

roth, Buckstaff, Irvine, Leonard, Funke, Tilton, Thompson.

Trio—Romance..... Marschener
(For piano, cello and violin.)

May Belle Hagenow, Miss Eiche, Charles Hagenow.

"To Thee"..... Guy d'Ardelot

"Autumn Sadness"..... Nevin

"Hearts' Springtime"..... Wichede
Mrs. Marion Treat Taylor.

Violin Solos—

Adagio Elegique..... Wieniawski

Am Springbrum..... David Charles Hagenow.

"Like as the Heart Desirath"..... Allitson

(cello obligato by Miss Eiche.)
Mrs. Marion Treat Taylor.

Clarinet Solo—

Romantic Air Varié..... Thornton
Harry Wells.

Accompanist, May Belle Hagenow.

This program was rendered at the home of Mrs. Oliver Rogers on Thursday evening under the direction of the women's association of the First Congregational church. The guests were received by Mrs. Rodgers, Mrs. Manss and Miss Kingsley. The program was very enjoyable. The soloist was Mrs. Marion Treat Taylor, whose strong, sweet, well-trained voice always gives great pleasure to listeners. Mr. Charles Hagenow, who is a consummate musician, was very pleasing. The clarinet numbers by Mr. Harry Wells received a vociferous encore. Miss Eiche, Miss Hagenow and Mr. Hagenow offered a charming trio of cello, piano and violin. After the music coffee and cakes were served in the dining room.

The annual promenade given by the seniors of the State university occurred last night at the Lincoln hotel and a brilliant affair it was. The parlors, dancing hall, corridors and ordinary were festooned with scarlet and cream bunting and the class colors, black and gold. Palms were scattered here and there and the pillars in the corridors and the various mantels were entwined with smilax. Hagenow's orchestra furnished inspiring music for the fifty couples of dancers. Full dress was the rule and the scene was a very pretty one. Ices were served in the ordinary. The committee which planned and carried to a successful termination this pretty party consisted of Misses Gere, Bridge, Randall and Cook; Messrs. Harmon, Kind, Clark, McCreery, Rain and Landis. The chaperons were: Chancellor and Mrs. MacLean, Prof. and Mrs. Barbour, and Prof. and Mrs. Richards.

Miss Alice Rodgers, Masters Selden Rodgers and John Shepard will entertain a company of young friends this afternoon from five until eight o'clock. A supper will be served. Invitations have been extended to Harry Hargreaves, Paul Campbell, Barton Green, Marion Ogden, Gracia Green, Ira Lee, Charley Sawyer, Catherine Lee, John Burket, Ethel Burket, Edith Doty, Earl Foster, Marie Talbot, Lawrence Tipling, Newton Campbell, Willard Kimball, Herbert Barber, Jean Bignell, Helen Mitchell, Eleanor Barbour, Silence Stewart, Blossom Wilson, Grace White, Grace Carter, Nellie Kitchen, Katherine Kimball, Dorance Harwood, Edna Baker, Ruth Bryan, William Bryan, Willie Hindman, Francis Stein, Arthur Clark, Claire Funke, Annie Jones, Juliet Rathbone, Richard Imhoff, Alva Clark, Chester Parks, Florence Parks, Laura Leavitt, Ethel Bignell, Alice Upton, Tom Ewing and Vera Bighell.

Mrs. Charles T. Neal gave a Chinese card party last Friday evening. The game was fan-tan at which Mrs. Rankins and Mr. Folsom were the winners. Chinese relics and ornaments in profusion were to be seen, and lanterns were used for illumination. Ice cream in the form of Chinese men were served. Those present were: Messrs. and Mes-

James Dann, Rankins, Folsom, Seacrest, Hebbard, Rudge and Benjamin; Messrs. Folsom and Neal.

The Gridiron club of Washington, D. C., on April 8 gave an entertainment for women which was picturesque. The members of the club have made their reputation in unique dinner giving, and on this evening they gave a reception to a large number of guests different from the usual character of such affairs.

About 175 men and women assembled at the Arlington hotel parlors, and after being received by the president of the club and his wife, were ushered into the large banquet hall, which had been transformed into a most beautiful miniature forest, illuminated by thousands of electric lights of different colors.

There were trees of large dimensions, and every chandelier was an overhanging branch. These were filled with laurel and green vines. Amid the branches of the trees were many birds, so naturally arranged as to make the illusion complete. About the sides of the room were ranged palms and ferns and potted flowers. In the windows were aquariums with live fish and water fowl. The room being entirely surrounded with mirrors, everything was seen in reflection, creating the impression of a forest most brilliantly lighted.

As soon as the guests were seated an entertainment began, containing a number of musical numbers and vaudeville selections. At the end of this part of the program President Boynton announced with much regret that by some oversight no refreshments had been prepared. This was received with bitter complaint from several members, who insisted that General Boynton's connection with the army had made him forgetful of the duty to the commissary department. In the midst of the discussion one of the members of the club rushed to a telephone hanging in the woods and rang for the good fairy Gridironers, who appeared with magic wand and promised to remedy the difficulty. The fairy was one of the largest members of the club, arrayed in a suitable fairy costume, and his appearance created a great deal of mirth. One wave of the fairy scepter produced a number of cooks with necessary tables and supplies, and one end of the hall was soon transformed into a refreshment bower, where an elegant repast was served.

