Social and Personal

Mrs. H. M. Chapin and Mrs. Leonard Chapin, gave an informal reception Tuesday afternoon that was attended by a large number of guests. The callers were received in the front parlors which were adorned handsomely with American roses and palms. The library was decorated with carnations and palms and the dining room was elaborately adorned with ropes of smilax and luxuriously cushioned corners. The table was elegant with fine embroidery and hand painting. Mrs. Gordon poured coffee and served cakes, assisted by Mrs. Davis and Mrs. George Hibner. The tiny Misses Mary and Eunice Chapin stood at the door and presented each guest with a beautiful carnation. The invited were; Mesdames Bryan, Poynter, Holcomb, Jewell, Fred Jewell, Cornell, Porter, Meserve, Davis, Rogers, Charles Bryan, Allen, Welch, Laws, Morning, Neville of North Platte; Gleason, A. H. Gleason, Broady, Pomerene, Berge, Bruner, Harvey, Wentz, Miller, Teeters, Whitting, Jones, Jackson, Holm, Doane, Spalding, Johnson, Rivett, Loomis, H. Chapin, French, Humphrey, Palm, Carr, Kimball, Phillips, King, Rainbolt, Beck, Doyle, Schwind, Patrick, Bailey, Hibner, Zehrunge, Gordon, Misses Johnson, Poynter, Spalding, Bryan, Youngstedt of Wahoo.

Mrs. H. H. Wilson, dean of women at state university, entertained the members of the senior and junior classes at her home last Saturday afternoon. About two hundred guests were present and the afternoon was delightfully spent. Mrs. Wilson was assisted in receiving by Mesdames MacLean, C. H. Morrill, Manning and Richards. Misses Barr, Pound, Mariel Gere, Bouton, Whiting, Conkling, Chappell, and Johnson assisted in the parlors in entertaining the guests and introducing those who had not before met. In the dining room the wives of the deans of the university served refreshments from a table decorated with pink roses. They were Mesdames Sherman, Edgren, Reese, Bessey and Mrs. I. M. Raymond. Misses Bertha Quaintance, Emily Weeks, Ella Raymond, Mabel Rickette, Lena Ricketts and Helen Dormatt assisted in serving.

The Mystic Shriners of Sesostri temple held a work session, followed by a sumptuous banquet, Tuesday evening. The ladies of Eastern Star, No. 8, had the banquet in charge and it was a credit to their skill. Those who trod the burning sands for the first time were: Messrs. Ruger, Waverly; Bishop, Pleasant Dale; Johnson, Tecumseh; Tucker, Wahoo; Loughridge, Pleasant Dale; Adams, Lincoln; Dittmar; Nebraska City; Nickell, Beatrice. Many visitors were present, including nobles from Minneapolis, St. Joseph, Omaha, Kansas City and other cities. At the banquet covers were laid for 200. H. H. Wilson acted as toast master. The following responded to toasts: Messrs. Searle, Nelson; Thomas, Omaha; Drake, Milwaukee; Field, Lincoln; Hardy and Hartman, Omaha; Richards, Hebron; Hall, Lincoln; Howard, Papillion.

Last Saturday evening Miss Eugeria Getner and Miss Anna Edgren were received into full membership in Kappa Alpha Theta sorority at the home of Miss Frances Cunningham. After the initiatory ceremonies the members of the organization repaired to the home of Miss Winnifred Hill where a sumptuous banquet was served. The banquet table was beautifully adorned with palms and flowers. Miss Edith Swartz was toast Mistress and the following toasts were responded to.

- "Welcome," Miss Ellen Douglas.
- "Response," Miss Jean Getner.
- "Our Christmas Tree" Miss Ruth Wilson.
- "The Way the Thetas Dance," Miss Frances Cunningham.
- "At a premium," Miss Jessica Morgan
- "Below Par," Miss Edith Swartz.
- "The First State," Miss Ella Wirt.
- "The Second State," Miss Emily Weeks.
- "The Third State," Mrs. Ansley

Covers were laid for the following: Mrs. Ansley, Misses Cunningham, Swartz, McMillen, Randall, Morgan, Wirt, Hill, Wilson, Harper, Jane and Jessie MacFarland, Loomis, Weeks, Wiggernhorn, Vancil, Barr, Edgren, Getner and Douglas.

Miss Hitchcock gave a very delightful party Thursday at her home in East Lincoln. The invitations were unique, being written upon corn husks, enclosed in brown paper for envelopes. The guests were warned to appear in rags, and they were a sorry looking lot of human beings as they filed in. Some were in rags and some in tags, but none were in velvet gowns. Unshaved and unshorn and in all sorts of hayseed costumes were the young men, and the young ladies wore calico and other inexpensive gowns. The evening was spent with games and a general good time. The refreshments were in keeping with the party and were thoroughly enjoyed.

Mrs. O. N. Humphrey entertained the L. A. Kensington club Monday afternoon very enjoyably. Bright cut flowers freshened the room for the occasion and the ladies spent a most happy two hours with their hostess. One of the amusing diversions of the afternoon was the blindfolded efforts of the ladies to pin tails on a paper donkey. Mrs. Patrick succeeded in pinning the tail in the right place, while some of the others were so unfortunate as to pin the tails to the nose or on some other ludicrous spot. The afternoon was brought to a happy close with daintily served refreshments. There are sixteen members in the club, but only twelve of the number were able to be present Monday and they were: Mesdames Fawell, Pitcher, Kennard, Walter Davis, Patrick, Bidmeyer, J. W. Turner, Gerhart Chapin, Van Brunt, Wilkinson and R. M. Turner.

Miss Mabel Muir entertained a jolly party of friends last Saturday afternoon. The guests were delighted with the young lady's hospitality. Those present were: Misses Funk, Jessie and Ruth MacFarland, Sela Hunt, Alice and Edna Spears, Marie Weesner, Mabel Bennet, Pauline Meyer, Zelia Cornell, Louise Hargreaves, Gladys Hargreaves, Elsie Fawell, Jessie Lansing, Margie Loomis, Jessie Outcalt, Margaret Honeywell, and Ruth Raymond.

Mrs. O. N. Humphrey entertained the Liddell card club Tuesday evening very pleasantly. Her rooms were brightened with meteor roses and other cut flowers.
