

music and to try for an American cycle of song.

The entertainment was followed by a reception to the gentlemen who furnished the program. The table was gay with tulips and roses. Mrs. Draper Smith, Mrs. Cole and Mrs. Lowrie introduced the guests. Mrs. Langfeldt and Mrs. Bowman poured tea, while the entire literature department served the multitude with tea and wafers. The committee in charge consisted of Meedames Langfeldt, Bowman, Akin and Crowley. At the business session of the club Meedames Andrews and Heller were elected as delegates to the Mothers' congress in Des Moines. Meedames Lobingier and G. W. Clark were elected as delegates to the convention of Charities and Correction at Topeka. It was decided to continue the monthly contribution of fifteen dollars to the travelers' aid. The offer of the Daily News to give one edition of the paper to the Woman's club to publish, proceeds to go to the governors of Ak-Sar-Ben, was brought before the club. Upon vote of the club, the offer was accepted. Resolutions of sympathy were sent to Mrs. Rebecca Lowe, president of the G. F. W. C., of Atlanta, Georgia, Mrs. Lowe having recently lost her husband.

The last meeting of the season of the Hall in the Grove was held at the home of Mrs. H. B. Patrick of Lincoln: The subject for the year has been Italy, and Mrs. Anderson's paper last Friday afternoon was on "Pisa and Lucca," while the subject for general discussion was "Government and Education." The following officers for the coming year were elected: President, Mrs. F. W. Gibson; first vice president, Mrs. H. B. Patrick; second vice president, Mrs. C. L. Hall; secretary and treasurer, Mrs. O. M. Thompson. Mrs. F. S. Stein was appointed as alternate to the Milwaukee biennial and Mrs. Orcutt second alternate. Mrs. H. M. Garten was elected delegate to the state federation convention, with Mrs. Patrick and Mrs. Isaac Johnson alternates.

On Tuesday evening, April 24, the T. F. W. C. of Wayne, Nebr., held its first open meeting at the home of Mrs. Frank Skeon. About fifty ladies were present. The president, Mrs. Burdick, called the meeting to order and announced the program. Her inaugural address was of great interest. She reviewed the work of the past year and suggested changes for the next. She touched on all business and social obligations of club women, one to another, and the duty of each club to the federation. Mrs. I. M. Pile told us what the nineteenth century had done for women. Music closed the program.

The members of Lincoln Sorosis and all ex-members who were in the city enjoyed the reminiscence meeting at the home of Mrs. A. J. Sawyer Tuesday afternoon, April 24. Mrs. E. R. Guthrie, the leader, had arranged a program of letters from absent members. We were reminded how soon a little band may become scattered to the four winds. Mrs. Maule wrote from Denver, Mrs. Little from California, Mrs. Bryan from Texas, Miss Sarah Wool Moore from New York, Mrs. Atkinson from Omaha, Mrs. Root from Illinois, Mrs. Canfield from Spain, Miss Stoddard, Mrs. Beebe and Mrs. Shipman from Chicago, Mrs. Brace from Missouri, and so on until each absent member was located. At the close of the program dainty refreshments were served, during which absent members were toasted. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. G. H. McGahy May 8, when the election of officers will take place.

The members of the child study department of the Woman's club of Lincoln are in favor of combining with the household economics department and calling the new organization the "home" department.

THEATRICALS.

THE OLIVER.

The trials of the engaged young lady in preparing her trousseau, fade into oblivion when compared to Miss Ada Rehan's yearly preparations. She is "wedded to her art" and each season, passionately as the bride she selects her trousseau.

A bride's trousseau rarely exceeds twenty gowns, whereas Miss Rehan's number over a hundred, necessitating the services of three maids and twenty-three trunks. This extraordinary array represents her house, street and stage costumes, as Miss Rehan's repertoire this season includes five different plays. Dreary weeks, many heart aches, head aches and mammoth army of dress-makers participated in this costly preparation.

Miss Rehan will present "The Taming of the Shrew," at the Oliver theatre on Monday, May 7th, and will wear a number of beautiful gowns. Prices, lower floor and first four rows in balcony $1.50; balance balcony $1.00; gallery 50 cents. Seats now on sale.

When Henrietta Crossman brings "One of Our Girls" to the Oliver theatre on next Thursday night, May 10th, the feminine portion of the population will be treated to a series of stunning gowns and millinery. As a well dressed woman Henrietta Crossman possesses a reputation second to none, and the gowns and hats she wears in "One of Our Girls" were especially imported for her this spring. When Miss Crossman played here last year in "Mistakes Will Happen," she wore several dresses quite widely commented upon.

Seats for Miss Crossman's engagement will be on sale Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock, May 8th. Prices 25, 50 and 75 cents, and $1.00.
