SOCIETY

The Egyptian Tea given by Miss Garten and Miss Welch at 1213 H street on Tuesday, was one of the most successful entertainments given this winter. The guests were met in the reception room by Miss Garten and Miss Welch, assisted by Mrs. Garten and Mrs. Welch. Lovely La France roses, ferns and palms were banked around the mantle where pink shaded candles lent their mellow glow. The library and drawing room were hung in oriental rugs and tapestries. Soft-footed Egyptian women stole about in the rooms and in one corner sat a fortune teller who told the past, present and future to the guests that called. Oriental lamps lighted the rooms and gave forth a merry gleam to the scene. Mrs. Peter Lau, gowned in oriental costume and crowned with pearls and diamonds, served ice in the library, and Miss Elfreda Haacker and Miss Helen Woods also gowned in oriental costume, assisted in serving the ice. A tiny white turbaned slave held a beautiful fan over Mrs. Lau. Miss Herberta Jaynes, in oriental costume and low voice made an ideal fortune teller. Her little oriental nook was a very popular one. Mrs. Morrison and Miss Burr assisted in receiving the guests in the drawing room. Supper was served in the dining room where red candles and a centre piece of red tulips were placed over Mexican drawn work and made the table resplendent in color. Mrs. Edmisten and Miss Tukey poured coffee and tea and were assisted by Misses Watkins, Putnam, Cole, Jackson and Wilson. The Ideal mandolin orchestra was hidden by palms in the dining room and the sweet, muffled notes were a fitting accompaniment to the laughter and lights.

Miss Emma Tyler celebrated her sixteenth birthday on Thursday evening by giving a dance at Courier Hall. Mr. and Mrs. James Tyler assisted their daughter in receiving the guests. Violets and smilax decorated the table where Mrs. Tyler served the ices. The following guests were present: Misses Dewese, Townsend, Tyler, Miller, Haynie, Trickey, Speier, Hathaway, Linderman, Leavitt, Koerner, Hide, McClay, Schlesinger, Woodruff, Jones, Cauger, Hall, Schenck, Gaylord and McClennen. Messrs. McConiff, Lapp, Freadricks, Bomgardner, Sherdeman, Mercer, Rathburn, Lapp, Boggs, Culbertson, Ewing, Weil, Freadricks, Milligan, Bentley, Johnson, Burkson, Gartner, Jacobs, Walt, and Richardson. Crokinole was played by those that did not dance.

Mrs. A. E. Hargreaves gave a dainty luncheon on Wednesday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Frances Everett of Chicago. Meteor roses decorated the table and covers were laid for Meedames Raymond, Muir, Campbell, Imhoff, Rodgers, Wilson, B. bour, Burnham, Outcalt and Manes.

The Athenaeum club gave a progressive dinner on Monday night. The club is a literary club and has been organized since 1892. The dinner was something new for Lincoln, and the husbands were allowed to share in its pleasures. The soup was served by Mrs. Kelley, and partners were changed for the journey to the home of Mrs. Talbot, where fish was served. Turkey occupied the place of honor at the home of Mrs. Ladd, and again the partners were changed. Dessert was eaten at the home of Mrs. William Green. The evening was unusually pleasant and a great deal of enjoyment was experienced by the following: Messrs and Meedames Green, Holyoke, Irvine, Kelley, Ladd, Tilton, Bailey, Dorr, Green, Fawell, Fling, Harley, Talbot, Manes; Mrs. Laneing and Mrs. Marcotte.

Mrs. A. S. Raymond gave a luncheon to the Fortnightly club in honor of Mrs. Imhoff and Mrs. Rodgers on Friday at one o'clock. Mrs. Imhoff will leave soon for New York and Mrs. Rodgers expects to make her home in Denver. An elaborate luncheon was served to the following guests: Meedames Barbour, Campbell, Field, Gere, Green, Hinman, Lamb, Lambertson, Richards, Ricketts, Rodgers, Imhoff, Taylor, Wilson, Brooks, Sawyer; Misses Harris and Herron. Speeches were made after the luncheon, and a very pleasant afternoon was spent.

Miss Flora Parker and Mr. Louis Brisbin were married Wednesday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, 2220 D street. Mr. Brisbin was a member of company H, of the First Nebraska, and the decorations were flags, the wedding service being given under a large draped flag. Miss Maude Clover was maid of honor and Mr. Fred Eckwell, a comrade of the groom in the Philippine war, was best man. A large number of friends and relatives were present at the ceremony, and the wedding breakfast was served after the congratulations. Mr. and Mrs. Brisbin went immediately to their new home at 2335 F street.

Mrs. George Clarke gave a Euchre party to over thirty guests on Monday afternoon. Mrs. Putnam and Mrs. Helwig won the prizes. On Thursday evening Mr. and Mrs. Clarke gave a very delightful dinner. Mrs. Clarke will give a Kensington this afternoon.

Mrs. Manning gave an informal supper for Doctor L. H. Clark of the Chicago university, on Saturday, February 24th, after Doctor Clark's fine and spirituelle reading given in the University chapel.

Mrs. Manning gave a talk at Mrs. S. B. Pound's for the Daughters of the Revolution on Friday. Subject, Marblehead, with readings.

Mrs. Gere entertained the Lotos club on Thursday. Mrs. A. J. Sawyer delivered a brilliant and scholarly address to the club on the theme of Home.

Miss Jennie Nisely and Mr. Frank Hubbard, both of Lincoln, were married on February 20th at the home of Mrs. F. W. Drew of Chicago. Miss Nisely was for years a successful teacher in the Lincoln public schools and Mr. Hubbard conducts a prosperous dairy farm in Lancaster county.

A very pleasant social was held on Monday night in the basement of the Holy Trinity church. Refreshments were served from flower bedecked tables and a large number of church members and friends called during the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Crancer entertained the Good Times Euchre club very delightfully on Friday night. Those pres-
