

jolly good time. Invitations were sent to all the different fraternities and a number from each one responded with the result that a very nice dance was enjoyed by all.

Mr. Burton W. Wilson arrived in the city last Sunday to attend the funeral of his father, Mr. Don A. Wilson. Mr. Wilson is attending Columbia university at Washington, D. C. He is a graduate of the State university, and is a member of the Phi Kappa Psi fraternity. He will remain in the city for some time on account of the illness of his mother.

A party was given Tuesday evening at the home of Miss Daisy Skinner at 31st and Fair streets. The gathering was for Mr. Blanchard who will soon remove with his parents to Macksburg, Ia. The evening was spent with games and refreshments. Those present were: Misses Daisy and Jessie Skinner, Nora and Rhoda Bancroft, Graham, Forburger, Elliott, Dowd, Johnson; Messrs. Kemble, Blanchard, Cosner, Witmer, Badgely, Murphy, Irving and Victor Skinner.

Mr. Robert Burdette, the famous humorous lecturer was the guest of the members of the Phi Kappa Psi fraternity at their house on G street, Thursday evening after the lecture at the Funke. Mr. Burdette is a member of the fraternity and he was welcomed heartily by the members of the local chapter. He entertained the men with some bright stories and the evening was one of enjoyment to all. Senator F. M. Currie and Rev. W. H. Manss, members of the fraternity were present.

Rev. Lewis Gregory arrived in the city Thursday, after an absence since last May in eastern cities. Mr. and Mrs. Gregory will make their home in this city it is understood, and the fact is good news to a large circle of friends. Mr. Gregory resided in Lincoln for many years and was identified with the growth of the city. His long connection with the First Congregational church has made him well known throughout the city and state.

Mrs. Elizabeth Hawley Bowen was married to Mr. Francis D. Everett of Chicago, Thursday afternoon at the residence of Mr. W. C. Hawley. The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. A. Pfanstiehl of Chicago. Mrs. Bowen is a well known educator, having been superintendent of the public schools at Highland Park near Chicago. Mr. Everett is a business man of Chicago and resides in a beautiful home in the suburbs on the north side. Mr. and Mrs. Everett have gone on a wedding tour that will comprise a trip west to the coast, south to Florida, and then return to Chicago to reside.

Messrs. Edward and Fritz Funke entertained a jolly company of young people last night at their home. It was called a "poverty party," and no end of fun was occasioned by some of the costumes worn. The rag-bags had been ransacked and every one appeared in strange costumes. The evening was spent with games and refreshments in keeping with the party were not the least enjoyable part of the evening's enjoyment. The young men demonstrated that they were very good entertainers.

The patrons of the Bryan school were treated to a nice reception on Tuesday afternoon, by the teachers of the building. About 150 guests enjoyed a good program and refreshments. Misses Raymond and Trigg gave some pretty vocal solos, and Prof. Luckey of the university gave a lecture on "Home as a Teacher." Mr. Martin sang a tenor solo and the program was closed with a talk by Prof. Saylor on phases of school work.

The members of the Nebraska Folk Lore society had a happy meeting on Wednesday evening at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Edgren, at 1448 Q street. Dr.

Edgren was on the program for a metamorphosis of an eastern tale, "King Robert of Sicily," and Mr. Randolph gave a reading from Joel Chandler Harris to illustrate the folk lore of Georgia. There was music also and every one had a good time.

Miss Helena Redford, a well known teacher of this city, has been selected by the school board of Wymore, to take the place made vacant by the resignation of Mr. E. D. Banghart, also well known in Lincoln. Miss Redford will leave soon to take up her duties. Mr. Banghart has gone to Crete to take a good position in the schools there.

Miss Helen Gregory who has been in New York for the past year or so taking studies in a prominent institution, has returned to this city and will make her home with her brother, Mr. Charles B. Gregory. Miss Gregory is well known in Lincoln society, and her return will be hailed with delight by a large number of friends.

J. H. Miller has returned from Columbus, O., where he attended a division of the National Educational association. He met President James H. Canfield while he was away and reports that Mrs. Canfield and her daughter Dorothy are preparing to spend a year or so in Europe.

Quite a number of out of town people attended the Sousa concert at the Oliver last Friday night. Among them were: Mrs. C. S. Sherman of Crete, Mr. Harry B. Groves of Plattsmouth, Messrs. J. J. Thomas and Goreke of Seward.

