DEFECTIVE EYESIGHT IS HEREDITARY

sometimes, but whether it is the failing sight of old age, or the defective sight of childhood, we can regulate all the defects of vision by testing the eyes scientifically, which we will do free, and fitting them with glasses that will aid and strengthen the sight.

Social and Personal

A red, white, and blue party in honor of Miss Katie Asmussen's, sixteenth birthday, is the latest event in which the national colors played a leading part. Miss Asmussen entertained her guests at her home at 1531 South Tenth street, until a late hour on the evening of Monday October 3, the hours being passed with games and dancing. Presents numerous and useful, commemorated the occasion. The numerous guests were delightfully entertained. Refreshments were served, and at a late hour the guests departed wishing their hostess many other happy birthdays.

The Grace M E, Epworth league gave a reception Monday night at the home of Mr. C. Garrison, at 2929 S street, in honor of Miss Eva Nolan who left later in the week for Box Butte where she will train the tender mind as it is met with in the public schools. The evening passed pleasantly, the hours being spent with bright games and conversation. Miss Nolan will be missed by a large circle of friends.

On Wednesday evening of this week occurred the marriage of Miss Sadie Grimes to Mr. Frank S. McCain of Chicago, Rev. L. P. Ludden officiating. The bride was charmingly gowned in a white organdy, whose simplicity was its great charm. It was daintily trimmed with quantities of white baby ribbon.

Miss Hattie Shaffer, bridesmaid, wore white organdy over pale green. Many friends were present. Delicious refreshments were served.

The refreshments were numerous and beautiful.

Married, Sunday October 2, at the home of the brides' parents 2177 South Eighth street, Mr. J. W. Crocker and Miss O. E. Stoner. Rev. Birrel of the Third Presbyterian church officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Crocker will reside in Evanston, Wyo.

Miss Willa Cather has returned to Pittsburg. Miss Cather's literary career which began in Lincoln, bids fair to be bright, and is watched with more than passing interest by her many friends here.

Miss Jeannette Bahlman and Miss Ida B. Johnson went to Omaha Thursday morning to attend the national congress of the society of P. E. O., in session there.

The members of St Paul church tendered their new pastor, Rev. Fletcher L. Wharten, a reception on Wednesday evening in the church parlors.

Mrs. Samuel Wessel entertained at cards Tuesday afternoon. All things worked together for good and a delightful afternoon was the result.

Miss Daisy Highlands entertained a number of friends Monday evening at her home, 321 North Seventeenth street. The evening was pleasantly passed at progressive high five, crokinole and charades. Dainty refreshments were served. Those present were Miss Meyers, Miss Meehan, Miss Nora Williams, Miss Laura Meade, Miss Highlands, Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Dobbins, Mr. Frank Tecker, George J. Frey, Mr. Frank Neville, Mr. Henry Ittig, Mr. Meyers.

Captain and Mrs. Guilfoyle stopped a half hour in Lincoln on their way to Fort Du Chein, Utah, where they are stationed for the present. The captain was in command of troops I and C and is the commandant at the fort. A party of intimate friends met him at the station. Both Captain and Mrs. Guilfoyle were looking very well, though the former was somewhat thin. He has been one of the officers in charge at Monauk Point. He said that the stories of starvation and neglect of sick soldiers in the hospital at the Point were newspaper lies. Among the captain's luggage was a large framed testimonial from the merchants' association of New York, expressing the thanks and gratitude of the association for favors in getting supplies distributed rapidly without regard to red tape. When the party arrived at the station the captain's uniform had the full compliment of buttons, crossed sabres, etc., but when the train pulled out the captain's canvas uniform bore some resemblance to the celebrated Peggotty after one of her violent fits of emotion. Troop C, it will be remembered, bore a distinguished part in the battle of Santiago.

At their pleasant and hospitable home in Waverly terrace Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Green gave a card party Tuesday evening of this week. Carnations and red and cream roses ornamented the rooms. On Tuesday Mrs. Rodgers and Mrs. Muir cut for the prize and the latter won it. Mr. N. C. Brock won the gentleman's prize. On Wednesday Mr. John Dorgan won the gentleman's prize and Mrs. Harry Hallett, ladies' prize.

At her handsome home on Thirteenth and G streets, Mrs. E. E. Brown gave a euchre party on Tuesday after noon and Thursday evening in honor of her guests, Mr. and Mrs. Coleman and Miss Brosser of Chicago. Doctor and Mrs. Percy Silver took the Washington train on Tuesday. Many friends met at the station to say farewell and express regret for the doctor's resignation.

Misses Jessie and Addie Putnam of Aurora, who spent several days of last week visiting friends in Lincoln and vicinity, went on to Omaha Monday to view the exposition. Miss Jessie Bethany renewing many pleasant acquaintances made while she was a student at Cotner university.

Dr. N. M. Hindman went to Omaha Monday evening.

The Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity initiated four men this week amid the usual solemn gaffics. They were Lynn Lyle and Loyd Killian of Wahoo, Edward Holbrook of Falls City and Howard Cowgill of Omaha. The Kappa Kappa Gammars presented the fraternity with a beautiful sofa pillow of purple, embroidered in gold—the S. A. E. colors.

The Third Presbyterian church welcomed the pastor, Rev Peter Birrel and bride home on Wednesday evening and gave them two handsome rocking chairs.
