ONE REASON FOR THIS LARGE INCREASE IS THAT THE METHODS OF INSTRUCTION IN USE HERE ARE THOSE OF THE BEST EUROPEAN CONSERVATORIES, BY WHICH PUPILS ARE ADVANCED IN THE MOST THOROUGH AND RAPID MANNER POSSIBLE, AND ARE NEVER OBLIGED TO GO OVER THE SAME GROUND SEVERAL TIMES, AS IS OFTEN THE CASE BECAUSE OF IMPROPER INSTRUCTION.

MATINEE MUSICALE.

The third meeting of the Matinee Musicale was held on Monday afternoon. The attendance was large and several new members were elected. The first artist recital for the season was announced to occur on the evening of November 14th and will take the place of the regular afternoon meeting. Admission to the members will be by membership ticket. The concert will be given by a vocal quartette from the musical club of Topeka. One of the ladies is a fine solo singer and one a violinist and an attractive program will be presented. At the conclusion of the business session an interesting program was enjoyed.

Mrs. Campbell's report of the meeting of directors of the General Federation of Musical clubs, was followed by a paper by Mrs. John Doane on "The Dramatic in Music." The piano numbers were given by Miss Lucy Haywood and Miss Mary Smith, vocal by Mrs. C. E. Sanderson, Mrs. D. M. Butler, Miss Iona Holmes, Miss Pauline Maud Oakley and Mrs. E. Lewis Baker.

LITERARY NOTES.

er. The matter will be brought before a Court of Honor of old generals. There will be a deal of talk, and finally unmeaning declarations will be exchanged. What would have been the use of this? So I gave it up.

It is probable that Prince Bismarck dropped his blood-thirsty plan because he knew that Count von Caprivi was only the executor of the emperor's will.

AT THE FUNKE.

THE HERRMANN'S.

Adelaide and Leon Herrmann appear at the Funke opera house on Friday evening, November 11th. Leon Herrmann will entertain his audience with the most marvelous sleight of hand, and mystify with the most startling illusions ever seen in this city. In the art of palming he stands alone. He was for many years the idol of France. His annual tours did not extend over an occasional trip to St. Petersburg and a few of the large cities of Continental Europe. His beloved France was all sufficient for him, and he was content with the emoluments showered upon him by his countrymen. It was not until Alexander Herrmann died, that he extended his tours to this country.

The peerless Adelaide Herrmann will present several new dances. In colors, lights and general effects a positive revelation is promised.
