MRS. CLEMENT.

THE THEATRE

Mr. Clement depends for effect on no formal appeal but employs methods that are individual; at the same time, they are convincing and instinctively appeal to the finer sentiment of his audience. "A Southern Gentleman" leaves a genuine pleasing impression for the gentle feeling that prevades it. It is presented in a prologue and three acts. The capable company supporting him comprises many who have been with him previously, including Karra Kenwyn, who has emerged from the retirement of her stage name and is billed as Mrs. Clay Clement; Miss Nell McEwan, Thomas F. O'Malley, Jeffery D. Williams, Miss Lucille La Verno and Oscar Norfleet. The new members are: H. S. Duffield in the role of Judge Fluhearty; Charles Mason as Phillip Durand; Miss Phoebe McAllister as Madame Sterling and W. B. Mack as Hal Hartwell.

At the Oliver tonight. Prices 25c, 50c, 75c and $1.00. Seats now on sale.

Charles H. Yale's "Forever Devil's Auction," plays an engagement of one night, Wednesday, April 5th, at the Oliver theatre. The dramatic cast, specialties, premiere dancers, pantomimists, etc., are new, with but few old faces Madge Torrence is the Fairy Protectress. The old favorites are Miss Mayme Mayo, Mildred Holden, W. H. Lorella, and Eddie Snow. Three new ballet divertissements, arranged by Signor V. Romeo, maitre de ballet, "The Feast of the Mandarin," "The Festival Fantastique," and for the third act an absolute novelty, "Les Dances de Sousa," which depict in pantomime dance and the successes of the "March King," "El Capitán," "King Cotton," "Unchain the Dogs of War," and the "Stars and Stripes Forever." The Corps de Ballet consists of a large group of young, pretty and graceful coryphees. Prices 25c, 50c, 75c and $1. Seats on sale Monday morning at 9 a. m.

It is seldom that Managers Crawford and Zehrunge make such an offering to the public as they give on Thursday in the cast. Among notable new members are Ben F. Grinnell, a most unctuous comedian, singer and nimble dancer, will make his boy as "Toby," the transformed donkey. Miss Sadie Lapheus, a clever impersonator of boys parts and who possesses a phenomenal contralto voice, appears as "Carlos," the dashing hero of the spectacle. Miss Ella Gardiner appears for the first time as the persecuted heroine "Madeline." Miss

April 6th, to the people of Lincoln, when Roland Reed, Miss Isadore Rush and Reed's excellent company will appear in Reed's new and latest success by Sidney Rosenfeld, "His Father's Boy." In his new play Mr. Reed has made the hit of his life, teeming with rich and interesting dilemmas. A devoted husband, a colossal liar, and a general all around sport, give him a great chance. To all the other members of the company are entrusted strong parts. Chief among the talented company, is the charming Isadore Rush. Prices 25c, 50c, 75c, $1.00 and $1.50. Seats on sale Tuesday morning, 9 a. m.

Flint, the marvelous Hypnotist who comes to the Funke opera house next week, commencing Monday April 3rd, is this season giving many new scenes never before seen in this city. Fun and fun only can be seen during the week and enough to last until he comes back
