Social and Personal

A beautiful home wedding occurred on Wednesday at 8:30 at the home of Mrs. Mary Irvine, Sixteenth and R streets, when her daughter, Miss Laura Elizabeth Irvine was married to Mr. Ernest G. Clark. Dr. W. M. Hindman officiated using the beautiful ring service of the Presbyterian church. The wedding march from Lohengrin was played by Miss Nellie Clark, sister of the groom. During the ceremony the bridal party stood under a canopy of smilax and carnations. The bridal gown was of white mull over silk and the bride carried white roses. The attendants were Miss Stella Irvine and Mr. Frank Irvine, sister and brother of the bride. The bridesmaid wore a white gown and carried pink roses. After the ceremony a luncheon was served and Mr. and Mrs. Clark went to their newly furnished home which was in readiness for them at 1025 G street. The bride received many beautiful gifts. Some of those present at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Clark parents of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. Mann, Miss Mann, Mr. and Mrs. Davis, Mrs. Snyder, Miss Snyder, Mrs. Geeting, Miss Geeting, Mr. Charters Geeting, Mrs. Pickup, Miss Buncher, Mrs. Pratt, Mrs. McArthur of Omaha, Miss Hawksworth, Misses Nellie, Louisa and Hazel Clark,

Mr. John O'Brien of McKeesport, Pa., formerly of this city, and Miss Louise Krone were married Wednesday at St. Theresa's pro-cathedral. Rev. Nugent performed the marriage ceremony, assisted by Father Moriarty of Omaha, Father Laughran of Sutton and Father Reed of Lincoln. Mr. H. J. W. Seabark played the wedding marches and Miss Dority sang. The service was performed at 9 A. M., and immediately after the bride and groom, together with over fifty friends, sat down to a wedding breakfast at the Boyd hotel. Mr O'Brien is now manager for the Cudahy Packing company at McKeesport. Miss Krone was born and reared in Lincoln and has a large circle of friends here. At the altar the bride was beautiful in organdie over silk, trimmed with narrow satin ribbon, a white leghorn hat and carrying a bouquet of bride's roses. The young couple were escorted to the depot to take an east-bound train. At the railway station they found that the usual pranks had been played with their baggage which contained a great deal of rice and many placards.

On Wednesday afternoon Miss Burnham gave a reception for the alumni and active chapters of Delta Gamma. The house was decorated with roses, lillies and carnations, and a buffet luncheon was served. Those present were: Misses Haggard, Alice Wing, Bessie Wing, Dewesse, Mullon, Rice, Gregory, Harwood, Webster, Garten, Helen Woods, Cochran, Polk, Watkins, Laura Bridge, Mulliken, Welch, Righter, Prentiss, Davis, Edith Lewis, Minor, Tukey, Cole, McMenemy, Gertrude Macomber, Maude Macomber, Jaynes, Jackson, Johnson, Haecker, Alice Fuller, Nona Bridge, Mrs. John Lottridge, Mrs. Frank Wood's and Mrs. L. A. Sherman.

Mrs. John G. Morrison and her daughters Misses Cora and Clara Smith gave a large and beautiful reception Thursday afternoon at their home at 1631 F street. During the hours from three to six about two hundred and fifty ladies called. The parlors were beautiful with bridesmaids roses and palms. Gorgeous American beauties adorned the dining room which was presided over by Mrs. Rankins and Mrs. W. C. Mills, who were assisted in serving ice cream and punch by Misses Bonnell Winifred Bonnell, Jessie White, Lillian White, Maysie Ames and Blanch Lasch, all of whom were gowned in white. The hostesses were assisted in the parlors by Mrs. Casebeer, Mrs. Swan and Miss Hyatt, and the guests were received at the door and ushered up stairs by Misses Ella Morrison, Grace and Carol White. Mr. Hagenow's string quartet played during the afternoon.

Mrs. S. G. Door gave a highly successful musicale yesterday afternoon in honor of her mother, Mrs Joseph R. Lewis. The house was elaborately decorated with cut flowers. Ices and small cakes were served by Miss Mabel Richards, assisted by Miss Houtz, Miss Gere and Miss Raymond. The program was given by Miss Oakley, soprano; Miss Hoover, pianist; Miss Dales, violinist. All did their parts remarkably well and their audience was a delighted one from the beginning to the close of the program. The following numbers were presented:
