nations and violets decorated the rooms. The Reverend Eason performed the ceremony. The bride wore a castor colored Venetian cloth gown, elaborately trimmed in white satin and applique. A bouquet of violets completed a very charming gown. A wedding breakfast was served immediately after the ceremony. The table and dining room were decorated in white. Miss Leland has lived in Lincoln since she was a child and has a large number of friends. Mr. Alley is associated with Herpolsheimer & Co., and came to Lincoln from Minneapolis. Mr. and Mrs. Alley expect to make a short trip to Kansas City and will be at home after March 1st.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Oakley, Miss Oakley and Miss Hoover gave a tea Thursday in honor of Mrs. Judd of New York. The drawing room was decorated in pink. Pink roses were used in great profusion. The dining room was beautiful in red. Mrs. Campbell served the ice and Mrs. Dorr poured coffee. A beautiful bouquet of American beauties stood on a large mirror in the center of the table. Mrs. Griffith, Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. Walsh, Mrs. Richards and Mrs. Putnam assisted in the dining room. Mrs. Richards, Mrs. Yates and Mrs. Raymond assisted in the drawing room.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred B. Harris entertained the Nineteenth Century Euchre Club Wednesday evening. The following were the guests: Messrs. and Mesdames Wilkinson, Rehlaender, Bignell, Guenzel, O'Connell, Foster, Hoover and Richards.

"My Wee Bird" a beautiful lullabye by Roy L. Smith, a Nebraska man who formerly lived in Fremont. Mr. D. H.

Wheeler of Omaha sings this song with great effect. Words and music are onomatopoes and suggest swaying boughs rustling leaves, and the drowsy chirping of young birds.

First Church of Christ (Scientist), Fourteenth and K streets. Arthur C. Ziemer, C. S. First Reader. Sunday morning services at 10:30; subject, "Spirit." The sermon consists of the reading of selections from the Bible and the Christian Science text book, "Science and Health, With Key to the Scriptures." Wednesday evening meeting at 7:30. The public is cordially invited.

Dean and Mrs. Sherman received in honor of Mr. Elbert Hubbard on Wednesday afternoon. A large number of guests called during the afternoon and had the pleasure of meeting Mr. Hubbard who is not only a very famous but also a very charming and fascinating man. Mr. Harry Shedd introduced the guests to Mr. Sherman who in turn introduced Mr. Hubbard. Mr. and Mrs. Sherman were assisted in receiving by the English club of the State university.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Avery entertained a small company on Thursday evening.

The annual Harb Times party of the Lincoln Light Infantry was given on Wednesday evening. Many startling costumes were the result and everybody enjoyed themselves. About forty couples were present.

A number of young ladies assisted by the ladies of the G. A. R. gave a reception on Wednesday evening to the members of the G. A. R. at the Grand Army hall. The hall was decorated with flags and flowers and a musical program was
