

THEATRICAL.

THE OLIVER.

The extraordinary qualities of "A Lady of Quality," which Eugenie Blair and her company of players will present at the Oliver Theatre, Saturday matinee and night, January 27th, has attracted considerable attention. In many cities ministers of the gospel have made the theme of the book the subject of sermon texts. In staging the production Miss Blair has spared neither time nor expense. The scenery is elaborate. Matinee prices 75, 50 and 25 cents. Evening prices $1.50, $1.00, 75, 50 and 25 cents.

The happiest sort of good feeling is bound to exist at the Oliver Theatre on Monday evening, January 29th, when Hoyt's roaring comedy, "A Stranger in New York," will appear. This piece is no stranger to this city. It made a most emphatic impression here some time ago. The cast is the strongest and most versatile ever seen in a Hoyt comedy and includes all the best comedians and all the prettiest girls of the Hoyt and McKee forces. Mr. Paul F. Nicholson Jr., the past season one of the four comedians with the Alice Neilson Opera Company, Mr. Tom Martin, Mr. Harry Rogers, Mr. Douglas Flint, Mr. Sidney Grant, Mr. Frederick Lander, Miss Ma Belle Davies, Miss Norton, Miss Margaret Lee, Miss Reta Riley, Miss Florine Murray, and many others are in the cast. Prices $1.00, 75, 50 and 25 cents. Seats now on sale at box office.

Mr. Charles Frohman will present for the first time in this city on Saturday evening, February 3rd, at the Oliver Theatre, Mr. David Belasco's latest and greatest success, "Zaza." This play is fresh from a run on Broadway extending over all the last season, and a long and successful run this season, during which time it has enjoyed the most phenomenal success in New York. No American playwright has written stronger plays than David Belasco, witness "The Wife," "The Charity Ball," "The Girl I Left Behind Me," "The Heart of Maryland," and now "Zaza." That the play will be presented under the direction of America's greatest manager, Mr. Charles Frohman, who has selected the company which will be seen here, is a further guarantee of excellence.
