MILLER & PAINE

Social and Personal

On Friday and Saturday, the closing days of the Lenten season, many small and informal compacies were given, and Easter week has been filled with pleasant events both great and small. Music, heavenly Maid, has had her share of attention. Mrs. Jones' piano recital on Tuesday evening was such a feast as is rarely given to Lincolnites, and the twilight musicale given on Wednesday evening by Mrs. Lambertson and Mrs. Campbell was a delight to the eye as well as to the ear, for Mrs. Lambertson's home was made more than usually beautiful by the decorations, and the music was divine. There was music, exquisite music too, at the reception given by the Art department at Mrs. Hall's, and the reception was an artistic success. The Merrill-Rector wedding was beautiful, the bride lovely. The Phi Kappa Psi party at the Lincoln on Wednesday evening was a brilliant affair as was the closing party given Friday evening by the Cotillion club. So all in all, Easter week has been filled with social successes which augurs well for the past Lenten season.

PHI KAPPA PSI CONVENTION.

The district convention of Phi Kappa Psi in session here this week, has been of interest to fraternity people. Two business meetings were held on Wednesday, and two on Thursday, presided over by Mr. George Shedd, who is also Archon of the district. The delegates to the convention were Messrs. Frank Sumner Porter, C. D. Luse, L. Page Jr., of the university of Minnesota; Smith of the university of Wisconsin; R. W. Childs and Lansing of Beloit college; Woods of the university of Kansas; White and Flynn of the Iowa university; Bauer of Leland Stanford; Bert Christie, Bert Wilson and A. L. Haecker of the university of Nebraska.

Alumni members of Nebraska Alpha chapters who were visitors were: Messrs. H. L. Kimball of Wayne, C. S. Norton and A. E. Wiggenhorn of Ashland, Carl Fricke of Plattsmouth, Frank Brown of Omaha, Rudolphus Strassman of Chicago, Bert Wilson of Columbia university, Edward C. Elliott of Leadville and C. L. Spencer of Dakota City.

During the convention the fraternity was generously remembered by lady friends and by the sororities. There are five districts of Phi Kappa Psi in the United States and all of the conventions are in session at the same time. This is the fifth district and is the largest in area of the five, extending from lake Michigan west to the Pacific coast.

Nebraska Alpha chapter of Phi Kappa Psi gave its annual cotillion on Wednesday evening at the Lincoln hotel. Elaborate decorations, beautiful costuming, careful attention to detail in the arrangements, and good music, combined to make this one of the prettiest and most brilliant fraternity affairs of the season. The dancing hall was gay with American and Phi Kappa Psi colors in flags and bunting. The ordinary where the luncheon was served, was beautiful with delicate ferns and glowing meteor roses. Miss Blanche Hargreaves and Mr. Harry Shedd led the dancers through a series of intricate and pretty figures. Those present were:

Misses Raymond, Jaynes, Robinson, Bonnell, Lehmer, Lehmer, Bridge, McMenemy, Welch, Cunningham, Robinson, Hammond, Macomber, Macomber, Wetzel, La Selle, Jackson, Andrews, Weeks, Hayes, Gere, Winger, Burnham, Gere, Macfarland, Thompson, Wiggenhorn, Polk, Vancil, Millar, Sedgwick, Lansing, Wood, Crandall, Fricke, Garten, Woods, Allen of Dixon, Ill., Turkey, Douglas, Deweese, Hargreaves, Haecker, Woods, Webster and Holbrook. Members of chapter were: Messrs. Kormeyer, Reed, Fricke, Collett, Shedd, Clarke, Christie, Brown, Shedd, Haecker, Hartt, Chapin, Weeks, Pearse, Kormeyer, Lehmer, Reed, Manchester, Cuscaden, Campbell, Hayes, Richards, Crandall, Benedict, Engel, Deweese, Kimball, Williams, Norton, Barber and Wiggenhorn. Visiting delegates were: Messrs. Childs, Porter, Luse, Page, Smith, Flynn, White, Bauer, Green, Hamilton and Wood. The invited guests were: Chancellor and Mrs. MacLean, Dr. and Mrs. Ladd; Messrs. and Meedames Gere, Burnham, Imhoff, Deweese, Oberlies, Campbell, Clark, Weeks, Hayes, Lansing and Mrs. Tuttle.

The district convention banquet of Phi Kappa Psi was given at the Lincoln Thursday night. Covers were laid for sixty members of the local chapter and visiting delegates.

Wednesday evening at seven o'clock occurred the marriage of Miss Frances Mae Rector, to Mr. Elmer Calvin Merrill at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Rector. Rev. Eason, rector of Holy Trinity church officiated using the full Episcopal service. The ceremony was performed in an alcove draped with curtains of smilax and pink carnations and banked with palms. The bride wore a gown of white organdie over white silk and carried a white prayer book and a bouquet of bride's roses. The bridal march from Lohengrin was played by Miss Bernice Merrill. After the ceremony the bride and groom received congratulations in the parlors upstairs. A supper was served to the bridal party and the families of the bride and groom from the dining table which was draped with smilax and pink carnations and to the other guests on four round tables in the parlors. The bride's bouquet tossed from the stairs as she descended to the carriage, was caught by Miss Jessie Leland. Mr. and Mrs. Merrill left at eleven o'clock for a visit to St. Louis, Cincinnati and Chicago. They will reside at 1212 K street. Guests from out of town who attended the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Ray Merrill of Omaha, and Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Hickey of St. Joseph.

The "twilight musicale" given on Wednesday by Mrs. G. M. Lambertson and Mrs. D. A. Campbell at the home of the former, was a pretty idea successfully carried out. Much of the music was tender and caressing, appropriate for the gloaming. The subdued light from a red shaded lamp standing by the grand piano gave a sunset glow to the hall. The parlors were not lighted except by the light that found its way through the drawn curtains. Mrs. Lambertson received
