

Frank M. Hall, gave a report of the meetings held during the year. At two meetings papers were given, illustrated with slides. A lecture was given by the artist, Mr. Clarkson, of Chicago, and an exhibition of draun photographs has been held.

There being no further reports the election was held. The following directors were elected: Chancellor MacLean, Dr. Lowry, N. S. Harwood, Prof. E. H. Harbour, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Gere, Mrs. F. M. Hall, Mrs. F. M. Hodgman, Miss Harris, Mrs. L. C. Richards and Mr. Tibbles.

Chancellor MacLean spoke of the importance of aesthetic art. He considered that much could be done in Nebraska by distributing good photographs of paintings and cultivating the taste of the school children. Miss Parker's plan of sending collections of the work of the art students among the high schools of the state was commended. The chancellor thought the mid-winter art exhibit should be held. This year, not only the state teachers' association will be in Lincoln, but the modern language association of the western states. The legislature also meets and the exhibit is of inestimable value to many students. Nothing could be promised by the university in the way of pecuniary help until after the meeting of the legislature, if then.

The board met at the close of the meeting to elect officers with the following result: President, N. S. Harwood; vice president, Professor Harbour; recording secretary, Mrs. Hodgman; corresponding secretary, Mrs. F. M. Hall. A motion was made by Miss Harris to thank Mrs. Hall for her labor in behalf of the art exhibits last winter, and a committee was appointed to attend to it.
