

vases of la France roses, in the library meteor roses and in the dining room pink carnations. The guests were seated at small tables in the library and dining room. An elaborate dinner of nine courses was served, and the conversation did justice to the occasion, it being both spirited and spirituel. The invited guests were: Messrs. and Mesdames H. H. Wilson, I. M. Kimball, I. M. Raymond, Morrill, George Clark, R. H. Oakley, Doctor and Mrs. Edgren, Doctor and Mrs. Sherman, Doctor and Mrs. Bessey, Professor and Mrs. Caldwell, Professor and Mrs. Hodgman, Judge and Mrs. Pound, and Doctor and Mrs. Keifer of Norfolk.

The Athenae club met on Friday, April the twenty-seventh, with Mrs. Tilton. Mrs. Irvine had the paper for the afternoon on Swedish Art.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Curtice will give a reception on Tuesday, from five to eight o'clock, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Beman Dawes.

Mr. and Mrs. John M. Jaques, who have been spending the week in Chicago, have returned to the city.

The May dance given in the Auditorium on Tuesday evening was a very successful affair. There were many present and the cool night breeze that came up made dancing especially delightful.

Mrs. Boettcher gave a kensington to a few friends on Thursday afternoon. Those present were: Mesdames Jones of Aurora, Barngrover, Al Bowen, Harry Bowen, Warner, Chapin, and Wharton. Ices and cakes were served.

Judge and Mrs. Reese entertained at dinner on Friday. The guests were seated at small tables and covers were laid for twenty four. The old adage "the chief adornment of a house, is the friends who frequent it" certainly has been proven at the Reese dinners. The meats were served with a sauce of good things. Those present were: Governor and Mrs. Poynter, Professor and Mrs. Eames, Doctor and Mrs. Ward, Doctor and Mrs. Pound, Doctor and Mrs. Hoover, Doctor and Mrs. Wharton, Messrs. and Mesdames Rissler, Hall, A. K. Griffith and Charles Griffith.

Mr. and Mrs. Boettcher entertained a small card club on Wednesday evening. High five was the game played. Those invited were: Messrs. and Mesdames Reeder, Mason, Warner, Doctor and Mrs. Bentley, Mrs. Weidenheimer, Mrs. Campen, Mrs. Hershey, and Miss Hershey. This was the last meeting of the season.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Hardy gave a dinner on Thursday to a small camping club who always spend a few weeks together each summer. The dinner was carried out very completely, not only with various souvenirs of last summer's trip, but it was also served by the old colored cook who was with them last summer.

Mrs. Frank P. Lawrence, Mrs. Arthur H. Gleason and Miss Esther Jeanette Green, will give a reception this afternoon at 1745 Euclid Avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Townsend entertained the Good Times High Five club on Thursday, April the twenty-sixth. Miss Orpha Platt and Mr. Riley won the royal prizes, and Mr. and Mrs. Conger received the consolation gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Nelson entertained at euchre on Friday evening in honor of the members of the land commissioner's office. The royal prize was won by Miss Leese.

The E. E. D. Kensington club met with Mrs. and Miss Hass on Wednesday afternoon, April the twenty-fifth. The hours passed happily, the guests being much occupied in an unique game in which Mrs. Auld was the most successful. There were recitations and music, and then refreshing dishes.

Mrs. Bucketaff gave a breakfast on Thursday at half past twelve, in honor of her sister, Mrs. Jaycox. The guests were a few of the friends of Mrs. Jaycox. Those present were: Mesdames Guy Brown, Guthrie, Frank Smith and Mrs. Welcott.

Mr. and Mrs. Howe entertained the Good Times Euchre club on Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Rosa Funke. There were cards until eleven o'clock and then a supper was served in the dining room which was fragrant with quantities of lilacs. The floor was canvased and there was dancing to the attractive music of an orchestra. The invited guests were: Messrs. and Mesdames Crancer, Curtice, George Woods, Frank Woods, Mark Woods, W. C. Wilson, Marshall, John Dorgan, Rector, Fitzgerald, Will Kelley, Buckstaff, Carl Funke, J. B. Wright and Ladd. Mrs. Beman Dawes, Mrs. Griffith and Mrs. Jaycox. Misses Alice Cowdery, Oakley, Hollowbush, Nance, Burr, Marshall, and Putnam. Messrs. Funkhauser, Baldwin, Holmes, Honeywell, Zehrunge Joyce and McKillip of Omaha.

Mrs. D. D. Mair, Mrs. Wilson and Mrs. Dorgan returned this week after a pleasant visit in Chicago.

Mrs. Schwab, 1606 L street, proposes to sell her stock of Mexican drawn work at less than cost, and solicits an early inspection.

Do you get your Courier regularly? Please compare address. If incorrect, please send right address to Courier office. Do this this week.

See our new stock of Gas and Electric Fixtures. Kormeyer Plumbing and Heating Co.

