

which was answered simultaneously by all on the stage. Many of the costumes were of great beauty, and as the "Castilians" are great travelers in Spain, as well as students of her art and history, many of the ladies wore shawls, mantillas, pearls, fans, and even whole costumes which they themselves had brought from Spain. Mrs. Woolson was gowned in black and pale blue, with mantilla of Spanish lace, and wore the golden arrows of Isabella set with tourmaline, which were presented to her by the club. Mrs. Crane was a stately figure in white lace mantilla and pearls which she purchased in Seville. Mrs. Washington G. Benedict made a very picturesque Benedictine nun; Mrs. Adeline C. Ferguson was gorgeous in red and yellow, as one of Cervantes' characters; Miss Thompson wore a Maritana costume of yellow satin; Miss Jocelyn wore a striking peasant costume; Miss Elizabeth Porter Gould wore a handsome costume of white crepe and black Spanish lace; Mrs. Hallett and many others wore beautiful costumes of crepe and lace and the Spanish colors. Supper was served from nine to eleven in the banquet hall from tables gorgeously decorated in red and yellow, and a charming feature of the evening was the solo dancing by the herald, Mr. Benedict.

The reception and musical to be given to the members of the Matinee Musical at the home of Mrs. Mary Fitzgerald will occur on Monday afternoon, May the twenty-first.

Doctor and Mrs. F. W. Tucker gave a reception on Friday evening for the graduating class of the Wesleyan Conservatory of Music. There were about a hundred guests, the musical faculty, and a few friends being asked, besides the graduates. Palms and potted plants were used everywhere in great numbers. Doctor and Mrs. Tucker and Professor O. E. Locke, director of the Wesleyan Conservatory, received the guests. In the library, which was decorated with a profusion of flowers and potted plants, a fruit punch was served by Miss Piper. The dining room was made fragrant and effective with Easter lilies and roses. Ice cream and strawberries were served here and those assisting were the Misses Ethel Bignell, Stella Douglas and Francis Huntington. There was a short, interesting musical program. The Wesleyan quartette gave several numbers. Miss Shepherd a violin solo, Miss Ethel Tyndale sang, Professor Turner recited and Miss Forestall rendered an instrumental solo. The members of the graduating class are the Misses Minnie E. Gardiner, Victoria Hedden, Pearl Anderson, Cecel Longworth, Mabel Vincent, Leslie Crawford, Sadie Hepperlen, Edith Tyndall, Eunice Mouteon, Edith Forestall, Gertrude Meade Edna Dickson, Mrs. A. E. Van Skiske and Mr. Frank W. Farnes. The door was opened by Miss Florence Hiltner.

The invited guests are: Mesdames Manahan, Merrill, Curtice, Dorgan, Dawes, George Woods, W. F. Kelley, Howe and Crancer. Misses Burnham, Lewis of Kentucky, Alexander of Omaha, Kelley, McClure of Mount Pleasant, Hollowbush, Nance, Oakley, and Putnam.

Cadet Captain Paul Weeks of Company B, was at home to the members of his company on Tuesday evening from eight to ten o'clock. The house was radiant with flowers representing the University scarlet and cream, there being carnations and Meteor roses. A college town knows what good times college boys may have together and Tuesday was a decided expression of this faculty of enjoyment. There is certainly a distinctive camaraderie among members of the same company. There were speeches and college songs that came unprompted except from the spirit of the occasion. Mrs. Sedgwick of York, added much to the evening's pleasure by her delightful playing. Besides the members of the company, Regent and Mrs. Teeters and Mr. Stebbins, former Captain of Company B, were present. Mrs. Weeks served a supper of the good things of which young men are fond.

Mrs. Wallace, Mrs. Stevens and Mrs. Peters will give a reception at the home of the former, 2645 Q street, this afternoon.

Before leaving Lincoln on Thursday, May the third, Senator Thurston received a message inquiring whether he would be in Omaha that evening. About half past eight an orchestra occupied the veranda of his residence and played a great variety of patriotic airs until midnight.

Mrs. Angie F. Newman lectured in Fremont before the students of the Normal school on "Army Experiences in Honolulu." On Wednesday of this week she spoke in Otoe county on the "Land of Pyramids."

Mrs. Elias Baker entertained at six handed euchre on Wednesday afternoon for Mrs. Strickler of Omaha, and Mrs. Brown of Des Moines. The house was filled with flowers, roses, carnations and lilacs in profusion. Mrs. S. C. Hoover and Mrs. William Dorgan were the most successful players of the afternoon. Those present were: Mesdames Brown, Strickler, A. L. Hoover, S. C. Hoover, William Dorgan, Aitken, M. I. Aitken, George H. Clark, Helweg, Tuttle, Van Brunt, Garoutte, Casebeer, C. I. Jones, Kirby, Mullen, Frank Woods, Stonebreaker, Rewick, Riesser, and Scott. Misses Gertrude Aitken, Riesser, Weeks and Bradt of Beatrice.
