

blue and gold. A diamond, folded in the center, to form the "Delta" of the initial letters of the fraternity, with a letter U in gold, formed the covers of the menu. Clinton Barr was toastmaster and he called upon the members in turn to respond to informal toasts. The evening was one of extreme enjoyment to all present. A silver loving cup was one of the decorations and was passed from hand to hand in good fellowship.

The Sunday World-Herald contained the following item concerning the wedding of Miss Mae Bartlett, a cousin of Miss Alice Righter of this city:

Monday afternoon the wedding was celebrated of Miss Mae L. Vere Bartlett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Bartlett, to Mr. Charles L. Dundy, the Rev. T. S. Mackay officiating. The interesting ceremony was witnessed by the immediate relatives and a few intimate friends. A unique feature of the event was that the bride was arrayed in her mother's wedding costume—a gown of handsome design, with red and orange blossoms. The bride is a graduate of the Omaha high school. She is popular in society circles, and has been very active in charitable work in the Sunday schools. The groom is a nephew of the late Judge Dundy. He is a graduate of the high school at Nauvoo, Ill., and of the Ann Arbor law school, class of '91. He was the youngest man that ever graduated from that law school, and the supreme courts of Michigan and Illinois set aside the age limit in his case in order to admit him to practice. In addition to his other accomplishments, he is quite a finished musician, and is well versed in literature. Mr. and Mrs. Dundy will spend their honeymoon on the Pacific coast, intending to be absent about a month.

A successful card party was given on Friday evening by Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Gerhart and Mr. and Mrs. I. G. Chapin. The score cards were cut in the shape of diamonds, hearts, spades and clubs. In addition to the customary rules for six handed euchre, the following original ones were given:

Trumps—Hobson's choice.
If you get euchred don't beef (embalmed.)
Signal to your partners on the "Schley."

The Maine object is to win, but don't blow up your partner if you Luzon a hand.

It's a Cervera thing to trump your partner's ace.

A lone hand is a Terror, but play it if you Havana.

In playing a Lone Hand don't expect your partner to take any tricks.

Those invited were: Messrs. and Mesdames Laws, Turner and Turner, Billmeyer, Preston, Jones, Clark, Armstrong, Humphrey, Foster, Kennard, Davis and Davis, Crandall, Hutchins, Fawell, Aitken, Van Brunt, Robinette, Campbell, Hardy, Garoutte, Everett, Hayes, Rudge, Seacrest and Gibbs; Mesdames Pitcher, Thompson and Cook of Chicago; Dr. and Mrs. Hill, Dr. and Mrs. Wilkinson, Dr. and Mrs. Casebeer; Misses Tibbetts, Hayes, LaSalle, Chapin of Crete and Davies of Utica; Messrs. Larimer, Kennard and Hayes.

Chancellor and Mrs. MacLean gave on English tea Wednesday from 5 to 6 o'clock in honor of Dr. and Mrs. John Watson. The parlors and dining room were beautified with spring blossoms, principally jonquils and resurrection lillies. Those invited to meet these distinguished guests were the heads of departments in the university and their wives. Governor and Mrs. Poynter, the regents of the university who are in the city and their wives, Major and Mrs. Pound, Dr. and Mrs. Hindman, Dr. and Mrs. Wharton, Rev. and Mrs. Manas, Miss Allen sister of Mrs. Manas, Dr. and Mrs. Rowlands, Dr. and Mrs. Gregory, Dr. and Mrs. Marsh, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Gere, Dr. Lowry, Mrs. Will Owen Jones, Mrs. Taylor, sister-in-law of Mrs. MacLean, and Mrs. Briggs, mother of Mrs. Taylor. Tea was poured by Mrs. Taylor.

Mrs. Al Hood, assisted by Mrs. H. M. Scott, gave the first of a series of parties Friday evening, March 24th. The rooms were beautifully decorated with palms and potted plants. The evening was spent in progressive cards and other games. The royal prizes were carried off by Mrs. James Martin and Mr. Eugene Harding. After a sumptuous menu of six courses the guests departed, giving the hostesses many thanks for her hospitality. The invited guests were: Messrs. and Mesdames Scott, Reynolds, Towne, Carter, Hood, Slade, Box, Safford, Martin, Parks, Hammond, Morris, Welch, White, Harding; Misses Kelly, Hindman, McPherson; Messrs. Parks, Chevront, Koontz, Hood and Towner.

Several notably pleasant events in the social world occurred on Friday and Saturday of last week. On Friday evening Miss Cochrane entertained the alumni and active chapters of Delta Gamma in compliment to Mrs. A. L. Sherman, the new honorary member of that fraternity. Those present were: Mesdames Woods, Lottridge and Silver; Misses Harwood, Mullen, Rice, Polk, Gregory, Dewese, Wing and Wing, Righter, Welch, Loring, Watkins, Tukey, Cole, Jaynes, Johnson, Macomber and Macomber, Bridge and Bridge, Mulliken, McMenemy, Davis, Woods, Haecker, Lewis, Prentis, Webster, Miner and Fuller.

The many Lincoln friends of Dr. and Mrs. Curtis will be glad to know they are in excellent health. Miss Bessie Curtis who was not a very strong little girl has developed a strong physique and is a very beautiful young lady just finishing the high school. The Doctor has found that the Chicago climate is beneficial to his health and Mrs. Curtis seems very well indeed. Mrs. John R. Clark and Miss Clark, who are very much missed by their Lincoln friends are well and intend spending the summer on the Atlantic coast.

