

lily; Rose Speier, red rose; Silvia Orloffski, red pinks; Goldie Blumenthal, white pinks; Rebecca Poski, pink rose. There was a short program, the little girls being arranged in a semi-circle. Each child had a neat verse pertaining to her particular flower. Later in the evening the children danced to their heart's content. The boys wore fancy costumes.

Mrs. Rewick invited a few of her friends informally Tuesday afternoon for whist in honor of Miss Oliver of Lockport, New York.

The Century club met with Mrs. Van Brunt Tuesday. The afternoon was made more of a social event than customary, it being the last meeting at which Mrs. Noble, owing to a change of residence, could be present for some time. Mrs. Noble was remembered with a number of thoughtful, pretty gifts. Refreshments are generally forbidden by the club, except on unusual occasions, such as the departure of a long-time member. Mrs. Lindley had prepared a paper on lace-making, tapestries and Delft pottery.

The Round Table met with Mr. John B. Wright on Monday evening. At seven o'clock Mrs. Wright served an elaborate dinner for the members of the club.

On Tuesday evening Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Weir entertained the La Veta Whist club.

Les Bohemiennes met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Crittendor.

The Athenae club met with Mrs. Fred M. Fling on Thursday afternoon.

At eight o'clock on Wednesday evening Miss Edna C. Spalding, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Spalding of 1330 H street, was married to Mr. W. H. Harding of Ord, Nebraska. Miss Spalding's gown was of white silk tissue, with fluffy ruffles, a demi-train and a yoke of beautiful point d'esprit. She carried a bouquet of bride's roses and an exquisite handkerchief of point lace, a gift of the bride's mother. After the wedding ceremony, which was performed by Dr. Hindman, a delicious supper was served, only the immediate families of the bride and groom being present. The house was prettily decorated with roses and Easter lilies, and from the portieres hung graceful strands of smilax. There were handsome gifts, with many good wishes for Mr. and Mrs. Harding, who left Lincoln on Thursday for Ord, where they expect to live in the future.

First Church of Christ (Scientist), Fourteenth and K streets. Arthur C. Ziemer, C. S. First Reader. Sunday morning services at 10:30; subject, "Reality." The sermon consists of the reading of selections from the Bible and the Christian Science text book, "Science and Health, With Key to the Scriptures." Wednesday evening meeting at 7:30. The public is cordially invited.

On Saturday evening, March 10th, Mr. and Mrs. Henry H. Wilson and Mr. and Mrs. Henry B. Ward gave a musical in honor of Miss Ward. Mrs. Frank M. Hall was of the receiving party. Mrs. Wilson's gown was of mode silk, with garnitures of cerise silk and white ribbon. Mrs. Ward wore a skirt of white satin, with a corsage of lace with violet trimmings. Miss Ward was charming in a gown of blue and white striped silk, with net flounces and blue ribbon parures. The platform gave no hint of its real nature or purpose, so many dark, rich looking rugs there were and palms and meteor roses. There were red shades, too, for the chandeliers and lamps to complete the color picture. In the room where the guests were served to refreshing ices and cakes the tout ensemble of color was yellow. On the table, over a beautiful centerpiece, was a great bunch of yellow jonquils. There was also a silver candelabra with yellow candles and shades. Mrs. Isaac M. Raymond and Mrs. Jansen presided at the table. They were assisted by Misses Poynter, Gregory, Garten, Cochrane, Whiting, Adeyde Whiting, Ellen Gere, Frances Gere, Ricketts, Richards and Kirker. The music was listened to with enjoyment and enthusiasm. Mr. Charles Hagenow, accompanied by Miss Mabel Hagenow, gave as an encore to his rendering of the "Gavotte in D," by Popper, the "Song of the Evening Star." Mrs. Campbell, as an encore to "Penelope Wearing a Garment from Odysseus," by Max Bruch, sang "Oh, That We Two Were Maying," by Nevin. Mr. Augustus Hagenow, Miss Mabel Hagenow, accompanist, for an encore to his three numbers, "Canzonetta," by Herbert, "Stilles Glueck," by Schaker, "Traumerer," by Schumann, gave the "Berceuse," by Goddard. The last number on the program, "Angels' Serenade," was given by request, it having been played during the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Ward.

Mrs. Clinton R. Lee entertains the M. M. Whist club today. It is the day of St. Patrick and both his country and country's color are to be remembered in ingenious ways. The score cards are shamrock leaves, and refreshing green tea, lettuce sandwiches and cakes with green icing are to be served. Mrs. Lee has made a collection of Irish curios, such as wooden shoes and shillalies. These are to be shown, and Miss Ethel Burk will play some Irish airs. The members of the club are Mesdames Gibbs, Risser, Rudge, Seacrest, Warner, Chapin, Legore, Dr. Faulkner, Cook, Van Brunt, Finch, Metcalfe, Wolcott, Folsom, Herbert Folsom, Traphagen, C. I. Jones and Lee. Mrs. Brown, a guest from out of town, will be present.

The Good Times Euchre club enjoyed a pleasant evening, Friday, with Miss Nance. Those present were Messrs. and Mesdames Marshall, Howe, George Woods, Frank Woods, Mark Woods, Curtice, Rector, Dorgan, Ed. Fitzgerald, Crancer, Merrill, Latslaw, Kelly, Edmisten and Morrison; the Misses Marshall, Burr, Hoover, Gahan, Oakley, Putnam, Naughton of New York, Odell, Hooper, Hargreaves and Cochran; Messrs. Baldwin, Joyce, Butler, Hayes, Walsh, Gregory, Honeywell, Lansing, Marley, Fitzgerald and Thatcher.

On Tuesday the Monday Night club enjoyed a pleasant evening with Mr. and Mrs. William J. Turner. The members of the club are Messrs. and Mesdames Sine, Garoutte, Jewell, Hibner, Casebeer, Whiting, Hutchins and Turner. The invited guests were Messrs. and Mesdames Parker, Morse, R. M. Turner; Misses Polk and Reynolds.

Mrs. Elmer B. Stephenson reviewed "Seats of the Mighty," by Gilbert Parker, at the last meeting of the literature department of the woman's club of Lincoln. The remaining meetings of this department will be devoted to the study of the "Merchant of Venice," and will be held in room 302, high school building. The next meeting will be on March 22d, at 2:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Van Brunt entertained the Lincoln Century club last Tuesday afternoon. There was a full attendance of members, as it was also a farewell meeting to Mrs. G. W. Noble, one of the members of the club who soon removes to Omaha. The regular subject of the afternoon was the lace, tapestry and Delft ware of Holland. The next meeting will be held March 27th, when the school system and universities of Holland will be discussed.

On Wednesday evening the members of All Souls Church gave a reception to
