

lat, 1891, Mr. and Mrs. Sawyer invited in a company and since that time at the beginning of the new year the same company as far as possible has been invited again to celebrate the incoming of the new year. The members of the Lincoln Light Infantry gave a "hard times party" Thursday night at their dancing hall on Tenth street. The costumes were evidently from the ragbag and were picturesque in the extreme. The party was one of the most enjoyable of the season notwithstanding the poverty stricken appearance of the guests. Thirty-three couples enjoyed the dance. A number of uniformed officers were present as guests, among whom were noticed Major Mape; Colonels Bratt, Swan, Hanson; Captains Culver, Lyon, Murdock, Roeder; Lieutenants Shultz, Culver, Kinney, Murdock, Dorrington, Long and Jones.

General Amasa Cobb is visiting his niece Mrs. Chandler in Yuma, Arizona. The Arizona Sentinel says of the General that he will spend the winter in Yuma, and that he is quite a prominent politician of national reputation. He did not leave Nebraska, however, because William Jennings Bryan is coming home, but because of the severe winter in the blizzard swept North. General Cobb served in the war of the rebellion from Wisconsin and afterward very ably represented that state in the lower house of congress. He also served a number of terms as chief justice of Nebraska. He is an exceedingly bright and pleasant gentleman and it is to be hoped he will be pleased with Yuma and benefitted by her delightful winter climate.

The Ladies aid society of Trinity M. E. church received the members and friends of the church in the church parlors, Monday afternoon. Holly and smilax made pretty decorations for the rooms. Mrs. D. W. Moseley, president of the society was assisted in receiving by the chairmen of the four circles. Mrs. G. B. Leonard poured chocolate and was assisted by Mesdames D. T. Cook, A. L. Pound and Henry Peters. Between the hours of three and six a very large number of guests called and received the greetings for the New Year from the ladies. The reception was most enjoyable throughout.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Hargreaves entertained a small party of boys and girls Wednesday night for their daughter Gladys. The affair was thoroughly informal and was a delight in consequence to every one present. Cards and other amusements entertained the young folks until refreshments were served. These consisted of ice cream, cake and other eatables dear to the youthful taste. Those who participated in the evenings enjoyment were: Louise Burnham, Elsie Fawell, Ruth Raymond, Helen Wilson, Reed Fawell, Wilson Muir and Willard Kimball Jr.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Buckstaff last Saturday evening, the Cotillon club gave a New Year's dance. The rooms were bright with Christmas greenery, holly and mistletoe, and the beautiful gowns and bright faces made a gay scene. Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Burr led the German in which twenty-four couples took part. It was one of the largest and most jolly parties given by the club this season.

The news from Captain R. O. Phillips, who is ill in San Francisco is not encouraging. The large number of warm friends the Captain has in Nebraska are much concerned about his condition and sympathize with Mrs. Phillips who is with him constantly.