Miss Agnes E. Persson, 1618 L street, graduate and post graduate of Emerson College of Oratory, Boston, will give private and class instruction in physical culture, voice culture (speaking voice) and oratory. Also cures impediment in speech. Terms: Class work, Ph. culture, 20 lessons, $5.00. Class work, oratory, 20 lessons, $10.00. Private work, Ph. culture, per lesson, $1. Private work, oratory, per lesson, $1.50. Further particulars given on request. Telephone No. 786.

Hair Dressing, Shampooing, Scalp Treatment, Manicuring, and Switch Work. Anna Rivett and Agnes Rawling 143 South 12th street.

Union Fuel Company, 1014 O, phone 355, coal, coke, and wood.

All subscriptions to The Courier received before the first of July, only $1.00

The "Review of Reviews" for May publish the announcements of three hundred great conventions, congresses, and other gatherings to be held during 1900 in this country and in Europe.

TIME IS MONEY.

When you are traveling, due consideration should be given to the amount of time spent in making your journey.

The Union Pacific is the best line and makes the fastest time by many hours to Salt Lake City, Portland and California points.

For time tables, folders, illustrated books, pamphlets descriptive of the territory traversed, call at City Office, 1044 O st.

E. B. Slosson
Gen. Agent

Do you get your Courier regularly? Please compare address. If incorrect, please send right address to Courier office. Do this this week.

A FUREORE IN WASH DRESS GOODS

Beginning May 7.

Tremendous cash purchases made by our eastern representative for the Lincoln and Peoria stores. If you cannot attend this sale in person,

SEND FOR SAMPLES.

- 100 pieces of all wool challies, Silk Tissues, Mousseline de Soie and Silk Corded Madras Cloth, in all the new and dainty spring styles, our price, per yard.....49c
- 20 pieces Satin Striped Zephyrs, a charming cloth for summer dresses and waists, our price, per yard...39c
- 500 pieces fine Imported Dimities, Egyptian Tissues, French Tissues, 1/2 wool Challies, satin stripe, all the grand and dainty effects—every piece a thing of beauty, our price, per yard.....25c
- All the new Batistes and Dimities in the popular colorings—a tremendous assortment, per yard.....15c
- 700 pieces of plain and fancy lawns—novelty printings on white and colored ground—extremely cheap for, per yard.....10c

WHITE DRESS GOODS.

5,000 pieces bought in St. Louis at one-half the regular price. Your chance in the future to save money on your Wedding or Graduation costume will never happen again.

ONE WEEK ONLY.

- 41 inch fine quality India Linen—an extraordinarily fine cloth to sell for 25. This week's price, per yard.....12 1/2c
- Persian Lawns and Swiss Mulls for graduation dresses, special values for 18c, 20c, 25c, 29c, 35c, 43c and 49c per yard

We do the largest wash dress goods business in the city of Lincoln—carry more stock and, therefore, larger assortments to select from. Come and see.

LINCOLN, FitzGerald PEORIA, ILLINOIS.
NEBRASKA. DRY GOODS CO.

The Fastest Growing Store in the West.

CLUBS.

(Continued from Page 5.)

meetings were held with two topics for each meeting. Nine different lectures were given: Dr. Stein on "Hereditry," Professor Hart on "The Development of Emotion;" Dr. H. B. Lowery, "Use of the Sense Organs;" Rev. Fletcher Wharton, "The religious training of children;" Dr. Stevens "Environment;" Mrs. Winchester, "The child saving problem;" Superintendent Gordon, "The home and school problem;" Mrs. A. J. Sawyer, "The home of the future;" Mrs. H. H. Wheeler, "The period of adolescence," with a subject by the members of the department in addition to the lectures and a general discussion. The department is in favor of combining the child study and domestic economics departments.

On Tuesday, April 24th in the club rooms in Fairbury was held the last meeting of the department of literature. Under the able leadership of Mrs. McDowell this department has been popular and the year's work very satisfactory. The program for the day had been carefully prepared. The music included a whistling solo, as well as both vocal and instrumental numbers. Mrs. Warren Perry read a paper, "Music as a Factor in Education." Mrs. McCoy recited a pathetic little story. "Interesting Cities in America," by Mrs. Morse. Mrs. Stephens reviewed the work of the literary department for the year.

The following program was rendered by the literary department of the Fairbury Woman's club, April 24:
Response—A fact in history.
Music.
Paper—Music as a Factor in Education, Mrs. Perry.
Music.
Recitation—Mrs. McCoy.
Paper—Interesting Cities of America, Mrs. Morse.
Music.
Short Talk—Mrs. Stephens.
Music.

The Cozy club of Tecumseh held a very enjoyable musical entertainment at the home of Miss McCrosky Tuesday evening, April 24. All the numbers were by German composers. Miss Fuller of Pawnee City was present and took