

"Our Husbands," by Mrs. W. A. Lindlay; "Our Wives," by Judge Coffin and "First Impressions," by Dr. Wharton. The responses were full of wit and good cheer and were thoroughly enjoyed. Mr. and Mrs. Whedon demonstrated that they were splendid entertainers and every one present seemed to have a good time. The members of the circle are Mesdames Bixby, Dr. and E. M. Coffin, Clark, Davis, Dorsey, Gustin, Garoutte, Geo. and Chas. Kimmell, Lindlay, E. T. and J. E. Miller, McCain, Pegler, Risser, Piper, Ransome, Slaughter, Whedon, Woodworth, Wharton, Williams, Harpham, Follmer, Manley and Marlay. The invited guests of the circle last night were: Messrs Whedon, Woodworth, Williams, Wharton, Paine, Harpham, Marlay, Bixby, E. M. and Judge Coffin, Clark, Davis, Dorsey, Gustin, Garoutte, Geo. and Chas. Kimmell, Lindlay, E. T. and J. E. Miller, McCain, Pegler, Piper, Risser, Ransome, Slaughter, Dunroy; Mr. and Mrs. Mack Miller, Mrs. Hall of Ord; Misses Lottie Margaret Whedon, Maud Risser, Mabel Lindlay, Mamie Miller, Amandie Dorsey, Maud Williams, Jennie, Helen and Elsie Piper.

About three score Wisconsin veterans enjoyed a banquet Thursday evening in the Brace block. After enjoying to the fullest extent the excellent menu prepared by the ladies of the association a program was given. C. M. Leighton, the first president of the association, gave an historical sketch of the society. Capt. J. H. Culver of Milford talked of the part Wisconsin soldiers had taken in the civil war and in the late war. Captain Russell also made a short address following in the same line of thought. Other speakers were Paul Clark, G. L. Laws and Mr. Vaughn. Mrs. C. M. Leighton presented a poem she had written for the occasion. Some excellent music was interspersed between the addresses furnished by Mr. Spangler, Mesdames Stewart and Hawley, and Masters Plumb and Johnson. The reunion of friends was most enjoyable and everyone present seem to have a good time.

Two hundred guests enjoyed a musicale at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. McMurry Thursday evening. The musicale was under the auspices of the Young Women's Foreign missionary society of St. Paul's church, and the members of the society made all arrangements. The program was thoroughly good. Every number was given hearty applause. Dr. Wharton's lecture was full of wit and good meaty things and was highly original. The program is appended:

Mandolin Duet—Gaytella Waltz, C. Johnson; Mrs. F. W. Smith and Charles Rathbone.

Vocal Duet—The Gypsies, Brahms; Lecture—Today, Original: Dr. F. L. Wharton.

Vocal Solo—Creation's Hymn, Beethoven; Mrs. D. A. Campbell.

Vocal Solo—(a.) Nightingale and the Rose, Hawley; (b.) A May Morning, Denza; Miss Maude Oakley.

Piano Solo—Spinning Wheel, Chaminate; Mrs. S. H. Rathburn.

After the music sandwiches and coffee were served. The dining room was decorated with cream colored roses and pink was the prevailing color in the hall.

Miss Mae Burr gave a delightful party Thursday night for Miss Hand of Scranton, Pa. The evening was spent with progressive caboosh, the new and jolly game of cards. The prizes were sketches of Gibson girls made by Miss Burr. Mrs. O. L. Burr obtained the first prize for the ladies and Bob Joyce that for the gentlemen. A chafing dish supper was served after the cards. American beauty roses added a charm to the room and adorned the supper table. Those present were: Misses Hand, Burnham, Burr, Putnam, Hollowbush; Messrs Butler, Joyce, Honeywell, Hurlbut and John Meadows of St. Joseph, Mo.

