

reception in the library room in honor of Mrs. Apperson and Mrs. Arnup. The free use of rugs, draperies and potted plants converted the room into a most pleasant parlor. The president of the city federation, Mrs. Pollock, presented the new state officers in a few, well chosen words.

Mrs. Apperson and Mrs. Arnup each responded in a neat, modest speech, showing how much they appreciate the confidence placed in them and how fully too they realize the responsibilities and opportunities resting upon them. The gentlemen also did them honor upon this occasion, expressing as much pride and pleasure as the women. Indeed we all feel proud of having these offices fall to two such well qualified women from Tecumseh. We can heartily assure those who have thus shown us this honor that all which lies in the power of Tecumseh club women shall be done for the good of the State Federation. The president of the city federation and each of the state officers were presented with a bouquet of roses, and after the rendering of some music, the evening was passed in a general social.

THEATRICAL.

THE OLIVER.

The world famous Herrmann will appear at the Oliver theatre this afternoon and evening. Leon Herrmann (the Great Herrmann) is acknowledged to be the greatest living magician, and his sleight of hand and palming is simply marvelous, excelling anything of the kind ever attempted in magic. Herrmann always brings many novelties with him upon each succeeding visit something out of the beaten tracks of magic. Herrmann will present upon his present visit to this city, many novelties, among others being the charming ballad singer, "Lona," and the "Four Musical Luciers."

Evening prices, 25 cents to $1.00. Matinee, balcony 25 cents; lower floor 50 cents.

A really up to date comedy, and an up to date company, is the Rays' "A Hot Old Time," which will be the attraction at the Oliver theatre on Wednesday evening, October 25th. The fun in this musical comedy is fast and furious, and a laugh a minute is guaranteed. Just one of those pieces every theatre goes for, no tears, all laughs, full of surprises, good music, and high class specialties; there are also many pretty girls in handsome costumes. Clever artists are, John W. Jess, the Rajah of Irish comedians; W. Wallace Black, the phenomenal basso; Ada Melrose and Pearl Revare, John and Bertha Gleason, the world's greatest dancers and cake walkers. Hyberta Pryme singing comedienne and the greatest of all novelty dancers, Miss Annie St. Tel, known as the "Bounding Antelope" from the East.

THE FUNKE.

Of the many attractions, Managers Crawford and Zehrunge has booked for the Funke opera, probably none will prove more satisfactory than "The Wheel of Fortune." At the Funke this afternoon at 2:30 P. M., and this evening at 8:15. Evening prices 15 to 50 cents. Matinee prices 10 and 25 cents.

The attraction at the Funke opera on Monday and Tuesday evenings will be the "Joshua Simpkins" Company. It is a strong, rural comedy, opening with a realistic scene of rural home life, showing Skinker Tavern with Uncle Josh's Wild Briar Farm in the distance. "Joshua Simpkins" was written with the view of keeping an audience thoroughly amused. The plot is not allowed to interfere with the comedy parts, thus producing a play that is not only thrillingly interesting, but is said to contain as many laughs as there are grains in a "heaped up" bushel of wheat.

Regular Funke prices, 15 to 50 cents.

The question is often asked by those who have never seen Lincoln J. Carter's play, "The Heart of Chicago," but who have heard of the approaching engine scene, "Is it accomplished by the use of the new animated picture machines such as the Vitascope, Cinematograph, etc?" It is not. The engine and other apparatus is aerial as stage limitations, iron, wood and steel can make it. As to how it is made to appear to come from miles away, all the time being in plain view, as Rudyard Kipling would say, "That's another story." It is the inventor's secret.

At the Funke opera, Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings and Saturday matinee, October 26th, 27th and 28th. Evening prices 15 to 50 cents; box seats 75 cents; matinee prices 10 and 25 cents.
