SOCIETY

The Phi Delta Theta fraternity gave a very elegant dance last Friday night at the Hotel Lincoln. The promenade was scarcely to be recognized for the many Japanese lanterns and palms used. Pink roses covered the lights in the parlor and cast a delightful shadow over the many cosy corners. Rugs and pillows were used in profusion. The ordinary, where supper was served during the dance, was decorated in blue and white, the fraternity colors. Blue and white bunting was draped across the ceiling and fell in a cascade down the walls. Blue and white ribbons and white pinks decorated the table. In one corner of the promenade a delicious punch was served under a large Japanese umbrella. The dance was a scene of gayety. The sideboard and chandeliers were hung in scarlet and cream.