Mayor Ensor of South Omaha, was in the city a part of the week. He came here to attend the sessions of the legislature and endeavor to defeat the bill that proposes to annex South Omaha to her larger sister on the north.

The news from the Philippines concerning Lieutenant Burt Whedon's convalescence is very encouraging. The shot he received was in the fleshy part of the thigh and as he is of strong physique, the wound is healing rapidly.

Mr. Moses L. Scudder arrived from

New York on Friday. Mr. Scudder has made many friends here who are anxious to secure a copy of a novel he wrote several years ago, but they have been persistently thwarted by the author.

Mr. Wm. J. Bryan has returned from the east where he has been gone for some time. He attended several very important political gatherings while he was away, and was the guest of honor at several banquets where he made speeches.

The members of Mr. Hagenow's string quartet arrived in Lincoln the first of the week from a trip through South Dakota and Nebraska, where they gave very successful concerts.

Mr. Bert Langworthy of Seward, was the guest of the members of Sigma Chi fraternity last Sunday. He is a graduate of the State university and is now in his father's bank at Seward.

Miss Lissa Squires came down from Seward last Saturday to attend the graduation exercises of the Lincoln business college.

Mr. H. E. Gingery, has resigned his position, and will go to Valparaiso soon to engage in business. Mr. Gingery has a host of friends who are averse to his leaving the city.

Mrs. H. Percy Silver is visiting her mother, Mrs. Sewall. Mr. and Mrs. Silver will make their home in Omaha, where Mr. Silver has been called to the rectorship of the church of the Good Shepherd.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Ferris have removed to Ashland, where Mr. Ferris will occupy the pulpit in the Baptist church. Mr. and Mrs. Ferris have been diligent workers in the First Baptist church of this city and their removal will be felt severely.

Mayor Ensor of South Omaha headed a delegation of prominent business men this week and came to Lincoln to protest against legislation that has in view the consolidation of South Omaha with Omaha.

The members of the Palladian and Union literary societies of the state university enjoyed jolly sleigh rides Tuesday evening. About twenty-five young people were in each party and the evening was full of enjoyment to all.

Mr. E. L. Richeson is assisted by Miss Mattie Mundorf in teaching fancy steps, stage dancing, fencing, etc. Children's class, 2 to 4 o'clock, $2 for eight lessons. Richeson's dancing academy, 141 South Twelfth street.

The young ladies of the Union literary society will entertain the young ladies of the Palladian and Delian societies this afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. H. Wilson.

Miss Helen Harwood has returned from Chicago where she has been visiting for some time.

Mr. Lynn Carson who has been ill at the Lincoln with typhoid fever is recovering and will soon be able to be out.

Mrs. I. S. P. Weeks has issued invitations for a reception for Mrs. Marsh, wife of the new Unitarian minister, for this afternoon.

Mr. Burr Latta left Tuesday for his home in Tekamah, where he will visit for a few days.

Lieut. Townley left Tuesday noon for New York after spending a week with friends in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Maggi will leave for the east soon to make a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Miller have returned from a visit of a month's duration on the Pacific coast.

Mrs. Margaret L. Sabin has gone to Chicago to remain for a short time.

Mrs. S. M. Walker, State president of the W. C. T. U., is quite ill.

Dentist Hill, over Miller & Paine.

The members of Alpha Theta Chi fraternity have issued invitations for a dance this evening at Walsh's hall. It is to be an informal affair.

Will Hayward came up from Nebraska City Wednesday and spent the day and evening in the city.

Mathew Gering, the well known at-

Herpolshheimer & Co.

Herpolshheimer & Co.

The Great Disolution Sale

Begins Here Monday March 6th

Owing to a dissolution of partnership in the firm it is necessary for us to raise a large sum of money at once. To do this speedily and successfully we have inaugurated a

DISSOLUTION SALE

This is not an ordinary special sale but a event instituted for a purpose—for the purpose of TURNING MERCHANDISE INTO CASH WITH ALL POSSIBLE SPEED. It is therefore unnecessary to say that profit is not considered, that regular price is not considered, nor that anything but the fact that we want a very large sum of money in a very short space of time is taken into consideration. Every department is represented and every line of merchandise has been subjected to an unmerciful sacrifice.

Watch papers for further announcements.

Herpolshheimer & Co.