tuesday evening Miss Blanche Garten entertained the following guests at dinner: Misses Alice Maitland, Helen Welch, Florence Sherman, A. R. and Mrs. McEntee of Chicago, Mr. Sumner of Omaha.

Sutton & Hollowbush, the well-known confectioners, have moved to 135 South Twelfth street, a few doors south of their former location, corner O and Twelfth street.

Miss Ross of the Clinton school, spent her vacation in the mountains of Colorado in the vicinity of Boulder. Mrs. Davis returns to Lincoln with memories of a pleasant summer in Vermont.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Morrill, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Gere and Chancellor and Mrs. MacLean took a special car on Monday evening for a tour of the Black Hills.

The university chorus will take up the study of the "Swan and Skylark," a charming work by Goring Thomas. The membership will be about two hundred.

Miss Laura Couger left for Chicago last Sunday. Miss Couger, who is a teacher in Chicago, elected to spend her summer at her home in Lincoln.

Ernest Haughton has arrived from Pennsylvania, where he has been working for an electrical company. He will be in Lincoln about two months.

Mrs. A. L. Sullivan returned Sunday last, feeling rested and refreshed by her three weeks in Colorado Springs and Manitou. Mrs. Sullivan was accompanied by her son Aaron.

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Hendman of Monmouth, Ill., who were the guests of Mrs. Hyder at 1520 U street, during the first part of the week, left Lincoln for the east Tuesday evening.

Miss Flora Hartley found Ogden a place of pleasantness during the three weeks she spent there recently the guest of her cousin, Miss Bertha Brown.

Mrs. Da Shiell of Baltimore, Md., who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Dr. Winnett, and her mother, Mrs. Shepard, left for home Wednesday.