

land was winning in manner and capable in whatever position she for the time assumed. Charles Harbury as Mr. Hunter-Chase, the butt of many a joke, was thoroughly capable. Edmond Lawrence, in the part of the coachman, proved a lively entertainer. Franklin Garland as the irate manager, was properly brusque. Kate Eckert, Carrie Behr and A. Kanine completed the cast, filling their parts most acceptably. In fact, it is a strong company, coherent in all its elements, that Mr. Litt has brought together to present a most entertaining play.—Chicago Inter-Ocean.

This attraction will be produced at the Funke Friday, October 14.

AT THE OLIVER.

The Great Polish-American artist, Modjeska, will open the season of the Oliver theatre on next Thursday evening, October 13, in Shakspeare's masterpiece, Antony and Cleopatra." The performance will be complete in every detail as she carries all of her own scenery and properties for this play.

Mojeska's time is confined mostly to the large cities and Lincoln people are to be congratulated on having an opportunity of seeing the most artistic and gracious woman on the stage. Her company is an exceptional strong one and composed of some of the best people in the business. The prices for the engagement are: Lower floor, $1.50 and $1.25; balcony, $1.00 and 75 cents; gallery, 50 cents. Seats on sale Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock sharp. On account of the great demand for seats only six seats will be sold to one person. Secure your seats early. Prof. Hagenow and an orchestra of fifteen pieces will play a grand concert from 7:30 until 8:15 as a fit introduction to the new curtain, which will be used for the first time.
