

Our Stocks are Now Complete and Ready for Inspection.

Never before have we been better prepared to cater to the tastes of fastidious people. Extra attention has been paid to the requirements of each department for this Fall season; making unnecessary your sending to eastern cities for exclusive styles. Our Cloak and Dress Good stocks contain novelties found nowhere else in the state and appeal strongly to wouldbe well-dressers. We urge your inspection at your earliest—the assortment being large and unbroken. Out of town visitors cordially welcomed.

SPECIAL OFFERINGS IN DRESS GOODS AT 25, 50, 75, 98, $1.25, $1.50.

THE LEADING DRESS GOODS DEPARTMENT IN THE WEST.

ALL $1.50 YARD

- 44 in. black mohair crepon, double blister, 10 new beautiful designs, worth to $1.90.
- 44 in. silk blister crepons, black grounds, silk, mixed designs, very rich, worth $1.90.
- 44 in. colored silk crepons, colors blue, brown and garnet; worth $2.

ALL $1.25 YARD

- 50 in. Poplins French m't'g, extra heavy quality, fine finish and line of colors; worth $1.50
- 44 in. camel's hair, entirely new, very nobby, blue, brown, green, and black ground with colored camel hair stripe; worth $1.50.
- 60 in. tailor's suitings to be made without lining, worth $1.60.

98C YARD

- 40 in. black crepons, 10 styles worth $1.35
- 54 in. sponged and shrunk cheviot, extra heavy weight, all wool, worth $1.25
- 46 in. French Poplin, good weight, colors, navy blue, brown, red, garnet, and black worth $1.25
- 52 in. homespuns, good weight, colors, Oxford grey, light gold, brown, and grey mixture, worth 1.25

75C YARD

- 54 in. storm serge, all wool, good quality, all colors, worth 95c
- 44 in. black suitings, wears like iron, good weight plain weaves
- 38 in. silk and wool plaids, a good assortment to select from, all colorings worth 85c.

50C YARD

- 44 in. herring bone cheviot, sold for 75c all colors
- 40 in. granite cloth, new weaves, all colors and black, worth 75c
- 46 in. storm serge, all wool, worth 65 cents.
- 46 in. French serge. lino twill, all colors; worth 60c

25C YARD

- 25 pieces, all wool, novelties, 46 in. wide worth 83c
- 36 in. all wool serge, colors, brown, navy, grey, red, green, and black, worth 35c
- 37 in. black breeches, good patterns, well finished cloth, worth 35c.

KID GLOVE DEPARTMENT.

We have the best kid glove department in the state simply because of the excellent qualities of gloves offered for sale at reasonable prices. Come in and look at these specials.

FINE DRESS SKIRT SALE

Call and examine our line of dress skirts, well made, well lined, plain or buttoned back from

$3.50 to $15.

CHILDRENS' REEFERS

The largest stock of up-to-date children's reefers in the state, best material and make

$1.75 to $6

FITZGERALD DRY GOODS COMPANY, 1023-1029 O STREET.

Misses Clara Smith, Louise Fowler, Margaret Davis of Beatrice in pink and white, white hats and black plumes, victoria beautifully trimmed with pink and white chrysanthemums. A colored footman led the horse.

Mrs. P. D. Mullen, Mrs. M. I. Aitken, Mrs. Brown and Miss Aitken, surrey decorated in burnt orange chrysanthemums shading out to yellow. The ladies were dressed in yellow and white and carried parasols covered with yellow blossoms.

Mrs. H. J. Winnett accompanied by Mrs. W. C. Phillips rode in a carriage of purple clematis and white chrysanthemums, drawn by two big horses. Both ladies gowned in purple and white and carried parasols heavy with purple and white flowers.

Kappa Kappa Gamma fraternity, kensington in dark and light blue chrysanthemums. Misses Margaret Winger, Margaret Whedon, Emma Outcalt, Nell Holbrook, and Clara Hammond, who rode in the trap, in gowns of white, black picture hats and carried parasols trimmed with light and dark blue blossoms.

Mrs. John Dorgan and Mrs. D. D. Muir, phaeton handsomely decorated with pink roses and drawn by a sleek black team with pink ribbon harness and bows. Mrs. John Dorgan in gray and Mrs. D. D. Muir in pink. Both wore pink hats and carried white parasols. They were attended by two outriders in military costume.

A pony cart tastily decorated in green and white, with a touch of purple, representing the Y. W. C. A. was driven by Miss Gladys Hargreaves accompanied by Miss Fawell who carried a beautiful parasol decorated with purple and white flowers.

The Pi Beta Phi fraternity was represented by Misses Sedgwick, Andrews, Burruss and Woodward in a trap decorated with scarlet chrysanthemums. The horses were cream, thus making the University colors.

Mrs. A. Bruce Coffroth, trap covered with chrysanthemums shading from cerise to pale pink, a floral scroll design carried out on the wheels and sides. Mrs. E. P. Ewing and Mrs. Harry Everett rode with her. All the ladies were in gowns of white and cerise. Mr. Coffroth was mounted upon a horse decorated with pink roses.