The members of All Souls church gave a six o'clock dinner at the church Wednesday evening followed by a reception for their new pastor, J. L. Marsh and his wife. A special table had been arranged for Mr. and Mrs. Marsh and the invited clergy of the city. The rooms were prettily decorated for the occasion and the evening was full of enjoyment. A large number of guests called to welcome the newcomers.

Delta Delta Delta, or as it is often called Tri-Delta fraternity initiated Misses Lillian Thompson and Anna Koch last Saturday night at the home of Miss Mamie Miller. A chafing dish supper followed the initiatory ceremonies which were of a nature to make the initiates feel that being taken into Greekdom was not the funniest experience imaginable. Those present to enjoy the fun of seeing the young ladies enter the fraternity and to enjoy the supper were: Mrs. Manahan, Misses Mazie Ames, Bertha DuTeil, Daisy and Winifred Bonnell, Grace Sauls, Clara Smith, Blanche and Grace Loech, Adnelle Cady, Anna Bore, Winnie Steele, Anna Koch, Lillian Thompson.

The engagement of Miss Lillian Tukey to Mr. W. G. Morrison of this city, was announced Wednesday at luncheon at the home of the bride's parents in Omaha. Miss Tukey has been the guest of Miss Mae Burr a number of times and is remembered by her Lincoln friends as a young lady of charming character and delightful manner. Mr. Morrison is well known as one of the most popular travelling men who make Lincoln their home, that it is hardly necessary to tell who he is. He has been a member of the Pleasant Hour club for several years and is one of the best known young men in the city. Always fortunate he is to be doubly congratulated in winning one of Omaha's most charming daughters.

A largely attended reception was that given last Thursday a week, by Mrs. G. H. Clark and Mrs. M. B. Reese at the home of the former on South Thirteenth street. Palms lent a tropical air to the rooms and made a beautiful setting for the reception. Those assisting in the parlors were Mesdames MacLean, Kier, Sherman and Wilson. Mesdames Ward and Mallalieu presided in the dining room with its dainty decorations of pink and white with fretted ferns as further adornment. Gowned in pink and white the Misses Kitty and Alice Cowdery, Eleanore Raymond, May Whiting and Edna Polk assisted in serving the guests. In the upper room Mrs. McMeans assisted by Misses Cochran, Risser, Rector and Griffith served ices. A mandolin orchestra played sweet music during the receiving hours while the four hundred guests thronged through the rooms.

La Veta whist club was entertained Tuesday evening by Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Lindley. During the evening Masters Gallagher, Lindley and Rainbolt gave the club a treat in the shape of some excellent mandolin music. After the whist hands had all been played a supper was served. Those who played the fascinating game were: Messrs and Mesdames C. T. and Wm. Boggs, Field, Kirker, Gillilan, Mrs. Lansing, Misses Boggs and Caffyn and Mr. Gilmore of Fairmont.

The boxes at the Oliver were nearly all filled Wednesday night by society people to see "Sowing the Wind." Miss Burnham gave a party to the following guests: Misses Hand of Scranton, Pa., Putnam, Burnham; Messrs Honeywell, Raymond and Hurlbut. Two of the boxes were occupied by the following people: Messrs and Mesdames

NEW PERCALES AND GINGHAMS.

Percales in the most attractive patterns ever produced in light, medium and dark colors are now on our counters at 8 1-3c and 12 1-2c a yard. Gingham in choice styles and colors we are showing at 10c, 15c, 20c and 25c a yard.

MILLER & PAINE

Ragan, Harrison, Kirby; Misses Ethel Pain, May Reese, Bird McCreary, Jessie Pease and Mabel Bailey. Mr. David Stevens of Kansas City, Miss Grace Walker of Plattsmouth, Mr. and Mrs. Pollard Mrs. Marian Rose and Mr. Rose occupied a box and Simon, Chas. and Miss Mayer were also seated in a box. Box D had the following occupants: Messrs O. A. and Guy Cooper, Holland, Marsh, Reavis and Linn. In box F were seated Messrs Dewitt, Olmstead, Lamb and Green.

