MILLER & PAINE

Social and Personal

On Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Charles M. Herrick gave a house warming at her pretty new home at 1610 C street in honor of Mrs. Myron Wheeler and Mrs. Charles D. Mullen, the first of whom is soon to depart to join her husband in Cuba, and the latter has just returned from her wedding journey. So many flowers and palms were used in the decorations that it seemed the greenhouses had been robbed of all their treasures. The party was a gay and happy one. The first hour was devoted to an informal reception, afterwards those who cared for cards played for an hour when prizes were awarded to Mrs. Harry Grainger, Mrs. Fred Howe and Mrs. Stephen Hoover. Punch was served all afternoon by Misses Hazel Benton and Cora Herrick, and other refreshments at the close of the games by Mrs. Peckham, Mrs. Usher and Miss Beth Marshall. Those present were: Mesdames Nance, Woods, Rudge, Beeson, Hambleton, Baker, Miller, Allen, Risser, Hoover, Baird, Quiggle, Doane, Bartley, LeGore, Peckham, Marshall, E. C. Davis, Burkett, Gustin, Henkle, Holm, Teeters, Usher, Jones, Ward, Brown, Rathburn, Leese, Richards, Bruner, Simpkins, Sizer, Stearns, Piper, Whedon, Grainger, Lowry, Seacrest, Garcutte, Casebeer, Webster, Hill, Hutchins, Aitken, Helwig, Howe, John Dorgan, Bogge, Druze, Davis, Rehlaender, A. Humphrey, England, Tibbetts, Hall, Zehring, Lawlor, Benton, McManigal, Chase, Campbell, Gillilan, Smith, Lane, Turner, Perkins, O'Neill, Field, Trickey, Kier, Newmark, Thompson, Spencer, Cowdery, Walsh, Blish, Harris, Saxton, Sitler, Miller, Wilkinson, E. Baker, Abbott, Faulkner, King, Dayton, Strickland, Beachley, McClusky, Bryan, Crandall, Taylor, Haffly, Traphagen, Simmons of Denver, Conly, Tibbetts, Aitken, Grace Aitken, Beth Marshall.

Mrs. E. A. Polk, Mrs. R. N. Howell and Mrs. C. W. Chambers gave a beautiful reception Thursday which was a success in every particular. The three hostesses received the callers and were assisted by Mesdames Scott, Wheeler, Jones, Turner and Preston. The drawing rooms were decorated with glorious meteors, a curtain of smilax separated the two and in a bay window screened by stately palms a mandolin orchestra played subdued music. The dining room was cool and refreshing in its dainty adornments of green and white. A bouquet of lilies graced the center of the table and smilax was festooned over the snowy linen, and draped in front of the bay window, and the effect of all was heightened by the white gowns and the green ribbons of the servers. Mrs. W. M. Hindman presided over this room and her assistants were Misses Harwood, Leland, Dalby, Garten, Polk and Chambers. In a room up stairs which was decorated with vines and roses, punch was served by Misses Webster, Spears, and Walton, of Blair. The day was ideal, and the callers all appeared to have donned their prettiest gowns and smartest hats. There were about two hundred of the callers and many were the compliments bestowed upon the hostesses for their entertainment.

Mrs. W. O. Thomas hears about every ten days from her mother, Mrs. Angie F. Newman, who is at present in Honolulu. Mrs. Newman has decided not to go on to Manila until October. She is enjoying her stay in Honolulu and finds the climate salubrious and delightful. She found an opportunity not long since of being helpful to some of our soldiers. When the hospital ship Solace touched at Honolulu Mrs. Newman, with the assistance of other women made three hundred and fifty bouquets and took them on board. She has sent to Mrs. Thomas a collection of interesting articles from this far away city and at a card party which Mrs. Thomas gave on Monday afternoon the guests were privileged to examine them. There were curious sandals; girdles and "Cyrano" chains of tiny shells; a belt and bag of some sort of seeds; a number of fans among them, one of sandal wood which was unusually handsome because of the carving, but most to be desired was a fabric made of the fibre of pineapple, sheer and sheamy as dainty silk which will become a party gown for the hostess. This most charming party was given for Mrs. J. A. Black of Bloomington, Nebraska. Euchre was played and the prizes were awarded to Mrs. R. M. Turner and Mrs. Black. Invited guests were Mesdames Black, DePae, Webster, Cowdery, Coffroth, Humphrey, Richards, Barbour, Winger, E. E. Brown, A. R. and E. L. Holyoke, Davis, Kennard, Turner, Clark, Fawell, Tefft, George Fawell, Abbott, Aitken, Ewing, Tilton, W. A. Green, Ed Green, Lamb, E. L. and J. B. Trickey, Reese and Dorr.

Married, on Wednesday evening at 9 o'clock at the home of Miss Emma Gillespie, 1630 Vine street, Miss Lillian M. Gillespie and Mr. Milan V. Oog. The ceremony was performed by Rev. R. T. Chipperfield, the ring service of the Methodist Episcopal church being used. A silk flag draped upon the wall with a bank of roses beneath made a pretty background for the bridal party, and a large palm on either side of them added to the effect. The house was profusely decorated with roses. The bride wore a gown of lavender and white dimity and carried white roses. Punch was served both before and after the ceremony by Misses Burt and Sayer, and more substantial refreshments later by Misses Fowler, Whited, Shaffer and Shinkle. A large number of beautiful gifts were received by the bride.

On Thursday evening a congenial company enjoyed a picnic supper on the lawn at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Ogden. Seclusion was attained by curtaining a nook with American flags where small tables were placed for the feast. Those present were: Messrs. and Mesdames Ogden, John and Robert Dorgan; Mesdames Harris, Wilson and Muir; Misses Harris, Harwood and Dorrance Harwood; Mr. M. L. Scudder and Master Wilson Muir.

On Friday morning Kappa Alpha Theta had a pleasant meeting at Miss Cunningham's in honor of their seniors. Decorations were done in the university colors. Each senior was presented with a spoon engraved "Theta '00." They are Misses MacMillen, Vancil, Millar, Macfarland, Randolph, Weeks, Getner. Friday evening the Thetas enjoyed a garden party at the home of Dean and Mrs. Edgren in honor of Miss Jane Douglas of St. Joseph. Pillows, rugs, and Japanese lanterns made the lawn