Mrs. F. M. Tyrrell, phaeton in yellow chrysanthemums and black. The horse was black with gilded hoofs and black decorations. Both Mrs. F. M. Tyrrell and Mrs. B. M. Butler in gowns of black and yellow with parasols covered with flowers, shading from deepest orange to pale yellow.

A pretty carriage decorated with pink chrysanthemums and drawn by two white horses was occupied by Mrs. Palin.

Mrs. Woempener, phaeton decorated with poppies and wild sage.

Misses Koener, a carriage drawn by two bay horses and trimmed in pink roses. Four young ladies were dressed in pink and white and carried parasols bedecked with flowers.

One of the quaintest and daintiest of all the carriages was an old fashioned chaise of pink roses drawn by one horse also adorned with roses. Misses Heaton and Pinney of Burlington, Iowa, occupied the chaise and wore white short-waisted dresses and poke bonnets such as are still the delight of our grandmothers. The ladies carried dainty pink and white parasols.

Mrs. E. B. Finney, carriage decorated with natural goldenrod with here and there an artistic touch of black. She was accompanied by Mrs. Herbert Howe of Auburn, Nebraska, and Mrs. Ed Tucker of Howe, Nebraska, gowned in black and carrying yellow parasols.

Wesleyan University was represented by twelve young ladies dressed in white in a large float of yellow and brown, the University colors.

Mrs. Arthur N. Young and Mrs. Rhoda Stewart, phaeton decorated with bright red poppies and green vines and drawn by a gray horse garlanded with poppies.

Henry Plumb accompanied by Dorothy Odell and Mildred Williams drove a pony cart decorated with poppies and pale blue.

F. A. Sidles and Miss Lillie Sidles, phaeton in purple and green with cannas. Mrs. T. H. Benton and daughter Hazel drove in a phaeton of pink hollyhocks and asparagus ferns. Beautiful butterflies, scattered here and there among the nodding blossoms. Mrs. Benton wore black lace over pink silk and Miss Hazel wore a pink empire gown and poke bonnet, parasols of pink hollyhocks.

Misses Helen and Marian Hall, children of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Hall, cart decorated with white and drawn by a white pony. The children were dressed in white and carried a huge white parasol.

The Delta Delta Delta fraternity, two seated trap heavily yet artistically trimmed with yellow and white chrysanthemums with here and there a touch of fraternity blue. Mrs. James Manahan, Misses Mamie Miller, Blanche Lasch, Winifred Bonnell, Reeves and Wilson occupied the trap and wore gowns of white and yellow, white parasols.

Mrs. Marks, Mrs. Newman, Mrs. Hall and Mrs. Beebie, kensington in yellow and white chrysanthemums.

A. O. U. W. float drawn by six gray horses was trimmed in green.

Ladies representing the Sons and Daughters of Protection occupied a victoria of pink roses.

The Pythian Sisterhood No. 10 a large float of yellow, blue and red.

Mesdames Latta, Henkle, Merrill, Watson, Howe, Curtice, Morrison, Freeman, Smith, Misses Hoover, Harrison, Hollowbush, Nance, Stevenson and Hoop occupied a tall, coach decorated with shaded pink chrysanthemums. The ladies wore white dresses and carried pink parasols.

Magnolia camp No. 44, float with decorations of lavender and white and drawn by white horses.

One of the prettiest floats was an elaborate pink and white of Mr. H. Wittmann. White doves rested airily on each side and Miss Harriett Rickert dressed as a doll sat under a canopy which was a bower of red, white and pink flowers.

At the head of the last division came a group of ladies and gentlemen on horseback.

Mrs. M. O. Davis and Mrs. Ray Armstrong rode horses decorated with golden chrysanthemums and black.

Mr. I. P. Newell's horse, crimson poppies.

Mr. Frank F. Hill's horse, crimson and black.

Many striking and pretty ideas were well carried out in the decorations of the bicycle.

Miss D. E. Lashmutt wore a white riding costume over which flowers were scattered. She carried a parasol completely covered with blossoms.

Miss Ada Faurot was one beautiful pansy. Her hat was made to represent one large pansy and her costume was exquisitely colored to represent the same flower.

Miss Emma Bennett rode her wheel under a lace-work of blossoms and vines which were wound about her wheel forming an arch over her head.

Miss Allie Thiebau wore pink and green and carried an umbrella covered with roses.

Miss Vera Upton rode a wheel decorated with pink and blue morning glories.

Miss Irene Warrick and Mrs. Joa Hubbard in white with white umbrellas covered with pink roses.

Others who rode were: Misses Katie Ogden, May Clark, L. Bristol, McGrew, Rose Gilmore and Mary Knudsen. The gentlemen in the parade were: Messrs. J. W. McCann, William Hickey and Robert Herpelsheimer.

The bicycle parade on Thursday evening was an affair of such interest to the crowds that filled the city that it was almost impossible to clear a way for its passage. Several of the large floats progressed with difficulty, so closely did the throng press on both sides of the narrower path required for the single wheels and tandems. The parade formed on K and L streets at Fifteenth, passed north on Fifteenth to O, and then west on O through the fair district. Brilliant calcium lights burned along the line of march (if a procession of wheels may be said to march) and the novel illumination added to the charm of the many beautiful and dainty decora-