Thus three years income in the treasury would be sufficient to meet the printing and other necessary expenses of the convention. The suggestion that the general federation shall consist solely of individual clubs, and that state federations shall exist as state organizations, with the avowed object of enlarging and developing such work as may seem most needed for the welfare of each state, are new ideas.

The mothers' meeting of the woman's club of Plattsmouth was postponed Monday afternoon to Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Walker, president of the state W. C. T. U., was present and addressed the ladies. In the evening a parlor social was held at Mrs. Herold's, to which every one was invited, to meet Mrs. Walker. A program was given.

The last meeting of the music department of the Lincoln woman's club was held at the home of Mrs. G. F. Fisher. As several members of this department are expecting to go to Europe this summer, and to visit not only the Paris exposition, but Oberammergau also, the leader, Mrs. Eames, lectured on "The Passion Play at Oberammergau," which will be presented this summer from May to October. Great interest centers about this play, and all American tourists in Europe will surely find their way there, as the play is presented only once in twenty years. The next meeting of this department will be with Mrs. J. M. Birkner, 825 J street on March 30th. Subject, "Bach's Life and Compositions."

Mrs. H. B. Patrick entertained the Hall in the Grove of Lincoln last Friday afternoon. "Art and Artists of Rome" was presented by Mrs. Winchester, who added much to this interesting topic by illustrating it with many pictures. Mr. George Adams read a very interesting paper on "Sculpture and Sculptors in Rome." The subject chosen for the coming year's study was France, which is to be elaborated into a program by Meedams Garten and Stein.

The child study department of the Lincoln woman's club last Saturday afternoon was favored with a very interesting address by Mrs. A. J. Sawyer on the subject of "The Home of the Future."

At the last meeting of the New Book Review club of Lincoln Mrs. Stonebraker exhaustively reviewed "David Harum." Mrs. Widener entertained the club at her pleasant home in East Lincoln, which was a veritable flower garden with its profusion of blooming plants. Roses, hyacinths, tulips, heliotrope and many other flowers transformed the house into a garden. The members were prepared to present their favorite tune on the Jew's harp provided by the hostess. The honors were accorded to Mrs. Elise Baker. After this merry interlude, the customary toasts "over the tea cups" were given.

Weeping Water Zetetic club was called to order by the vice president, Mrs. Dunham, March 17th, at the home of Mrs. Nellie Miller, ten members and one visitor being present. Mrs. Keithley, our visitor, sang very beautifully the solo, "Trouble." Mrs. Teegarden conducted a short parliamentary practice, which was after the manner of a question box, written questions being brought in by the members to be answered by other members called upon. Mrs. Gates gave a very interesting and encouraging report from the visiting school committee, in which she had none but words of commendation for the work done by our public schools of this place. Adjourned to meet March 31st with Mrs. Woodford.

WEEPING WATER, Nebr., Feb. 24, 1900.—This afternoon the Zetetic club was called to order by the vice president at the home of Mrs. Donelan. Fourteen members were present. Mrs. Shannon was elected to membership. Mrs. Dunham very ably presented the subject of "Sandwich Islands—Missionary Progress—Leper Island." Mrs. Nellie Sackett read an ideal original paper, subject, "The Ideal Woman." Our hostess served delicious popcorn balls. Mrs. Teegarden played the solo "Illusion."

The Fortnightly met Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. C. H. Gere. Mrs. H. H. Wilson, chairman of the committee appointed to prepare the program for next year, presented the plan in detail, which includes important achievements of the past century. Mrs. W. J. Lamb, leader for the afternoon, read a very interesting paper on "The Jew in Russia." It was decided to hold the election of officers at the next meeting, which will be held on April 3d at the home of Mrs. A. J. Sawyer.

The W. T. M. of East Lincoln gave an original program last Friday. At each meeting the members of this club respond to roll call with selections from some author named by the vice president at the previous meeting. For a change the members were requested to bring for this meeting an original production. The hostess, Mrs. G. J. Hess of 337 North Twenty-sixth street, offered a prize for the best poem. Mrs. Hess shifted the responsibility of judge upon an invited guest, Mrs. J. F. Stevens, who was supposed to be a disinterested party. "Suspension Bridge" was the title of a
