Johnson wore a charming white mull. About one hundred guests were present. There were roses and other flowers about. In the dining room green and white were the prevailing colors. Ice, cakes and coffee were served by the Misses Hathaway, Moore, Parsons, Barnaby and Hedges. The gifts, of which there a number were exceedingly pretty. Later in the season Mr. and Mrs. Betz will take a wedding trip.

Miss Margery Watkins gave a "Twilight Recital" on Thursday at eight o'clock. The evening was cool and refreshing, and the music from Miss Margery's sympathetic touch gave great beauty to the quiet twilight hours. The program was as follows.

- Flatterer—
- Wellenspiel—
- Andante—
- Long—Whip-Poor-Will
- Longing—
- Song—Last Night
- Silvery Thistle—
- After the music ice cream and cake were served. The invited guests were:

Mr. and Mrs. Wurzburg and the Misses Pauline Meyer, Jessie Outcalt, Claire Funke, Zelis Corneil, Vashti Cornell, Jessie Mosher, Grace Ernst, Rachel Nicholson, Georgia Fields, Alice Auld, Myrtle Stentz, Edith Foster, Florence Harman, Winifred Sherman, Ruth Baker, Edna Baker, Luella Lansing, Helen Wilson, Helen Dolson, Nan Cunningham, Ethel Pool, Ruth Raymond, Ruth Bell, Gladys Hargreaves, Louise Burnham, Lillian Fitzgerald and Helen Laws,

Mayor and Mrs. Winnett gave a dinner on Tuesday evening. Carnations made a fragrant and effective centre piece. Those who had the pleasure of gathering at the board that evening were: Doctor and Mrs. Wharton, Doctor and Mrs. Edgren, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson, Miss Harris and Doctor Winnett Orr.

A very quiet June wedding was that of Mr. Carleton Hura Kelley of Belle Plaine, Iowa, and Miss Carolyn Marie Melick, U. of N. '98, and student at the University Conservatory of Music.

Only immediate relatives witnessed the ceremony, which occurred at five o'clock on Thursday afternoon, at the home of the bride's parents, 330 North Twenty-ninth street. Reverend Eason of Holy Trinity church, officiated. The bridal couple left in a shower of rose leaves, taking the five fifty train for Belle Plaine. After a short tour, they will return to their Iowa home where the groom is a partner in his father's hardware business.

A picnic dinner was enjoyed on the beautiful lawn of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac M. Raymond on Saturday evening. All kinds of good things were served and the evening hours flew quickly. About fifty people were in attendance.

Mrs. Charlotte Robertson is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. H. B. Ward.

Congressman E. J. Burkett and Mrs. Burkett returned to Lincoln on Wednesday.

Miss Charlotte Clark gave a breakfast on Saturday morning in honor of Miss Ricketta. A menu of delicate plats was served. The guests were: Mrs. Lyon and Mrs. Will Clark, the Misses Ricketts, Towne, Spurek, Jessie Spurek, Hammond, Ellen Gere, Frances Gere, Harley, Marsland and Kirker.

Miss Prentice, who has been studying the past year in the Albany Library School, has been appointed cataloguer at Bryn Mawr for the ensuing year.

On Saturday Miss Charlotte Clark entertained the members of Kappa Alpha Theta. The seniors of this year, Miss Wiggernhorn, Miss Jessie Macfarland and Miss Ruth Wilson, were presented with silver spoons as an expression of the fraternity's interest in their work and an appreciation of their efforts.

Three years ago the class of 1900 of Wellesley made Miss Helen Gould an honorary member. Various visits have been planned, but Miss Gould has been detained. She expects to go to Wellesley today in order to meet the graduating class.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Westermann gave