During the evening woman's suffrage was given a test. Each woman voting received a beautiful souvenir.

Among the guests present were: The speaker and Miss Reed, Admiral and Mrs. Schley, General H. C. Corbin, former Senator and Mrs. Gorman, Mrs. Frank Hatton, Rev. and Mrs. Radcliffe, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Fuller, Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Noyes, Controller and Mrs. Dawes, Patent Commissioner and Mrs. Duell, and the Misses Key of Chattanooga, Tenn.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Scott invited about twenty-five intimate friends to witness the christening of their little son, William Adrian, last Sabbath afternoon. The ceremony was performed by Dr. W. M. Hindman and was pretty and impressive. Judge Walter Leese sang "My Mother's Lullaby," an original composition.

A pleasant little dancing party chaperoned by Mrs. George Crancer was given Saturday night at the Phi Gamma Delta chapter house on Thirteenth and H streets. Those present were: Misses Andrews, West, Sedgwick, Wetzel, Holbrook and Winger; Messrs. Mudge, Rose, Harver, Sanders, Pancoast and Mudge.

Professor and Mrs. Barbour entertained at whist on Monday evening. After cards a luncheon was served. Those present were Messrs. and Mesdames Mitchell, Hohn, Munger, Harley,

MILLINERY--The New

York patterns and our own creations combine to form a display of fashionable head wear such as even the most conservative people have admitted to be the richest, daintiest and at the same time most modestly priced array shown here for many years. Every hat and bonnet in the house bears that stamp of style, that superior finish and that excellence of taste found only in high class millinery. That tone of elegance so indispensable to a la mode dresser is decidedly predominant throughout the department.

The prices of trimmed hats range 75c, $1.00, $1.25, $1.50, $1.75, 15.00 and upward to $18.00.

Herpolshheimer & Co.

Hardy, Le Gore, Holyoke, Hinman, Ward, Spencer, Stevens, Bailey, Fling, Kimball, E. L. Holyoke and Richardson.

The annual meeting of the New Book Review club was held Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Rudolph Rehsander. The following officers for the ensuing year were elected: President, Mrs. O. M. Stonebraker; vice president, Mrs. Penny; secretary and treasurer, Mrs. F. W. Bartruff.

The Round Table met Monday night with Mr. J. G. Morrison, 1631 F street. The subject discussed was "The Consent of the Governed as Applied to Our Recent Possessions." F. M. Hall was the leader for the evening. After the discussion Mrs. Morrison served a luncheon on round tables.

One of the most charming numbers was Mr. Steindel's solo. He is first soloist of the Thomas orchestra, and in sustaining his own also sustained the reputation of the combination of which he is the bright particular star.—Chicago Inter Ocean. Mr. Steindel will appear at the Matinee Musicale festival May 1.

Married, at the home of the bride's parent's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Bing, 1543 South Twenty-second street on Wednesday evening, April 19, Miss S. Emma Bing to Mr. J. H. Cheney, Dr. John Doane performing the ceremony. The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Cheney are glad to know they intend to reside in Lincoln.

An interesting open air concert, the first of the season was given on the campus last night, by the university band under the leadership of Mr. Earl Wehn. During the concert the Pershing rifles gave a drill on the foot ball ground and at its close they were the guests at the Phi Kappa Psi chapter house of Mr. Orlo Brown.

At seven o'clock last evening some members of Phi Delta Theta gave a dinner at the Lincoln hotel. The following were present: Prof. and Mrs. Barbour; Misses Burnham, Tukey, Cole, Welch, Cunningham and Hayes; Messrs. Raymond, McCreery, Sumner, Tukey, Sherman and Abbott.

The Art club met at Miss Dolan's studio Tuesday. A prize was offered for the best original story, subject to be taken from the title of a famous painting. Miss Hogan's story of "Alone" from a painting by Vosburg was awarded first prize, an oil painting of St. John.

The Lincoln Light infantry gave a successful dancing party at the armory on Tenth street Wednesday evening. Twenty-five couples were present. Refreshments were served.

The young ladies of the senior class of the university will entertain the Faculty Woman's club this afternoon at the young women's parlor in university hall. A symposium on the university women was given.

Mr. E. L. Richeson is assisted by Miss Mattie Mundorf in teaching fancy steps, stage dancing, fencing, etc. Children's class, 2 to 4 o'clock, $2 for eight lessons. Richeson's dancing academy, 141 South Twelfth street.

Mrs. F. G. Richardson of Chicago, is the guest of Mrs. E. H. Barbour. Mrs. Richardson lived here for several years and has many friends who will be glad to see her once again.

At the office of the state superintendent on Wednesday evening occurred the marriage of Miss Laura Carlson of Greenwood to Mr. William Johnson of