Mrs. J. M. Lengsfeld entertained the Lindell card club Tuesday evening. Six handed euchre, the usual game of the club, was played and a luncheon was served afterwards. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Lengsfeld, Judge and Mrs. Harrison, Mesdames Underwood-Humphrey, Mauritizus, Zalin, Hershberger, Hershing and Misses Steele and Shute.

The members of the Cheese and Crackin' club were entertained Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. Ode Rector. Those present were: Mrs. A. Bartlett Horton, Miss Rinehart, Mrs. Mallalieu, Mrs. George J. Woods, Mrs. Lew Marshall, Mrs. Mohrenstecher, Mrs. C. L. Burr, Mrs. Fred Howe, Mrs. Ross Curtice, Miss Mae Burr and Miss Fay Marshall.

For Miss May Mount of Omaha, Mr. and Mrs. Lew Marshall entertained a happy company on Tuesday evening. Caboosh and a delightful impromptu program of music furnished the amusement for the evening. A chafing dish supper brought the evening to a close. The guests were Misses Mount of Omaha, Hand of Scranton, Pa., Oakley and Putnam; Messrs Honeywell, Cuscaden and Hurlbut.

Mr. E. L. Richeson's assisted by Miss Mattie Mundorf in teaching fancy steps, stage dancing, fencing, etc. Children's class, 2 to 4 o'clock, $2 for eight lessons. Richeson's Dancing academy, 141 South Twelfth street.

Mrs. Wm. Dinsley entertained the spinster girls of Miller & Paine's store Wednesday night at a taffy pull. Crokinole and cards were amusements for the evening. It was a merry party and the young people enjoyed it immensely.

Electric wiring, gas and electric fixtures and lamps a specialty. Kormeyer Plumbing and Heating Co., 215 South Eleventh street.

John Dowden, manager of the Oliver and his wife returned from Kansas City the first of the week. Mr. Dowden was successful in making arrangements for the appearance of Richard Mansfield in "Cyrano de Bergerac" in Lincoln.

The members of Maple Leaf camp No. 630 Royal Neighbors of America held instillation of officers Thursday evening at the K. P. hall. Refreshments were served and a dance followed.

Mrs. Will Redick and Mrs. Wood of Omaha, give a reception next Tuesday for Dr. and Mrs. Lee who have returned from their wedding trip.

Miss Anne Rivett, hairdressing and shampooing, moved from Burr Bldg to Emporium, 143 South Twelfth.

Mrs. E. M. Pollard wife of Representative Pollard of Nehawka, is in the city to remain during the session of the legislature.

Mrs. John Dorgan and Mrs. Alexander Wilson have gone to California where they will remain three months.

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. D. Shilling are home from Chicago where Mrs. Shilling underwent a severe surgical operation some time ago.

William Reed Dunroy has been invited to appear before the Union Study club of Chicago, to give readings from his verse.

Dentist Hill, over Miller & Paine.

Vilas P. Sheldon of Nehawka, was in the city this week to hobnob with the members of Sigma Chi.

John Stopher of Elmwood, made the members of Sigma Alpha Epsilon a visit last Sunday.

Sam McDonald has gone to Omaha to remain for two weeks during examination week at the university.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon will give a dancing party at Turpin's dancing academy Friday January 27th.

George Childers left this week for New York where he will remain for two weeks.

Miss Grace Walker of Plattsmouth visiting friends in Lincoln.

Judge Davidson of Tecumseh is in the city. He will leave in a few days for Jacksonville, Fla.

A. R. Edmisten came down from Omaha this week for a short visit.

L. O. Jones returned from Chicago Wednesday.

H. E. Weidman of Plattsmouth, was in the city the first of the week.

Mrs. C. E. Aeams of Superior, was the guest of Mrs. Gage this week.

A. E. Harvey is in Washington, D. C., on legal business.

The latest thing out, that new coke for the furnace at Gregory's, cheap and clean, 1044 O street. Phone 848.