Amid blue wreaths of smoke the members of Phi Delta Theta and a few invited guests enjoyed last Saturday evening at 1522 S street. The rooms were decorated with a melange of national colors characteristic among them, being a few signs in which the magic word "Schlitz" loomed Americanically into view. Each guest was presented during the evening with a pipe tied with the fraternity colors. Light refreshments were served during the evening. The smoker was informal and for that reason and for the reason that it was a typical fraternity gathering, was of unalloyed pleasure. An echo of the Vaudeville was given in some impromptu dances and burlesque cake walks, and a little rag time music fitted into the evening like a mosaic. The members of the frat present were: G. M. Lambertson, O. F.
Lambertson, J. R. Webster, Rev. A. F.
Newell, McDonald, Sumner, Lau, Sherman, Stebbins, Mansfelde, Abbott, Tu-key, Hastie, Hill, C. Sumner, Sabin-Pryce, Mueller, Stone, True, Roddy Paine, Raymond, Lyman, Welsh, Haggard, Shears of Omaha and McCreary.
From other fraternities were: Pearce, Christie, Haecker, Richards, Carscadden, Weeks, Cleland, Whipple, Peter Lau, Watkins, Cramb, Adams, Harmon, Davidson, Bartlett, Rainey, Bischoff, Melford, Mudge, VanValen, Blies, Numan, Dales, Town, Turner, Robinson, Thomas, Ike Raymond, Clarkson, Prof. White, H. B. Ward, Professors Taylor, Lyons and Richards.

Last night Miss Sue Ashman and Miss Vera Wattler were initiated into Pi Beta Phi at the home of Miss Ada Waugh at 603 South Eleventh street.
The evening was made enjoyable by the adjunct of a banquet after the ordeal of initiation. A lavish display of flowers covered the banquet table and the menu cards contained the artistic work of members of the fraternity that made them valuable as souvenirs. During the evening several boxes of beautiful flowers, gifts of fraternity men, were brought to the house to the delight of the young ladies. After the banquet and initiation, there mysteriously appeared a number of young gentlemen who invaded the house and took part in a dance that brought the evening to a close. Those present besides active members of the chapter were Mrs. Harrison and Miss Carscadden of York, Miss Branch, Omaha, Miss Lacey and the Misses Mae Lansing, Jennie Barber and Bessie Turner.

Last Saturday evening Mrs. C. C White invited a number of ladies to her home and entertained them most pleasantly. Six at a time the guests were ushered into the library where they were asked to guess the names of musical instruments represented by articles arranged around the room. Mrs. Myron Wheeler and Miss Stella Kirker were equally successful in guessing and they were compelled to draw for the prizes. Miss Kirker carried away the first prize and Mrs. Wheeler obtained the second. An elegant supper served faultlessly, came as a pretty climax to an evening of extreme pleasure. Mrs.
White's guests were: Mrs. D. R. Hopkins, Mrs. W; H. Morris, Mrs. A. D.
French, Mrs. Murphy, Mrs. A. L. Johnson Mrs. Hollingshead, Crete; Mrs.

Wheeler, R. D. Stearns, C. I. Jones.
Casebeer, Everts, G. H. Clark, F. A.
Brown, F. E. Lahr, A. W. Field, M. H.
Garten, Sewell, Latta, M. J. States, W.
E. Kirker, Miss Kirker, Miss Baldwin.

Nebraska Chapter of Delta Upsilon was instituted a week ago last night in the Brace Block. George F. Andrews president of the executive council from Brown university, and Arthur H. Jameson of Chicago officiated at the installation. A sumptuous banquet was a part of the celebration and a list of eloquent toasts supplemented the menu. Greetings from many other chapters were received during the evening. The charter members of this new fraternity are as follows: P. H. Thompson, R. D. Elliot, F. H. Knagle, Clinton Barr, W. L.
Hall, Eugene Brookings, R. W. Bliss.
Reno Magley, E. M. Heffner, E. L.
Rhodes, R. D. Clinton, C. L. Wray, A.
T. Stratton, J. E. Lester; absent members Oliver Chambers; Alumni T. D.
Lunn (diseased), H. B. Noyes, A. A.
Miller, R. Pollard, Charles Peterson.

Samuel Musser, Luther Mumstead, and Earnest C. Folsom were taken into the Beta Theta Pi fraternity last Saturday with such appropriate ceremonies as that fraternity knows so well how to conduct. Carl Beghtol was toast master and he waxed eloquent as he called upon Messrs. Phillip F. Greene, Dr.
John White, Edgar M. Cramb, Gov.
Schick, John McDermott and Earnest Folsom who gave toasts appropriate to the occasion. Those who enjoyed the festivities were Messrs. Ames, Ricketts, Chandler, White, McDermott, Bethany; Greene, Cramb, Raine, Schick, Herscheg, Beghtol, Gillespie, Adams, Mc-Killip, Williams, Simms, Blackmann Webster, Buckstaff, Lau, Robinson, Hyde, Barnes, and Cooley.

Mr and Mrs. W. C. Wilson entertained most happily Wednesday evening for Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Loveland of Saginaw, Mich. Cards and music furnished the pleasure of the evening. Miss Maude Oakley sang selections from "The Geisha" that were gems. The Virginia reel was a unique and thoroughly enjoyable part of the entertainment for the evening. Not the least attractive part of the pleasure was the chafing dish supper served at a late hour. Welsh rarebit and panned oysters formed a part of the menu. The guests were: Judge and Mrs. Irvine, Messrs. and Madames Leonard, Rodgers, Hargreaves, Tilton, Buckstaff, Wright, Coffroth, Muir, Besson, Green, Oakley, Griffith, Misses Price and Oakley.

The B'nai B'rith card club enjoyed Tuesday evening with Mr. and Mrs.
Charles Mayer. Mrs. Sam Wessel and Mr. Schlessinger obtained the prizes. refreshments were served by the hostess.
The players were Messrs. and Madames Spier, Herzog, Ackerman, Wessel, Ksensky, Mrs. Katz of Omaha, Misses Mayer, Franck, Friend, Seligsohn, Schlessinger, Mrs. M. Friend, Messrs. Seligsohn, S.
Mayer, Blum, Greenbaum, Oppenheimer, and Slick.

Mrs. L. J. Herzog gave an elaborate luncheon Monday in honor of her sister, Mrs. Samuel Katz, of Omaha, who has been visiting her for a few days. The table was beautifully adorned in fresh