The Tuesday club met one Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. E. Morse. The time was devoted to the making of aprons to be disposed of at a sale late this spring. Light refreshments were served. Those present were: Mesdames Marple, Burnstead, Baldwin, Cooper, Bishop, Fletcher, Flansburg, Garoutte, Laffin, Perkins, Stevenson, Stout, Snyder, Longstreet, Hutchins, Wilson and Wilson and Ripley of Hastings.

The following persons attended the weekly dance given the patients at the hospital for the insane on Tuesday evening: Senator and Mrs. Morgan, Senator and Mrs. Fowler, Representative and Mrs. Morrison, Representative Peck, Mr. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. White of Sioux City, Mr. and Mrs. Haynie, Mrs. Burnham and nieces, Miss Ruth Bryan, Dr. Booth and Dr. Davis of Fremont.

The Y. P. S. C. E. of the First Presbyterian church gave a shingle party Tuesday evening at the home of Miss Carrie Reed, 1201 E street. A guessing game written upon shingles contributed to the pleasure of the company. Ices were served by Mrs. W. M. Hindman. Forty five young people were present.

Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Waugh entertained La Veta whist club on Tuesday evening. Chicago whist was played and light refreshments were served. The players were Messrs. and Mesdames Kirker, Boggs and Boggs, Weir, Hallett, Davis, Lansing, Judge Field; Misses Boggs and Caffyn.

Easter Millinery

Many new and beautiful hats have arrived since the formal opening day and are now displayed on our counters. We won't attempt to describe them but ask you to come and see them. This will do more than anything we could say here to convince you that more correct styles, more dainty richness or more real beauty in millinery are not to be found anywhere.

Violets upward from 3c a bunch; roses upward from 9c a bunch, lilacs upward from 19c a bunch, foliage upward from 25c a bunch, ribbons and fancy trimmings of all kinds, handsome line of children's trimmed and uatrimmed hats.

Easter Gloves

All the dainty shades that will be popular this spring are included in all the grades of gloves we carry and we carry none but reliable grades and makes. The glove we offer for $1 this season is without exception the best value we have ever offered for that price. Then for $1.25 we have a value that has never brought less than $1.50, and at $1.50 we show a line superior to any $1.50 glove we have ever seen.

Herpolshheimer Co.

Mrs. Jane L. Creighton of Washington, D. C., president general of the White Cross society, and Mrs. Laura Schwichtenberg, hospital inspector, are in the city, guests of Mrs. A. F. Newman, 1724 L street. They sail for Manila on the steamship Arizona, April 15th, from San Francisco. The ladies will be at home to callers at Mrs. Newman's on Thursday, Friday and Saturday afternoons and on Thursday and Friday evenings.

On Wednesday, Lieutenant Halsey Yates, Messrs. McCreery and Sherman went to Omaha to attend a theatre party given by Mr. Paul Hoagland, at the performance of "The Meddler," by Stuart Robson. The ladies of the party were: Misses Cole, Jackson, Tukey and Tukey, all well known in university circles here. After the play, a luncheon was given to the party by Dr. and Mrs. Summers at the Omaha club.

Tuesday evening will long be remembered by the clerks in Miller & Paine's dress goods department, as one of the pleasant resting places in their lives, and for this they are indebted to Mr. and Mrs. Guy Hale, who entertained them at a sumptuous dinner on that evening. Carnations and smilax were used for table decoration. After dinner music and recitations were enjoyed until a late hour.

Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Franklin gave a picture party Saturday night at 913 H street. About forty American history students were present. Prof. Caldwell gave a talk on "Reminiscences of Harvard." Mrs. Caldwell and Miss Parker assisted the hostess in receiving. Miss Lillie Yont and Miss Jean Hamilton served chocolate and frappe.

The Q. A. T. club met on Monday evening at the home of Miss Alta Wilson. Miss Marie Raphael was initiated into full membership. A lovely luncheon was served by the hostess. Those present were: Misses Raphael, Howland, Watson, Shaffer, Leese, Anthony, McGreer, Wilson, Erford and Erford.

Chancellor and Mrs. MacLean entertained Dr. and Mrs. John Watson and Major and Mrs. Pond at dinner on Wednesday evening. The Chancellor and Dr. Watson are old friends and both were delighted with the opportunity of meeting once again.

Mrs. Thomas Marland gave a one o'clock luncheon on Wednesday for Mrs. C. M. Sheldon of Holdrege. The table was decorated with scarlet and cream carnations. Mrs. Marland's guests were: Mesdames Sheldon, Perkins, Yates, Welch, Scott, Brown and Miss Young.

Miss Cowdery entertained at cards on Monday afternoon in honor of Miss Collins, who is in Lincoln visiting her sister of the state library. The players were: Mesdames Coffroth, Ewing, Thomas and Howe; Misses Collins, Hollowbush, Griffith and Harrison.

The marriage of Miss Frances Rector daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Rector, to Mr. Elmer C. Merrill, will be solemnized Wednesday evening April 5th, at the home of the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Joerger, 1934 R street, entertained the Owl club pleasantly on Friday evening, and the same evening was chosen by Mr. and Mrs. Al Hood for a card party which was pronounced a success by their guests.

Mrs. E. H. Barbour will entertain Sorosis this afternoon at a chestnut party. Each guest will tell a story. The one telling the oldest chestnut will receive a prize.

Miss Marguerite Winger will give a large card party on Friday evening.

Misses Ellen and Frances Gere and