Mrs. Angie Newman entertained very pleasantly on Wednesday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Jane Creighton of Washington, D. C., who is president of the National White Cross of America. A programme was rendered which was enthusiastically received. Lora Holmness sang a pleasing solo. Mrs. Crampton then favored them with a zither solo. Then Mrs. Newman introduced Mrs. Creighton who spoke of the work of the White Cross. The movement was started in Washington, September 10th. Mrs. Creighton has a most pleasing way of talking to her audience and the ladies thoroughly enjoyed the opportunity of hearing her. Miss Silence Dales closed the programme with two solos. She played in her usual pleasing way, the ladies demanding an encore. Light refreshments were served by Misses Winifred Hill and Mamie Hartley.

Mrs. C. Jones and Mrs. Morris Turner entertained most delightfully on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Jones. The house was decorated with meteor roses and chrysanthemums. The entertainment was very novel. Each lady was given a card with the name of a song written upon it. They had to illustrate the song by a drawing on the other side of the card. After all were through the cards were pinned upon the wall and the name of the song had to be guessed from the drawing. Two beautiful books were given for prizes. One for the best drawing and one for the lady who guessed the most songs. A dainty luncheon was served at the close. Mrs. Mark Tilton presided in the dining room.

Mrs. H. S. Freeman gave a novel Kensington on Thursday afternoon. Each lady was requested to make a button-hole and the one who made the best received the prize. The house was decorated with chrysanthemums. A dainty two course luncheon was served. Mrs. Freeman's guests were: Mesdames Ladd, Orr, Yates, Marshall, Muir, R. B. Muir, Morrill, Lambertson, Campbell, F. Smith, G. Lacey, Wright, W. Wilson, W. Hardy, Dorgan, Coffroth, E. P. Brown, Ogden, Watson, of Friend, Carson, Branch, L. C. On Tuesday, at four o'clock, occurred the marriage of Miss Ethel M. English to Mr. William Dobbins. The ceremony took place at the home of the bride's father, Mr. W. W. English; Rev. F. L. Wharton, officiating. The simple ring service was used. Only relatives of the contracting parties were present. Both people are well known in Lincoln and all their friends wish them much happiness.

A presidential party was given by Mrs. C. I. Jones and Mrs. R. M. Turner on Friday afternoon at the home of the former. Pictures of all the presidents were pinned on the wall and the ladies had to guess who they were. The lady who guessed the most received a dainty book entitled "The Lives of the Presidents." Mrs. Mark Tilton assisted the hostesses in serving a delicious luncheon.

Mrs. W. C. Wilson entertained delightfully at euchre on Wednesday afternoon. A great many flowers were placed throughout the house. The prizes were given to the one winning the most games and for the lone hands. Mrs. Alexander Wilson captured both the prizes. Mrs. D. A. Campbell and Miss Maud Oakley sang after the games.

A merry crowd of young people from Havelock came in to Lincoln on Monday evening and gave Mrs. Katherine Roop a pleasant surprise in her rooms in the Kitchen block. Various amusements were furnished and a jolly time was reported. The party was chaperoned by Mrs. Dr. Scott. Light refreshments were served. The party took the 10:20 car for Havelock.

Cards have been received announcing the approaching marriage of Miss Bertha Evelyn Williams, of Grand Island, to Mr. Thomas Emmons McMeans, of Lincoln. The ceremony will take place in Grand Island, November 30. Mr. and Mrs. McMeans will be at home to their friends at Waverly Terrace.

Mrs. James Winger entertained informally on Tuesday morning for the Topeka ladies and the board of the Matinee Musicale. Solos were rendered by Mrs. Campbell, Mrs. Baker and Miss Maude Oakley. The Topeka quartet sang for the last time to the Lincoln ladies.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Morrill entertained in honor of the Phi Beta Phi fraternity and their gentleman friends on Friday evening. Progressive hearts was played. The house was profusely decorated with roses and chrysanthemums. Light refreshments were served.
