SOCIETY

One of the very pretty June weddings was that of Miss Grace M. Talcott to Mr. Augustus Ferdinand Duysing, at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Talcott, 1113 H street, on Wednesday evening, June the twenty-seventh. Dr. Wharton was the officiating clergyman. The rooms were decorated in smilax, palms, roses and carnations. The archways and chandeliers were hung with great strands of smilax while the mantles were banked with flowers. White carnations were massed in the drawing room and deep red roses in the dining room. At the beautiful strains of the Lohengrin march, played by Miss Elizabeth Sutton of Table Rock, the bridal party descended the stairway. First came the ring bearer, little Edgar Maine, a nephew of the bride. Then came the groom with his best man, Mr. L. A. Bauman of St. Joseph, followed by the maid of honor, Miss Lotta Talcott. She preceded the bride who was charming in her wedding gown of white Brussels net over taffeta, with an abundance of tiny gauze ruffles bordering the train. Her flowers were brides roses. The maid of honor wore a dainty gown of sheer white and carried pink roses. After the ceremony and congratulations, refreshments were served in the dining room. A centre piece of red roses made attractive table decorations and were seen through four strands of smilax which extended from the chandelier to the table. The ices were pink and were served by several young lady friends of the bride. Miss Margaret Sutton of Table Rock, and Miss Elsie Watkins of Tecumseh, presided at the punch bowls. They were assisted by Misses Ruby Allen, Lela Bosserman, Grace McGrew, Pauline Wright, Elizabeth and Blanche Copeland. The guests were received by Mr. and Mrs. Talcott, assisted by Mrs. C. W. Lyman, Mrs. C. A. Talcott of Tecumseh, and Mr. Harry Talcott. Guests from out of town attending the wedding were: Tecumseh, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Wright, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Talcott, Mrs. John Sherman, Miss Elsie Watkins and Mr. F. D. Wright. Table Rock, Misses Margaret Sutton, Elizabeth Allen and Mr. J. N. Phillips. Auburn, Doctor D. N. McGrew and Miss Grace McGrew. Firth, Mrs. Ida Hill. Irving, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Wright. Falls City, Mr. W. A. Stewart. Mr. and Mrs. Duysing departed on an early train on Thursday morning for a two month's visit in the east. After September first they will be at home in St. Joseph where Mr. Duysing is engaged in business.

Judge and Mrs. Irvine entertained very happily on Monday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. William Leonard. The veranda was made comfortable with chairs, rugs and cushions. With the evening came a kindly, cool breeze that added zest to the conversation of the various groups. Mrs. Wright and Miss Oakley added much to the entertainment of the guests by several songs. A luncheon of two courses was served. The guests were: Messrs. and Mesdames Leonard, Walter Hargreave, Buckstaff, Tilton, Wright, R. H. Oakley, W. C. Wilson, and W. B. Wilson. Miss Oakley, Mrs. Griffith, Doctor Ladd and Mr. George Shedd.

Miss Alice Hubbard, daughter of Mrs. A. E. Hubbard, was married at the home of her mother to Mr. Preston Mathews at half past seven o'clock on Wednesday evening, June 20. The wedding party consisted of Miss Caroline Gleason, a cousin of the bride, gowned in yellow silk tissue with garnitures of black velvet; the best man, Mr. D. Calvin Mathews, brother of the groom; Miss Hubbard and Mr. Mathews. The bride wore a becoming gown of soft, white silk mull. The house was lighted with pink candles and decorated with many handsome roses. Dr. Fletcher Wharton was the officiating clergyman and Professor Hartley played the Lohengrin march. After the ceremony a luncheon was served. About forty guests were bidden to attend. Mr. and Mrs. Mathews have gone to Colorado Springs. They will visit other summering places in Colorado.

At the home of Rev. and Mrs. Scott occurred the marriage of their daughter Bertha to Mr. O. P. Gripe, at eight o'clock Wednesday evening, June 20. With the first notes of the wedding march Miss Scott, gowned in delicate white and carrying bride roses, entered on the arm of the groom. Reverend Ash performed the ceremony and Miss Effie Wilson was at the piano. After the ceremony a collation was served to a large number of guests.

Mrs. James Manahan has been in Cincinnati this week, as delegate from the University of Nebraska chapter of Delta, Delta, Delta.

Chapter K. of P. E. O. made festive its last meeting by a tea given at the home of the President, Mrs. Oren E.
