will be held on Wednesday, February 21st, instead of February 22nd as announced in last week's paper. The morning will be spent at the National Buttermaker's Convention held in the Auditorium, the afternoon at the State university. The conference will begin at two o'clock in the lecture room of the chemical laboratory, north entrance. After the program the ladies will visit the department of domestic sciences in the mechanic arts building, room 105, where they will have an opportunity to inspect the kitchen laboratory and test some articles of food prepared by the girls who are studying domestic science. All ladies who are interested in this work are cordially invited.
