ers last Sunday, the occasion being the annual picnic of the Lincoln club. Hammocks were swung among the trees, for those who rested from the games which were in progress all the afternoon. An elegant lunch and dinner was served by the young ladies, the party returning home in the cool of the evening. Those present were, Misses Mollie and Katherine Benninghoff, Helen, Minnie, and Bertha Peters, Condon, Bohanan, Hashenberg, Lawlor, Martin, Stearns, Jenkins; Messrs Bolshaw, Lawlor, Linder, Lapp, Herminhouse, Hashenberg, La Fever, Guggenheim, Hughs, Bohanan, Peters, Stambaugh.

A picnic was given on Wednesday evening at Lincoln park by the following: Messrs and Mes James Irvine, Wilson, Aitkin, Wilson, Wright, Raymond, Thompson, Wilson, Burnham, Oakley, Yates, and Mrs. Griffith. Profs. Taylor and Davenport were the guests of honor. The principle amusements of the afternoon and evening were social conversation and the exhilarating pastime of riding the switch back. An elegant dinner was served which proved to be no less inviting than the many previous ones given by the ladies of the club as evidenced by the smiles of satisfaction on the faces of the male portion of the assembly when they sank heavily into the hammocks after dinner. The party came to town at a late hour it being the universal opinion that the picnic had been a decided success.

The Kappa Alpha Thetasa popular young ladies fraternity of the State University gave a delightful picnic at Lincoln park Tuesday afternoon and evening. After an elaborate dinner the young ladies returned to the city in time for Prof. Hagenow's concert which was enjoyed from the porch of Miss Leola Vancil's home. Those participating in the day's festivities were Mes James Ansley, King, Misses Steiner, Getner, Vancil, Harper, Hill, Honeywell, McMillan, Cunningham, Edger, Miller, Weeks, Macfarland.

City Treasurer and Mrs. Aitken and daughter Miss Grace have just returned from a visit of several weeks in the summer resorts of Illinois, Michigan and Minnesota. While absent from Lincoln they passed several days at the Chicago Whist Congress, a journey by the lake steamer to Mackinac island where a few days were spent. From Mackinac they cruised via Lake Superior to St. Paul, Minneapolis and Minnetonka Beach, three days being spent at the latter place, returning to Lincoln last Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Lippincott of New York city are in the city on a short visit at the home of Mr. Lippincott's father, Joseph A. Lippincott. Mr. Lippincott is vice president and eastern manager of a large Jail and Manufacturing company of St. Louis, with his headquarters at New York. He will remain in the city for a few days and return by way of St. Louis. Mr. and Mrs. Lippincott have many friends in the city who are enjoying their visit. Mrs. Harry says that Mrs. Charles Lippincott is singing a great deal, that her voice is improving, and that it is much appreciated.

The East Lincoln Mission Chalm held its regular weekly meeting at the Evangelical church, 29th and Holdrege, Tuesday afternoon; committee reports show that much good and needed work is being accomplished by this band of ladies.

Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Allen entertained informally Monday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. B. Graves formerly of this city but now of Minneapolis. The evening was pleasantly spent in a novel guessing contest, and the writing of original poetry, after which dainty refreshments were served. Those present were, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. B. Graves; Misses Rymal, Perkins, Smiley, Tunison, Cut's, Wakefield, Bryan; Messrs Williams, Perkins, Noble, F. and W. Millson.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Lansing are expecting a visit from their son Oliver, who arrived in San Francisco on the Indiana thirty five days out from Manila the twenty-first of this month. Mr. Lansing enlisted a year ago in the fourth infantry. He arrived in Manila on the 11th of March and has been on the fighting line ever since. Later news from his son Mr. Lansing says, indicates that he will not arrive in Lincoln for three weeks.

Last Tuesday a merry party of young people sought the cool, sequestered nooks of Crete-upon-the Platte, where they gave a delightful little house party at the Chautauqua grounds, light refreshments being served in the evening. The party from Lincoln was composed of Misses Burnham, Watkins, Raymond. Messrs Honeywell, Hays, Raymond.
