Miss Alice Haywood Bross and Reverend Arthur Frost Newell were quietly married at the home of the bride's parents, Reverend and Mrs. Bross, Twenty-ninth and Q streets, at 2 p. m. on Monday. Only the family and intimate friends were present. The bride's father, Reverend Bross, performed the ceremony. Miss Alice Pritchard, of Omaha, played the wedding march. The bride and groom stood before a curtain of smilax caught here and there with white chrysanthemums. The bride is a graduate of the state university and a member of P. E. O. and the Pi Beta Phi fraternity. The groom was pastor of the Vine Street Congregational church before he accepted the call to Sayville, New York. A reception was given by the bride's parents to a large number of friends from three to five. Mr. and Mrs. Bross were assisted in receiving by Mr. and Mrs. Newell, Mr. and Mrs. Perry Bross, of Omaha, Reverend Burghling, of Kearney, Miss Lisle Wilkinson and Mr. Philip Bross. In the dining room, where Miss Towne served ices, an umbrella covered with pink chrysanthemums was hung. Pink tarlatan streamers fell from the umbrella to the four corners of the table. Miss Cleveland, Miss Wallace, Miss Betts and Miss Auman served ices. The out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Perry Bross, of Omaha; Mr. and Mrs. Pritchard and daughter Alice, of Omaha; Mr. Philip Bross, who is now attending Beloit college; Reverend Burghling, of Kearney; Mr. and Mrs. Sprague, of Crete; President and Mrs. Perry, Prof. and Mrs. Bennett, and Miss Thompson, of Doane college, Crete.

Club news is sometimes difficult to classify. The following account of a club function is placed in the social columns because it celebrates the bon homie which exists between the club women of Nebraska: Mrs. Bell Stoutenborough, of Plattsmouth, was the guest of the city federation of Tecumseh, Friday, November 24. At three o'clock the Presbyterian church, which had been decorated for the occasion, was filled with an audience which gave rapt attention to her most able address, so modestly designated "A Talk to Mothers." It was a beautiful, practical, helpful talk. The Pansy club furnished vocal music suitable to the speaker's theme, and Helen Bennett, a little girl, won all hearts by reciting a brief poem descriptive of childish longings. One child wished for a ship, one for a beautiful white horse, but "Little lame Bess said, as she looked from one to another, I'd wish for the loveliest thing in all the world; that every one of us might have a mother." In the evening Mrs. Stoutenborough gave a reception at the colonial home of Mrs. Ward. The wide brilliantly lighted porch was made gay with Chinese lanterns and was a welcome in itself. In the receiving line were Mrs. Pollock, president of the city federation, Mrs. Stoutenborough, Mrs. Apperson, Mrs. Arnup, president and corresponding secretary of the state federation, and Mrs. Ward, the hostess. For more than an hour Mrs. Stoutenborough stood calling old friends and meeting new ones. In the music room the orchestra was stationed and played delightfully during the entire evening. The decorations in the parlor and reception hall were chrysanthemums while the color scheme in the dining room was carried out in pink and white carnations. Six young ladies similarly gowned were in charge. In another room, made into a sheltered nook by potted palms and flowers, four little misses "took turns" in serving punch. The reception was thoroughly enjoyed by all present, for Mrs. Stoutenborough is a woman whom Tecumseh club women delight to know.

Tiny Theoda Fox invited a number of her playmates, Thursday afternoon, to celebrate her sixth birthday. A number of pretty presents were presented to her and the children had a royal time playing games and feasting. Mrs. John Dorgan, Mrs. William Dorgan, and Mrs. Robert Dorgan, assisted Mrs. Fox in serving the tea. The children present were Gertrude Rehleander, Ester Dillan Thomas, Lois Doan, Gladys Barber, Mary Chapin, Catherine Manahan, Elizabeth Doyle, Mary Barber, Catherine Doyle, Ella Morrison, Eunice Chapin, Kate Fox, Octavia Beck, Ora Barber.

The Catholic Social club met in their club rooms Thursday night. After the opening address by Mr. Hugh Daley the following musical program was given: Miss Huberlan—piano solo, "Sweet Long Ago," Blake. Miss Grant—vocal solo, Slumber Song, Heins. Miss St. Claire—recitation. Miss Walla—piano solo, Selected. Mrs. Sherman Greer—vocal solo, "The Daisy," Ardit. Refreshments were served and cards and dancing closed a very enjoyable evening. This is the third meeting of the club. Fifty members were present at the meeting.

The Pythian Sisters gave a dance at The Lincoln Thursday night. Miss Willoughby furnished the music. The lodge colors, red, yellow, and blue, decorated the dancing hall. Palms lent a background for the following reception committee, Mesdames Lawlor, Younge, Grimes, Parker, Heagy, Weidman, Eaton Fleming.

Mrs. Rewick gave a euchre party for Mrs. Ashmun of Atchison, Kansas, Tuesday afternoon. The parlors were beautifully decorated with pink shaded lights and La France roses. The dining room was in yellow and white. Pictures were given for both first and second prizes; Mrs. Billmeyer took first prize, nine ladies cut for second prize and Mrs. Garoutte won. The following ladies were present, Mesdames Ladd, Van Brunt, Webster, Ewing, Gibbs, Brown, Leming, Haynie, Grainger, Davis Parker, Bowman, Kirker, Hammond, Davis, Kennard, Everett, Clark, Blieb, Harpham, Neil, Munger, Hall, Jones, Weir, Griffith, Hayes, Hoover, Thompson, Hall, Waugh, Chapin, Lansing, Turner, Humphrey, Chambers, Winger, Richardson, Billmeyer, Casebeer, Baker, Cowdery, Gerhart, Morse, Richardson, Witte, Moore, Garoutte; Miss Eulass. Mrs. Rewick was assisted by Mrs. George Clark, Misses Ashmun, Lansing, and Miss Weatherald.

Mrs. Usher and Mrs. Guenzel gave a six handed euchre party Friday afternoon. A very pleasant afternoon was spent. An ebony hat brush was awarded to the winner of the first prize and a bon bon tray to the winner of the second. The guests were Mesdames Juuge, Sears,
