On account of the threatening clouds that came up late in the afternoon the ladies departed earlier than usual. Those present were Mesdames Campbell, Ferguson, Jones, Clark, DeVore, Vaughn, De Forest, Green, Slattery, White, Bacon, Clark, Taylor, Woodruff.

Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. B. Kohn and Mr. and Mrs. Rosenbaum gave a delightful trolley ride to a large number of friends in honor of several visiting friends. The party rode to Havelock, light refreshments being served on the car and an elegant supper after the arrival at Havelock. The guests of honor were Mesdames Bruska, and Ketch

Miss Louise Pound, the western tennis champion, has just won a tennis prize in Heidelberg. Her opponent was Fraulein Koenigsberger and the score was 6-1, 6-1. The prize was a little clock of polished brass inlaid with pearl and enameled in blue and red. It fits into a red leather traveling case and is a very beautiful and useful possession. Ever since the Empress Frederick gave such a clock as a prize to the winner in a damen einspiel last year in Hamburg, other German prize givers have chosen clocks. The following is the program of the tournament and number eight is the one in which Miss Pound played:
